CABINET ORDERS HUGE REFORM TO SAVE GERMANY

Defies Fascisti; Cuts Salaries 20%.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Sept. 30. — Chancellor Bruening today presented to the reichstag one of the most sweeping reform programs ever attempted in Germany. It is a final desperate effort to straighten out the nation's muddled financial situation. The drastic program, which is in direct defiance of the threats of Adolf Hitler's Fascist party, was handed to the reichstag on a "take it or leave it" basis. The alternative to rejecting the scheme is another period of rule by dictatorship.

The reform plan, which includes provisions such as huge salary cuts for government officials, reductions in taxation and sweeping economies in public administration, has the complete support of President von Hindenburg, and must be adopted in its entirety, "with no dillydallying." Should the reichstag refuse to pass the program, Chancellor Bruening has President von Hindenburg's authority to declare it law by decree, in accordance with article 48 of the constitution.

President's Pay Cut 20 Per Cent.

Among the provisions of the Bruening program is a 20 per cent reduction in the salaries of the president, the chancellor, federal and state cabinet ministers, and members of the reichstag and state diets. This reduction is for a period of three years as from April 1, 1931.

The salaries of all other officials of German states and municipalities, the Reichsbank and the German Railway company will be cut 6 per cent. This also applies to pensions. The cabinet appeals to the officials to agree to this sacrifice in the public interest.

There is no reference to a reduction in the reichswehr pay. This is considered significant, in view of the widespread pro-Fascist feeling among the reichswehr, as revealed at Leipsig in the trial of three young officers on charges of treason.

Cut Budget by $250,000,000.

The cabinet estimates that the 1930 budget will close with a deficit of about $220,000,000, of which one-third is due to higher unemployment costs [doles] and two-thirds to lower receipts. This deficit will be covered by a special fund over three years.

The budget for 1931 will be cut by $250,000,000. The reduction in officials' salaries, it is estimated, will save more than $50,000,000. Higher duties will be levied on tobacco to bring in $40,000,000.

No increase in public expenditures will be permitted for three years. If receipts increase then, the surplus must be devoted to relief of the taxpayers. With an eye to checking unemployment and bettering housing conditions the government proposes to build 215,000 houses and flats. Federal payments to state treasuries will be cut sharply and poor relief limited.

Simplify Taxation System.

The taxation system will be simplified, with the aim of reducing the collecting costs, which now amount to 4½ per cent. Tax officials will be taken off the job of harassing the small man, whom it does not pay the state to chase. With this object, the free taxable limit for property tax is raised to $5,000 and that for turnover tax to $1,250.

Chancellor Bruening this afternoon initiated negotiations with former Chancellor Hermann Mueller and the Prussian premier, Otto Braun, for Socialist support of his program. Observers, however, see little hope of the program being passed. The Fascists, the second largest party in the reichstag, are considered certain to vote solidly against it. It is anticipated that the scheme will be rejected by the reichstag and then passed by decree of the chancellor. In that event the members of the reichstag would be sent home and another general election foreshadowed in the not distant future.

EDITH BOLLING WILSON VISITS NIECE IN CITY

Mrs. Edith Bolling Wilson, widow of the war time President, Woodrow Wilson, arrived in Chicago yesterday for a brief visit at the home of her niece, Mrs. J. E. Moeling, 5000 East End avenue. Mrs. Wilson came here from Des Moines, Ia., where she had been visiting friends and plans to return to Washington from here. She is traveling alone. Mrs. Moeling said yesterday that Mrs. Wilson would be here for only a day or two.

WORLD SERIES STARTS TODAY: CARDS VS. A'S

Grimes to Hurl for St. Louis Nine.

The Cubs and the White Sox will open their city baseball series at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Comiskey park. Pat Malone will pitch for the Cubs, while Ted Lyons will work for the Sox. The first two games will be played in the American league park, the teams moving to Wrigley field on Friday for the next three games. The team winning four games will be declared city champions.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 30.—Mystery seems to be in the air as the clock moves toward the point that will send the American league Athletics and the Cardinals of the National circuit away tomorrow in the first battle of the annual fall classic which involves a world baseball title and quantities of easy money. The game will start at 12:30 o'clock Chicago time.

Connie Mack, wise in the ways of baseball, is lending his share to the uncertainty by clinging to his plan of not revealing the identity of the man he will nominate to carry the pitching burden for the American leaguers in the inaugural.

Street Shows His Hand.

Gabby Street, an infant as a manager but cunning in his own way, admits, even brags, that the Cardinals will start their big quest behind the spitball pitching of the venerable Burleigh Grimes. But Street contributes his share to the mysterious by declaring that his second baseman, Frankie Frisch, might not be among those present. The one time Fordham flash has a lame back.

Even the supposedly sleepy old town itself is carrying out the scheme of mystery. Despite the flourish with which officials of the Philadelphia club announced that they had been deluged with requests for tickets, it was reported this evening that more than a few thousand reserved seats remained unsold. The pasteboards were allotted, but nobody called for them. Even the speculators, who have enough as always, have dropped their price to just a few dollars over what the tickets originally were sold for.

Mack Puzzles Experts.

Mack's inclination to let the sports do their own picking, so far as an Athletic pitcher is concerned, has the experts dizzy today trying to figure just why this or that member of the staff should be nominated. Those who think themselves able to judge Mack's thoughts argued all day that it was sure to be Bob Moses Grove, the elongated left hander with terrific speed. Others—and they were in the majority—took the view that Mack, flushed by the luck attending his unexpected selection of Howard Ehmke in the opener last fall, would attempt another surprise.

If Mack does withhold his two aces, Grove and Earnshaw, his logical choice would be Eddie Rommel, the veteran dispenser of the knuckle ball. The slow stuff Eddie can throw might catch the Cardinals' free swingers off their guard just as Ehmke caught the Cubs' free swingers a year ago. However, there is good reason to think that in a tight game, which is probable if Grimes is anywhere near his usual form, Rommel would not have sufficient endurance to carry him through much more than half a game.

Cards Prove Garrulous.

As against Mack's desire to say nothing about what is going to happen or how it is going to happen, the Cardinals comprise about the most garrulous lot that ever enjoyed world series honors. All of them, and this includes Street, were making public speeches today about what they were going to do to regain some of the prestige lost by the National league in the last three interleague series.

The Cards took the view that they weren't vitally concerned about Mack's pitching choice tomorrow. They, so they say, will trim the man just as they trimmed everybody in the National league for the last four weeks of the recent season. They do not seem to have experienced any let down after their strenuous dash to the title. The most interesting in this respect was Grimes himself. The confidence of the portly spitballer is easily explained in part. He has the stuff, a real assortment, but the important item is that he has the heart to knock down just about every batter facing him.

There is just a suspicion that Street, in his desire to broadcast his pitching choice for game No. 1 may be kidding.

Hoover to See World Series Contest Today

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—President Hoover, with a party of fifty officials and newspaper men, will leave Washington by special train early tomorrow for a three day trip to Philadelphia and Cleveland. In Philadelphia the President will attend the first world series baseball game between the Athletics and St. Louis Cardinals. On Thursday he will arrive in Cleveland, where he will defend his administration in the first of four addresses to be delivered in the next week.

The Cleveland address will be made in the evening at the 56th annual convention of the American Bankers association. Immediately afterward the White House party will leave for the capital, arriving Friday morning. Sunday night the President will leave for Boston, where he will speak twice on Monday.

Mrs. Hoover, together with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nutt of Cleveland, will board the special train at Bedford, O., Thursday morning.

OWNER OF HOTEL RESISTS BANDITS AND IS SHOT DOWN

Waukesha, Wis., Sept. 30. — [Special.]—Max Kramer, 51 years old, proprietor of the Kramer hotel at Pewaukee, Wis., six miles northeast of Waukesha, was shot twice and probably fatally tonight when he tried to capture three bandits who had held up the place and were fleeing. The trio had entered the barroom of the resort and compelled Kramer to hold up his hands while they rifled the cash register.

As the robbers started out the front door Kramer rushed to seize them. One of the bandits fired a shot into the floor to halt him, and when he did not stop fired twice more, one bullet striking Kramer in the abdomen and the other in the leg. The robbers, all men in their twenties, fled from the hotel in a Ford roadster, and police of Milwaukee and towns on the way to Chicago were asked to be on the lookout for them.

COURT ORDERS 7 MEN NAMED IN LOVE SUIT

New York, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Joseph B. Whitehead, Coca Cola millionaire, today was ordered to disclose the full names of seven prominent men with whom he says Mrs. Annette S. Bracy, a young widow, was friendly.

The order, coming from Supreme Court Justice Hammer, won for Mrs. Bracey the first skirmish in her $500,000 breach of promise suit against Whitehead.

LOGAN A. VILAS ARRESTED AFTER CHASE IN AUTO

Logan A. (Jack) Vilas, pioneer aviator and society sportsman, was locked in an Evanston police cell last night after an automobile chase by a deputy sheriff who sought to serve a court summons on him in connection with the $500,000 slander suit filed against him earlier in the week by his former wife, Mrs. Susanne Wharton Vilas.

A charge of disorderly conduct was first preferred against Vilas and later augmented by five other charges, all signed by Deputy Sheriff Reid Ratcliffe. The additional warrants were taken out before Justice of the Peace James Barbour, who indicated that the cases would be heard some time after Oct. 10. Vilas planned to sail for Europe on that date with his three children. His bonds were set at $25,000.

According to Deputy Ratcliffe, he pursued Vilas in his car through Church street, Judson avenue, Forest avenue, Hinman avenue, and Grove street. During the chase Vilas forced Radcliffe's car to the curb several times and reversed his own and rammed the deputy's auto twice, Ratcliffe said.

Vilas, who is reputed to be a millionaire, is said to have set aside $100,000 for his former wife and his children in a divorce settlement.

Dr. Deetjen to Give an Arm to Science Today

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 30.—(AP)—Dr. Christian Deetjen tomorrow is to give an arm to his devotion to the healing and revealing science of the Roentgen or X-ray.

Dr. Deetjen already has faced operation after operation as a result of dangerous exposure to the rays. He would have been even more seriously affected, according to Dr. Alexis McGlannan, who will perform the latest operation, had he failed to take preventive operations.

Undergoes 75 Operations.

Dr. Deetjen is known as "the last of the old guard," a group of scientists who have given health and sometimes life itself in the study of X-ray.

Dr. Frederick H. Baetjer of Johns Hopkins Medical school and former president of the American Roentgen Ray society, has undergone more than 75 operations, the latest this spring. He has only one eye, and four fingers of his right hand are gone.

Professor Gives His Life.

One of the latest to die was Prof. J. Bergonie of France. Dr. M. Charles Vaillant of Paris underwent many operations in a vain attempt to stem the progress of the subtle poison which sooner or later attacked the tissues of those who worked with the X-ray in its early stages of development.

Today a screen protects the operator. The patient, exposed but a moment, is never in danger.

Dr. Deetjen is in the later sixties, and is short, plump and silver haired. Although not associated with the faculties of medical schools, he was in X-ray work earlier than his more famous contemporary. His left arm will be amputated at the elbow.

Police Fire on Cuban Student Mob; 12 Hurt

HAVANA, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Twelve police and students were wounded, three seriously, when a group of university youths staged an anti-government demonstration in the streets shortly before noon today.

Guns, machetes and sticks were used by police in breaking up the demonstration when 300 students shouted threats against the administration and started for the presidential palace to demand the resignation of President Machado.

The shooting began shortly before 11 o'clock and lasted 25 minutes.

Nab Professor and 41 Students.

Casualties were evenly divided between the bluecoats and the students, reports indicated, and one university professor was under arrest along with 41 students for alleged participation in the disturbance. He is Juan Marinero, head of the language department of the National university.

Rafael Trejo and Pablo de la Torriente, both students, received wounds which it is believed will result fatally. Of the police casualties, Officer de la Cruz Benitez was the most seriously wounded.

Reserves of mounted police were dispatched to the scene as soon as the demonstration opened. Streets leading to the latter were kept clear of traffic throughout the day.

President Calls In Police Chief.

After the riot President Machado called a conference with Rafael Carrera, chief of police of Havana. Tonight the department of interior ordered a thorough investigation, appointing Dr. Augusto Saladrigas, judge of instruction, as special judge to preside at the trial of the arrested students.

Dr. Ricardo Martinez Prieto, dean of the university, said that he had "been aware that something was going to happen" and that he had "taken all possible means to avert any trouble." He said that the opening of the fall term, scheduled for tomorrow, had been postponed until Nov. 15, or until after the scheduled November elections, when he had learned that students were planning a demonstration on the opening day.

Calls for Police Aid.

Government protection had been asked, Dr. Prieto said. He stated that in answer to his request police reserves and ambulances were placed at the university at an early hour today. The students learned of this, however, and assembled in another part of the city for a "mass demonstration of protest against the dictatorship."

Students said the main reason for their demonstration was the six weeks' postponement of the school term, which they declared would "inconvenience" them at the end of the semester.

Ecuador Chief Stays.

QUITO, Ecuador, Sept. 30.—(AP)—President Isidro Ayora of Ecuador tonight withdrew his resignation as chief of state, which he had sent to congress yesterday as "irrevocable." A message announcing his change of decision was read before a full session of congress this evening.

Congress earlier had asked the president to remain in office until his term expires Aug. 31, 1932, the chamber of deputies passing with only one dissenting vote a resolution refusing to accept the resignation and the senate recording only three votes against it. The dissenters were Socialists.

But Dr. Ayora told a congressional committee with firmness that he was through, believing it in the best interest of the country to let some one else solve Ecuador's economic and political problems, and said he would practice his profession of medicine the rest of his life.

Later a commission of military officers, senators and newspaper men went to the president's home to plead with him, but obtained only the assurance that he would soon publish an answer to their request.

CAPONE CHIEF SEIZED TWICE; OUT BOTH TIMES

Druggan at Liberty on Big Bail.

The Gang Campaign

The government and the courts of Illinois and Wisconsin all had their part in Chicago's war on gangdom yesterday with the following outstanding developments:

1. Jack Guzik is freed on total of $60,000 bonds after being arrested by the government and then by the police.

2. Danny Stanton is arrested here on a Wisconsin warrant charging him with the murder of Jack Zuta.

3. Red Barker and Jack White get a continuance on their vagrancy charges in Judge Lyle's court and learn that they are also involved in federal tax fraud charges.

4. Judge Wilkerson orders Terry Druggan examined in hospital to learn the seven ailments which keep him from federal court hearing.

Jack Guzik, "public enemy" and second in command of the Al Capone booze and vice syndicate, was seized by federal operatives yesterday on charges of trying to defraud the government out of $222,501.86 in income taxes. Following his release at 4:30 p. m. in bond of $50,000 he was arrested as a vagrant by city detectives and held in $10,000 bail.

Guzik's income for the years 1927 and 1928 as set forth in the complaints accompanying the two warrants on which he was arrested was cited by Assistant United States Attorney Jacob Grossman as indicative of the enormous revenue from gambling and other operations of the Capone gang. Guzik's alleged income for 1927 was $642,154.43 and for 1928 it was $328,147.92.

Trails Brother, Nabs Jack.

Clarence L. Converse of the internal revenue department's special intelligence unit, which investigates income tax frauds, captured Guzik after trailing the latter's brother Harry, another "public enemy" arrested by police last week, until the two met at luncheon.

Converse shadowed Harry Guzik until the latter parked his car in front of the Wabash grill, 519 South Wabash avenue, and entered the place. Agent James Oliver was stationed at the door and Converse went in to survey the premises. Hearing voices in a closed booth, he drew back the curtain and found the two Guziks and two other unidentified persons eating.

Guzik was taken to the Federal building, where A. P. Madden, chief of the intelligence unit, sought to question him, but he was reported as refusing to give any information except his name and address, 7240 Loomis avenue.

Posts Bond in Cash.

Counsel for the government and Guzik's attorney, Capt. William F. Waugh, compromised on a $50,000 bond and the defendant was arraigned before Federal Judge Woodward in the absence of United States Commissioner Walker, who issued the warrants. Judge Woodward approved the bond and set Oct. 15 for a preliminary hearing after Guzik had pleaded not guilty.

Ike Roderick, Guzik's bondsman, walked into the clerk's office and counted out the $50,000 in currency, consisting of $1,000 and $500 gold certificates. This was said to be the largest cash bond ever posted in the federal court. Roderick last week posted a $25,000 cash bond for Sam Guzik, another brother of Jack, who also is charged with income tax violations. Roderick scheduled his home at 6300 Chappel avenue, valued at $20,000, for Guzik's release on the $10,000 vagrancy bond, which was approved by Judge Francis Borelli.

While Guzik, short and stocky, neatly dressed but wearing no diamonds, was waiting to be arraigned, he lamented the fact that he is called a hoodlum. "I have never carried a gun and have never been convicted of any charge," he said.

Guzik was approached by Sergt. Jack Dalton as he left Judge Woodward's courtroom. "Your name is what?" asked the detective.

"Put your warrant in your pocket. I'll go with you," said Guzik.

Ignores Police Questions.

At the detective bureau he was taken before Chief John Norton for questioning, but declined to give any information about himself. Then he

While Wheat and Stocks Are Falling, Bonds Continue Their Rise

Just what are those Russians up to? Some say they are trying to rule the world. That which earlier nations failed to do with culture, they are attempting to accomplish with agriculture. Other suspicions arise from their simultaneous dumping of sausage casings and wheat. It looks like a conspiracy to make hot dogs cheap for democracy.

Anyhow, they have sold so many wiener wrappings that the price of that confection at Hamburg has been cut in two. Wheat has fallen one-fourth in price. And with all this confusion stocks in the market have been like a sail boat in a rough sea. But will you cast an eye on the bond market? Competition to buy bonds has been hectic and some of the blue bloods in the bond list are selling at the highest prices since they were issued. And yet bonds of some well managed companies of established earning power are still available at attractive prices. That should indicate that it's an opportune time to talk over investments with a good bond house.

was placed in a cell until he could be bailed out.

The arrest of Guzik makes the fourth member of the Capone organization named in income tax charges since United States Attorney Johnson, started his campaign against hoodlums and politicians who do not report all their profits. One of them, Ralph Capone, is under sentence of three years, and Frank Nitti, reputed business manager of the gang, is under indictment. Indictments are expected soon against the Guziks, and Al Capone's income has been under federal scrutiny for months.

Agent Converse declared that the majority of Guzik's income was derived from handbook operations, but that much of it was traced to brothels and booze. The complaint against Guzik charges that he paid taxes on only $18,090 in 1927 and $24,000 in 1928. His total income for the two years is alleged to have been $970,302.35.

DRUGGAN'S 7 AILMENTS

Terry Druggan, beer baron, who is facing a government charge of income tax fraud, won a delay yesterday in court proceedings, but an investigation of his ailments was ordered by Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson. For Terry, according to an affidavit submitted by his physicians to show cause why he could not appear in court, would be prize material for a clinic, having no less than seven "itises." A government physician will look him over before Monday, when the case comes up again, to confirm the diagnoses.

Meanwhile Terry, who has been under guard in the University hospital for the last few days, because of a vagrancy warrant, got rid of the guard yesterday by posting a $10,000 bond. Chief of Detectives Norton, when informed that the bond had been accepted, recalled the two policemen from the hospital.

Puts Up $10,000 Cash.

Just before noon yesterday, Attorney John Rooney appeared before Judge Joseph Burke in the Boys' court accompanied by a bondsman who gave his name as Richard Miller and his address as 8206 Kingston avenue, and who put $10,000 in cash onto the clerk's desk. Judge Burke approved the bond.

Terry will have to make another note on his engagement book of court appearances, the hearing on the case having been set for Oct. 2, Thursday. It will come up before Judge John H. Lyle in the Felony court.

Doctors List Ailments.

In Judge Wilkerson's court the two doctors who are attending Druggan read a list of his physical ailments. "Terrible Terry" is suffering, according to Drs. Kraft and Theodore, with this list of diseases:

1. Chronic productive bronchitis.
2. Active infective prostitis.
3. Gastro intestinal diseases; viz., [a] gastritis, [b] duodenitis, [c] cholecystitis, [d] appendicitis, [e] colitis.

"These conditions having existed for some time," read the affidavit, "progressively becoming worse, have produced a marked general run down condition. We have advised absolute quiet in bed, proper medical care, or surgical intervention when needed."

In view of this situation, Assistant District Attorney Cassius Poust remarked that he was satisfied with the continuance asked, provided that a government physician examine Druggan in the meantime. When the government succeeds in bringing the beer baron into court some queries are to be put to him about $500,000 income he is alleged to have neglected to put in his income tax returns.

WISCONSIN SENDS MURDER WARRANT FOR DAN STANTON

Police Guard Gangster Named as Zuta Killer.

Danny Stanton, Capone minion, sat in a cell at the detective bureau last night awaiting the arrival of a Wisconsin murder warrant which accuses him of killing Jack Zuta, a leader of the Moran-Zuta-Aiello gang. Deputy sheriffs from Waukesha county, Wis., were on their way to Chicago to serve the warrant and, if possible, take Stanton back with them.

"We'll try him the minute he gets here," District Attorney Herman Salen promised in Waukesha.

Prosecutor Salen is ill in bed from the effects of a wound suffered in the world war, but he declared that if Stanton fights extradition he will go to Madison immediately and ask Gov. Walter J. Kohler for a removal warrant.

Guard Stanton in Cell.

Stanton will fight being taken across the state line, Acting Police Commissioner Alcock said he had learned. The heads of the detective bureau were taking no chances of a jail delivery or gun smuggling. A guard was posted outside Stanton's cell.

The ballistics evidence upon which Prosecutor Salen relies to convict Stanton will be furnished by Lieut. Col. Calvin Goddard, firearms expert, who is prepared to testify that bullets taken from Zuta's body were fired from a gun found in Stanton's automobile.

This gun, a .38 caliber revolver, was taken from a side pocket of Stanton's car on Sept. 16 when he was arrested as one of the twenty-six public enemies listed by the Chicago crime commission and for whom Judge John H. Lyle has issued vagrancy warrants.

Arraigned as a Vagrant.

Stanton was arraigned on the vagabond charge before Judge Edgar A. Jonas on the ninth floor of the police building yesterday morning. A dispute arose when Assistant State's Attorney Harry Ditchburne, in charge of vagrancy prosecutions, asked for three weeks' continuance to gather evidence. The defense objected to the delay and the matter was finally continued to Oct. 16.

Stanton and his attorney left the courtroom and started for the elevators only to be stopped by Detectives John Howe, Frank Johnson, and William Drury, who collared the gangster and took him to the office of First Deputy Commissioner Scanlon. From there he was led through other offices and back stairways to a solitary cell. No one was allowed near him and a guard took up his vigil immediately.

Bullet Tests Lead to Charge.

Coroner Bundesen and Lieut. Col. Goddard made the comparison between the bullets in Zuta's body and those fired in tests from Stanton's revolver several days ago. Then they called for Prosecutor Salen, who came to Chicago for a two hour conference with the officials and State's Attorney Swanson. No action had been taken on the evidence until yesterday.

Zuta was slain on Aug. 1 in a resort hotel near Delafield, Wis. The disclosures of his financial operations with police and public officials, as revealed by an examination of his safe deposit boxes, created a sensation. Stanton had not been suspected of his murder until the ballistics tests were made.

RACKET JURORS ORDER SEIZURE OF UNION FILES

Oil Drivers' Records to Be Examined.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Cleveland Freeman and Joseph Zigman, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 10 years each in the penitentiary by Judge Joseph B. David.

Frank Millard and Ray Cortes, robbery, sentenced to 1 to 20 years each in the penitentiary to Judge Harry M. Fisher.

Duces tecum subpoenas were used by the state's attorney's office yesterday to seize the records of two unions which have been named in the racketeering investigation ordered by Chief Justice McGoorty of the Criminal court. The detectives found that one of the unions has apparently been driven out of business by employers, who would not stand for alleged racketeering methods.

At the time that the raids were being conducted Assistant State's Attorneys Charles Lounsbury and Charles J. Mueller were before the grand jury presenting evidence against one of the organizations named in the subpoenas. The evidence involved the Oil Wagon Drivers' and Filling Station Employés union, No. 705, with headquarters at 220 South Ashland avenue.

Halted Oil Supply, Charge.

Patrick [Paddy] Berrell is secretary and treasurer of this union; John Fitzgerald, president, and James Walsh, business agent.

Complaints have been made to the prosecutors that where efforts to unionize employés in certain gas filling stations failed the source of supply would be shut off. It is reported that the distributors were notified that the stations where employes were not unionized could not be given gasoline under penalty of a strike.

The second subpœna was aimed at the Billposters and Billers union, local 3, 18-20 East Eighth street. The detectives found that the place was occupied now by an advertising concern and that the union apparently is no longer in existence.

Ald. Oscar Nelson, who is also a vice president of the labor federation, called on Chief Justice McGoorty yesterday. It is reported that he called for the purpose of complaining that the state's attorney's assistants were using the racket investigation to harass legitimate labor. As a result of these charges a meeting will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Association of Commerce headquarters to "iron out these differences," it was announced.

The meeting will be attended by labor leaders, Col. A. A. Sprague, Col. Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Association of Commerce, State's Attorney Swanson and Judge McGoorty.

KILLED BY ELEVATOR.

William V. Quilhot, 52 years old, 602 North Ridgeland avenue, Oak Park, was fatally injured yesterday when he was crushed between an elevator and the second floor of a furniture company building at 416 North May street, where he was employed as a chauffeur.

A Great Sale of TOPCOATS

$28.50 $38.50

$48.50

Do you need an extra topcoat for driving? Would a soft downy llama or camel's hair or Shetland be of interest to you "at a price"? Would one of the serviceable homespuns or nubby tweeds for business come in handy?

Here's your opportunity! Every topcoat in the lot represents our regular standard of woolens, our regular standard of workmanship ... but at a price substantially below the customary price in our regular stocks.

Why? Because we have these topcoats that, owing to unfavorable weather conditions have not been sold, and because we believe there are men in Chicago with the foresight to pick out these topcoats and recognize each as a most unusual "buy."

BARKER AND PAL FACE INCOME TAX INQUIRY BY U. S.

Their Vagrancy Hearing Continued to Today.

Red Barker and Three Fingered Jack White, ex-convicts and racketeers, who have been named public enemies, yesterday spent a few hours in Judge John H. Lyle's court ,where they were arraigned on charges of vagrancy. The amiable grins decorating the faces of the two defendants disappeared, however, when word came that the government planned to question both about their income taxes.

Barker, with a reputed income of $25,000 annually, was served with a notice from Mrs. Myrtle Tanner Blackledge, collector of internal revenue, summoning him to explain his income return. Similar action is contemplated against White, it was learned. John Sheridan Jr., another official of the teamsters' union, which Barker and White control, was also sought for questioning about his income.

Argue for Change of Venue.

Until this news from the federal building was received, Barker and White had apparently enjoyed themselves listening to their three lawyers explain why Judge Lyle was prejudiced in the case and should not hear the vagrancy charges. Attorneys Clarence Darrow, W. W. Smith, and Milton Smith represent Barker and White.

Assistant State's Attorneys Harry Ditchburne and James Brown objected to the change of venue. Judge Lyle postponed a decision until today.

Judge Lyle also ordered Prosecutor Ditchburne to investigate the $10,000 bonds upon which the two defendants were set at liberty by Judge George B. Holmes in a short hearing Monday afternoon. Barker and White were in technical custody only two minutes at that time, although an agreement had hitherto been reached calling for Judge Lyle to examine all bonds in vagrancy cases.

Hearing Continued to Today.

The hearing before Judge Lyle was then continued until this morning, the judge and lawyers agreeing that justice could take a rest in the afternoon because of the playing of the first game of the city series.

"I can't somehow reconcile your representation of these men with your excellent record and their atrocious records," Judge Lyle remarked to Attorney Darrow.

"Their records show they have been charged with plenty, but not convicted of much," Darrow returned.

Tony Acardo, one of the eight Capone workers whose names were mysteriously omitted from a revised police list of gangsters slated for prosecution, was arrested by detectives as he left the courtroom of Judge Charles A. Williams in the Criminal Court building. He was taken to the detective bureau to be questioned by Chief of Detectives Norton, presumably concerning the manner in which the secret police document had found its way into the hands of Tony Tagenti, a Capone bodsman.

Acardo had appeared in court to answer a charge of carrying concealed weapons. The case was continued until Oct. 20.

List Inquiry at Standstill.

The investigation by Acting Commissioner Alcock of the mystery of the disappearing police list was at a standstill yesterday.

"I'm busy working on the Stanton case," said Alcock. "I haven't any time to devote to the disappearance of that list. Anyway, that's less important than a murder to me. I'll proceed legally and no one will be suspended or transferred until my investigation is completed."

Patrolman William Balswick, who typed the second list of gangsters "from memory", and omitted the names of the eight Capone henchmen, declared he was under orders "not to talk."

"Why don't you try to arrest Tagenti and ask him how he got that list?" Chief Norton was asked.

"We won't talk about that," he replied.

DIFFER ON AUTUMN STYLES

William Wrigley Jr., millionaire chewing gum manufacturer and sportsman, faced yesterday's snappy autumn breezes without a topcoat. He displayed all the better a light fall sports suit of cross striped Cheviot, with patch pockets, a tie of contrasting color, and a white shirt. He was snapped by a photographer as he left his office in the Wrigley building to go to luncheon.

Lester Armour, vice president of Armour & Co., meat packers, left the Chicago club after luncheon exemplifying correct fall styles with his tweed three button topcoat with patch pockets. He wore a small brimmed Fedora hat, trimmed with a black band, and, like Mr. Wrigley, chose a white shirt instead of a figured one.

Col. H. Maxwell Howard, lunching at the Chicago club, arrived wearing another combination of fashions ushered in by fall weather. Col. Howard wore a Derby and dark guard's overcoat, patterned after those worn by the officers of the British army. He swung a light colored cane, which gave his bearing an added touch of the military.

FILE 8 PADLOCK SUITS IN SHADOW OF U. S. CAPITOL

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Padlock proceedings were started today against eight alleged speakeasies, four of them in the vicinity of the Capitol building, as the United States attorney's office went forward with the campaign of dry officials to rid Washington of illicit liquor.

Petitions citing the owners of the properties, valued at more than $150,000, were filed in the District of Columbia Supreme court by Assistant United States Attorney John B. Williams. Judge Oscar R. Luhring signed temporary restraining orders against their use for purposes of violating the national prohibition act and in two instances signed temporary orders restraining tenants from violating the dry law anywhere in the district.

Flagrant Violations.

"In the cases where we have resorted to padlock proceedings, the law has been flagrantly violated on the premises over a period of many months," said Mr. Williams. "We feel that the owners of the properties knew, or should have known what was taking place.

"Our action is not to be viewed as a crusade, but merely as evidence that the United States attorney's office does not propose to tolerate continued violations of the law after owners of the property have received due notice. We realize the padlocking is a most drastic proceeding, but it is also highly effective."

600 Owners Warned.

The assistant district attorney declared that since Jan. 1 more than 600 property owners have been warned that the prohibition law was being violated on their property.

While the padlock suits were being filed today the police made two raids arresting four men. At one place they said they confiscated 16 gallons of beer, 12 quarts of gin, 93 quarts of rye, and 12 quarts of alcohol.

RED LETTER DAY IN HOSPITAL; 3 SETS OF TWINS

A record day was established at St. Anthony's hospital yesterday with the birth of three sets of twins. The six children and their mothers are all doing nicely, physicians reported. The children are: Charles P., 8 pounds 9½ ounces, and Joseph G., 8 pounds 7½ ounces, sons of Mrs. Elizabeth Klapka, 2630 South Clarence avenue, Berwyn; Michael Carl, 5 pounds 12½ ounces and Lawrence Ryan, 6 pounds 14 ounces, children of Mrs. Jane Amato, 1242 Erie street; and James Joseph, 4 pounds 8 ounces, and Eleanor, 3 pounds 10 ounces, children of Mrs. Eleanor Rihacek, 5519 West 25th place.

WHO ARE BARKER AND WHITE? LYLE LEARNS RECORDS

"The public should know the type of men these so-called public enemies are," declared Judge Lyle when George [Red] Barker and William [Three Fingered Jack] White were brought before him yesterday. The state's attorney's office, at his request, compiled the records of the two men, as follows:

GEORGE BARKER.

LEWIS ANSWERS MRS. McCORMICK ON WORLD COURT

Says Hoover She Praises, Wants It.

Lincoln, Ill., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Addressing an open air meeting today, James Hamilton Lewis, Democratic candidate for United States senator, referred to the speech of his opponent, Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, made at Centralia Monday night, when she injected the world court issue into the campaign.

"While the jobless toilers and bankrupt farmers are asking Mrs. McCormick what she has to say as to why she, in all the time she has been a member of congress, has never spoken one word or done one act to relieve their condition," Mr. Lewis said, "the lady responds in riddles on some lost or dead issue. She and the office seeking caravan are convoying her 'ducks' to escape their guilt in the neglect of the people of our state.

"The lady cries out something that is written for her in the manuscript speeches sent to her by her committee of experts on oratory and political legislation, for which she pays magnificent daily fees. From this the lady speaks forth on 'internationalism' and 'league of nations' and 'world court,' keeping her subject in the foreign world to escape giving an account of her home neglect.

"The lady has criss-crossed herself on so many contradictory issues that she has become dazed with her own hurdle jumping.

"I cannot see what the lady means by saying that the Republicans represent isolation and the Democrats internationalism. It was President Hoover who asked for the international Kellogg peace pact and the London treaty of naval limitations and now for the world court. This is the Republican President whom the lady, in her primary campaign, denounced as surrendering the United States to foreign entanglements and betraying his country. Now for election purposes the lady has him as our glorious President—the political death bed contrition of the lady."

Mr. Lewis took up questions of tariff, farm relief and prohibition and in his talk placed an indictment on the Republican party for its "trickery, hypocrisy and betrayal of the American people," and concluded with an appeal for state rights.

HOOVER SENDS TUTTLE THANK YOU NOTE, BUT NO HINT OF SUPPORT

New York, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Charles H. Tuttle today made public a letter from President Hoover in which the President accepted his resignation as United States attorney, but said nothing whatever about his selection as the Republican nominee for governor.

Mr. Hoover's letter, which was read by Mr. Tuttle this morning at a farewell to his staff, in part read:

"In accepting your resignation I take the opportunity of expressing my personal appreciation and that of the administration for the faithful and efficient service as the representative of the department of justice in the largest and most important district of the country, and in maintaining the high standards which have been traditional in the office of the United States attorney in your district. You have indeed established a high record of accomplishment."

FORMER BRITISH ENVOY SEES U. S. AS HUGE 'EMPIRE'

MANCHESTER, England, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Lord Howard, former British ambassador to the United States, speaking before the Manchester branch of the English Speaking union, today described the United States as a new empire, "actually far more powerful than any that has ever before existed."

Lord Howard said he still found many people in England who persisted in considering the United States as if it were just another great power like France, or Germany, or Russia before the war.

"It would be well if such persons would try to grasp one central fact of the present century," he said, "that a new empire has arisen in the world, actually more powerful than any that has ever before existed, and that the British empire has an undefended frontier of 3,000 miles with this vast continental power."

He said a realization of the facts and figures concerning each country by the other and an understanding of what each would lose by war between them was a more solid guarantee of peace than sentiment.

Two Gunmen Face Inquiry About Druggist's Murder

Jack La Monte and Abe Berger, arrested in St. Louis with four guns, and an automobile taken in a holdup in Chicago on Sept. 9, the day before the murder of Willis Fiddelke, south side druggist, are to be questioned by the Chicago police in regard to the murder, Chief of Detectives Norton said yesterday. La Monte will arrive in Chicago this morning. Berger is fighting extradition.

Immediate Relief for INDIGESTION

WHAT most people call indigestion is usually excess acid in the stomach. Food has soured. The instant remedy is an alkali which neutralizes acids. But don't use crude helps. Use what your doctor would advise.

The best help is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. For the 50 years since its invention, it has remained standard with physicians. You will find nothing else so quick in its effect, so harmless, so efficient.

One tasteless spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in acid. The results are immediate with no harmful after-effects.

Once you learn this perfect way you'll never deal in any other manner with the headaches, gas, bloating, nausea, dizziness, indigestion, biliousness, etc., due to an over-acid stomach and bowels.

Be sure to get genuine Phillips' It is always a liquid; never made in tablet form. Look for the name Phillips' on the bottle. All druggists—25c and 50c.

Tammany Corruption Is Ghost at Session.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Franklin D. Roosevelt was renominated by acclamation for governor of New York in the Democratic state convention this afternoon on a platform calling for repeal of the eighteenth amendment and demanding that all public officials and politicians waive their immunity when questioned by grand juries concerning official acts.

All candidates nominated for state office except John T. Bennett for attorney general are incumbents.

Alfred E. Smith presented Mr. Roosevelt for renomination and in so doing lauded the governor's record; accepted the challenge of the Republicans to fight it out on their own terms, and demanded that any official faithless to his trust be driven from the party and punished at the bar of justice.

Tammany Scandals Passed Over.

It was the one great telling point of the convention today, for Mr. Roosevelt in answering—he will be officially notified in New York on Oct. 3—did not refer nearly so directly to the Tammany scandals, which have cast such a shadow over this convention.

After stating that it appeared to him as if his Republican opponent, Charles H. Tuttle, was running for the office of district attorney of New York county, the governor said:

"This, it seems, is his only issue. Let me hasten to assure him that this particular governor will stand, as he has always stood, for the authority, for the enforcement and for the integrity of the law, with due respect for the fundamental rights of every citizen concerned, irrespective of political faith."

A Question for Tuttle.

And at the end of his address, a short one, he asked of Mr. Tuttle this question:

"If you become governor and if a state enforcement act is passed will you sign it or not?"

When the same question was put to him by reporters after the convention had adjourned Mr. Roosevelt's answer was, "Emphatically no!"

An unexpected feature of the convention, which closed directly after Mr. Roosevelt's address, was a seconding nominating speech by Corporation Counsel Arthur J. W. Hilly of New York City for Controller Tremaine.

Praises Mayor Walker.

Predicting there would not be a diminution of the Democratic vote in New York on account of the office buying scandals, Mr. Hilly praised Mayor Jame J. Walker as a faithful servant, devoted to his duties. It was the first time that the mayor's name was mentioned, and the last, at the convention.

However, after all was said and done it was Mr. Smith who carried away the day. The applause for him was the greater and his speech, given extemporaneously, was the one that seemed to give the delegates not only the greatest laughs but the greatest interest.

Smith Assails Corruption.

The former governor ridiculed the Republican party's platform on prohibition. He said they were "side stepping, ducking, dodging, and double crossing." The former governor praised Mr. Roosevelt in terms that could not be exceeded for their adulation of the man personally and the admiration for his two years in the executive mansion at Albany.

Mr. Smith's speech, assailing the judiciary situation in New York City, was a direct attack on the Tammany-Curry-Walker administration. Although Mr. Smith tore into the G. O. P. platform, ridiculed the Republicans' stand on prohibition, and aroused a real enthusiasm for the battle against Mr. Tuttle, "Tammany Tiger Tamer," it was the mention of the corruptionists that drew the most attention, particularly when he declared they should be driven from their parties.

McGrew Answers Divorce Suit of Jean Harlow

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 30.—(AP)—Charles F. McGrew II., of Chicago, today filed an answer to a divorce suit brought by Jean Harlow, film actress. McGrew asked the court to deny the divorce and refuse a restraining order tying up his money. He asked he not be required to pay $10,000 attorney's fees. He also asked the court to refuse Mrs. McGrew $375 monthly alimony, saying she is earning $500 a week. The couple was married in Waukegan, Ill., Sept. 21, 1927.

Mrs. Anna Barber, 60 years old, 315 South Marshfield avenue, was fatally injured last night when struck by a street car on 74th street at Ada street. She died at the Auburn Park hospital. The motorman said Mrs. Barber stepped directly in front of the car.

South Side Sees Illusion of Rising of Sand Dunes

South siders were treated to an interesting sight yesterday afternoon when, through an optical illusion, they beheld the yellow sand dunes of Indiana rising above them in the distance. The illusion is known as looming, and according to C. A. Donnel, government forecaster, is not an unusual phenomenon along the lake. The looming of the dunes, he explained, was due to the heating of the sand by strong sunshine, making a difference in the temperature, and refracting or bending, the light rays of the sun.

DEMOCRATS MAP FIGHT TO TAKE CONGRESS SEAT

County Leaders Pin Hope on W. H. Dieterich.

BY PARKE BROWN.

What they say is to be a real effort to land for their party one of the two places of congressman at large from Illinois is to be begun by Cook county Democrats at their weekly luncheon in the Hotel Sherman today.

The wet speech of William H. Dieterich of Beardstown at the state convention in Springfield on Aug. 20 made such an impression on Chicago leaders that they now feel there is a good chance to elect Dieterich and they have given him the center of the stage for today.

County Chairman Cermak and others who have gone over the situation say that if their Chicago organization gets behind Dieterich as they believe it will his downstate popularity will make him a strong contender against Congressman Richard Yates and Frank L. Smith, the Republican nominees for congressmen at large.

Recall Defeat of Yates.

They pointed out yesterday that Congressman Yates was defeated for the Republican nomination two years ago and was given his place on the ticket by the state central committee following the death of one of the victors, Congressman Henry Rathbone. Yates, the Democrat leaders said, has been an Anti-Saloon league candidate for years.

"But more important than that," added Cermak, "is the fact that THE TRIBUNE last week published the fact that he refused to answer whether he would accept the outcome of the state referendum as the mandate of the voters, although the Republican state convention pledged him to do so."

The Democratic country towns' organization last night filled a ballot vacancy in the list of nominees for county commissioner from the county outside of Chicago. Daniel P. Bergin, mayor of Chicago Heights, was nominated last April but, deciding that he preferred his municipal office, resigned his nomination recently. To fill the vacancy M. J. Flynn of Palos Heights, former city treasurer of Chicago, was chosen.

Mrs. O'Neill Tells Plans.

Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neill, independent candidate for United States senator, announced that she is completing arrangements for a downstate tour.

At the Chicago headquarters of the Republican congressional campaign committee, Chairman Will R. Wood announced that Vice President Curtis will make three, and only three, speeches in the west during October. He said that Mr. Curtis had confirmed engagements to speak at New Albany, Ind., on Oct. 11, at Springfield, Mo., on Oct. 17, and on Oct. 22 at Pueblo, Colo.

MRS. M'CORMICK INVITED TO PROVE CHARGES LATER

Nye Willing to Hear Her After Election.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Senator Gerald P. Nye [Rep., N. D.], chairman of the senatorial campaign fund investigating committee, said today that Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, Republican senatorial nominee in Illinois, might offer evidence as to wire tapping by agents of his committee after the election is over if she chooses to do so.

He asserted that the committee refused to permit her to present this evidence at the recent Chicago hearings because the members did not wish her to use the inquiry as a vehicle for promoting her own campaign.

"The action taken by the committee in Chicago in refusing to permit evidence to be presented by Mrs. McCormick relative to alleged acts by agents of the committee was not the action of the chairman but of a majority of the committee," said Senator Nye.

"That action was taken because the committee declined to set a stage for a candidate for office to play upon the balance of the campaign. If we had permitted them to try to prove their charges the committee might have spent many weeks in bringing in witnesses to disprove the charge that our agents were guilty of wire tapping and other offenses.

"I have no doubt that when the election is over every opportunity will be given to them to offer any evidence they may desire to present."

DEERFIELD HIGH SCHOOL BATTLE ENTERS COURT

Quo warranto proceedings were filed yesterday in the Lake County Circuit court at Waukegan by State's Attorney A. V. Smith of Lake county, in behalf of the school board of Deerfield against the newly formed educational board of Lake Forest, demanding that the latter board show by what authority it is in existence.

The petition reopened the controversy between Lake Forest and the Deerfield high school district over the right of Lake Forest to withdraw and maintain its own high school.

ASK BANKRUPTCY FOR JULIA KING CANDY COMPANY

Involuntary proceedings in bankruptcy were started in the federal court yesterday against Julia King, Inc., wholesale confectioners and former operators of a string of candy stores and tearooms in Chicago. According to Attorney Lewis D. Levit, who represents the creditors, the liabilities are about $150,000.

Julia King Perkins founded her first candy shop on West Adams street in 1921, after she had been married twenty-six years. Her mother, Mrs. Mary King, served midnight lunches to Chicago newspaper men after the death of her husband, James King of the old Inter Ocean, in 1883. Mrs. Perkins died in December, 1921.

PREACHER TELLS OF RED CRUELTY IN PRISON CAMP

Lutheran Pastor Escapes to Finland.

BY B. VON ALFTHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

HELSINGFORS, Finland, Sept. 30.—New details of soviet brutality in the convict lumber camps of northern Russia are given in a sworn statement just made by a former Lutheran pastor, who escaped and after many hardships found safety in Helsingfors.

The statement, signed, witnessed and sworn to before a notary public, reads as follows:

"I, Aatami Kuortti, who have worked during the years 1927-1929 in Ingermannia [Ingris], as the officiating administrator and clergymen of the Lutheran congregation of Lempaala, Wuoli and Miikkulainen, consider of my own free will it to be my duty to state as follows:

"In these three years I was ordered many times in the month to appear before the G. P. U. [secret police] officials at Lampaala, where endeavors were made by threats and promises to entice me into their service.

Sentenced to Death.

"Having nevertheless flatly refused to comply with the demands of the G. P. U. to enter their service, I was suddenly arrested, and no reason given, on Feb. 4 of the present year and I was forced, having been committed for trial in a couple of weeks, in prison in Leningrad to acknowledge the receipt of my sentence of death—for what crime I do not know even now.

"This sentence of mine was mitigated to 10 years at hard labor, and I was sent on Feb. 28 to forest work in East Cerelin. At the same time some 500 other prisoners were brought there, of which the greater part were political prisoners.

Labored in Forest.

"Together with the other prisoners I was forced to do forest labor, from that time on until I was able to escape on June 20, wherefore I personally know what the conditions of the compulsory labors of the soviets are.

"Up to April 30 I was employed at the logging place near Magrinojärvi in all kinds of lumber work—preparing, transporting and barking logs—together with the other prisoners there. On April 30 we were taken to Wonga, where we were employed in preparing and loading props. There were no days of rest whatever. May 1 was the only holiday.

"Very little food was given us. The constant hunger together with the heavy work deprived many of their strength to such an extent that they fell down along the road and died.

"The work was called day-job work that is, it was exactly fixed that measure of work which had to be done in one day. No wages was paid for it. The job-work for the day was generally so much that it was impossible for the majority to perform it, although they worked industriously for 12 or 14 hours. If the job was left unfinished, even the small rations were reduced, and night labor was enforced.

Forced into Lake.

"It was in the second half of April I was barking logs. Every man had as his day's job to peel 55 pieces. My job, as well as those of most of my comrades in work, remained unfinished although we exerted ourselves from early morning until late in the evening. At 10 p. m. the guard conducted us to the barracks.

"Having just obtained our bread rations and begun to eat we were called out, each by name, lined up in ranks and again sent to the place of work. We had to walk across a lake where there was water and broken ice and slush. All of us asked to be allowed to go around the lake so as not to be forced to go in the water, our feet being very wet already, as we only had shoes made of birch bark.

"But the guard and the foreman ordered us under a number of curses into the water. Having been forced to more or less swim across, they kept us in the forest for about three hours and only then did we get rest."

CHARGE OF NEW OIL SCANDALS ANGERS WILBUR

Demands Inquiry Be Launched at Once.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—A double barreled investigation of widely circulated charges that the interior department was guilty of misfeasance in connection with the administration of public oil shale lands in Colorado loomed as a strong probability tonight. Secretary of the Interior Wilbur today asked the department of justice to investigate the allegations which were made by Ralph S. Kelley, chief of the general land office in Denver, in a letter of resignation published last Sunday.

At the same time Chairman Gerald P. Nye [Rep., N. D.] of the senate public lands committee, took preliminary steps toward congressional investigation of Kelley's charges that powerful oil companies had used political pressure to secure favors in the handling of the oil shale lands. Mr. Nye, in a letter to Kelley, asked the official to call at his office Friday or Saturday and discuss his charges.

In a public statement Mr. Wilbur denounced Kelley's charges as reckless and false.

Bound for California and a motion picture contract, Chief Catawan of British East Africa, who weighs 692 pounds, stopped in Chicago yesterday.

The chief was found in the Lake Victoria region at the head of the Nile river two years ago by a party of British hunters. He had five wives. He was persuaded to leave his jungle home and since then has traveled with side shows and carnivals.

Bert Fisher, his manager, says the chief presents quite a problem. He wears a size 75 suit, is 8 feet around the waist, and must have size 22 shoes. His average meal is twelve pounds of rice and fish and two quarts of water.

CHAIN STORES SEEN AS AIDS TO PROSPERITY

Merchants Hear Attack on Restrictive Laws.

The chain store system was described yesterday as a great example of modern economic methods, which will ultimately bring about a return to normal prosperity. This opinion was presented by speakers who addressed the national convention of the Chain Store association at the Palmer house.

James M. Beck, Republican congressman from Pennsylvania and former solicitor general of the United States, declared that the chain store system was an outstanding example of mechanical civilization, and predicted that laws devised to thwart the growth of the chain store would ultimately fail in their purpose.

Cites Anti-Trust Law.

"Economic methods of a nation, developed in the practical operation of business, will always in the long run triumph over stupid and oppressive legislation.," Congressman Beck said.

"The best evidence of that is the Sherman anti-trust law. After 40 years of legal turmoil the Sherman anti-trust law is moribund."

Congressman Beck referred only briefly to the chain stores, devoting the larger part of his address to a discussion of the decadence of the constitution of the United States and speculation on the question of how long the present form of government can endure. He called this the most critical of all critical ages.

"The constitution is changing decade by decade, and, as I think, generally for the worse. It could conceivably change for the better."

The speaker dwelt upon the recent changes which have destroyed basic principles laid down by the framers of the constitution and attacked the flexible tariff commission.

"Today not one of you," he said, "can ever build up your business with any certainty as to any tariff, because you know not what day that particular tariff will be the subject of a summary investigation and by the edict of the executives either raised 50 per cent or lowered 50 per cent."

J. C. Penney Is Speaker.

J. C. Penney, chairman of the board of directors of the J. C. Penney company, chain store operators, said that hope for a return of prosperity was held by the retail merchants throughout the country.

"Many industries are being kept in operation because of their background of steady volume demand from chain stores and because of the strength of the credit structures of chain store systems," said Mr. Penney. "Because these industries are kept going there is a demand for employés, with resultant distribution of wealth in the form of pay rolls."

Prof. James E. Boyle of Cornell university told the merchants that the chain store is an asset to the farmer, who is becoming more interested in the chains as retail outlets for his goods.

AIR MAIL PLANES START PASSENGER SCHEDULE TODAY

National Air Transport, operators of the New York-Chicago-Dallas air mail line, today will inaugurate their new air passenger service between Chicago and Cleveland, providing seventeen hour air-rail service between here and Manhattan.

Two planes will be flown daily from Chicago and Cleveland. The passenger ships will leave Chicago at 9:30 a. m. and 3:35 p. m. each day, connecting with New York Central trains in Cleveland for the remainder of the journey to New York. Trains leaving New York at night will connect with the morning plane to Chicago at Cleveland.

The opening of the new line marks N. A. T.'s entrance into the operation of passenger service, the first of the air mail carrying companies to do so under the provisions of the new Waters bill which make possible the carrying of mail with passengers.

11 Soldiers Killed, 14 Hurt as Shell Dump Explodes

SALONIKA, Greece, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Three officers and eight men of the Jugo-Slavian army were killed by an explosion today in an ammunition dump at Guevgueli, Jugo-Slavia, close to the Greek frontier. Fourteen soldiers were wounded.

Fined $100 for Throwing Pie at Girl Flower Seller

Clarence Johnson, 1535 North Karlov avenue, was fined $100 by Judge Immenhausen yesterday after he had been found guilty of throwing a lemon cream pie at Miss Lillian Cullen, 22 years old, 3901 West Chicago avenue, last Saturday. Miss Cullen was selling forget-me-nots when Johnson approached and bought and insisted that he receive a kiss also. When refused he left and returned with a pie which he threw in Miss Cullen's face. Cameron Bland, 1969 Lincoln avenue, who accompanied Johnson, was fined $25.

INSURANCE MEN TAKE HOPEFUL VIEW OF FUTURE

Business Is Found Good; Sales Held Even.

Life insurance companies are optimistic over the business outlook and are only slightly concerned about the period of economic depression through which the nation is passing.

Byron K. Elliott, general counsel and manager of the American life convention which is holding its 25th annual session in Chicago this week, expressed these views yesterday in a discussion of the manner in which life insurance companies have met the business situation during the last year.

Mr. Elliott, whose organization includes 140 of the leading life insurance companies of the United States and Canada, said that despite the unfavorable business conditions prevailing since last fall, sales of the insurance companies this last year have been almost equal to the previous year, and he said the companies were looking forward to a huge volume of new business when business returns to normalcy.

Companies Meet Depression.

Mr. Elliott said the life insurance companies had been called upon to play an important part in meeting the depression by increasing their policy loans to more than $2,250,000,000. He said that from five to ten times as many policy loans were made this year to policyholders who were forced to fall back on their life insurance. He stated that while the depression had made the collection of premiums more difficult, the limitations were gratifying and caused little concern to the companies.

Farm mortgages held by the life insurance companies amount to more than $1,954,000,000 and the agricultural depression has made it necessary for the companies to undertake a program of aid to the farmer, Mr Elliott said. However, the companies had undertaken such a program several years ago when the farm problem first arose, Mr. Elliott explained, and had been somewhat prepared for the more recent problems. He said the companies had made extended studies and surveys of the farmers' difficulties and in many instances were able to assist the farmer in carrying his mortgages.

Calls Investments Sound.

Insurance laws and regulations, Mr. Elliott said, provide that the companies invest their funds in securities of the safest type, and for that reason the companies were only affected in a minor way by the collapse of the stock market. He said only two per cent of the $17,482,000,000 of assets of the various life insurance companies were invested in stocks, and these were chiefly preferred shares of soundest character.

The session of the convention yesterday was devoted to the legal section with life insurance lawyers discussing their problems. Charles W. Gold of Greensborough, N. C., described efforts of the United States chamber of commerce in coöperation with the insurance companies to prolong the life expectancy of policyholders, which in the last two years he said had made savings of $10,000,000.

RULES OUT THE 35 DAY CERTIFICATE FOR CANDIDATES

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 30.—(AP)—Attorney General Oscar Carlstrom ruled today that the state certifying board need not certify candidates at least thirty-five days before election, as the law requires. "Any reasonable time" will serve, he decided.

The ruling was made at the request of Secretary of State William J. Stratton in the case of Henry H. Mester of Springfield, Ill., who sought to have his name placed on the ballot for the general assembly from the Forty-fifth district. The nomination was contested.

RAIL-SHIPPER DEALS PROBED IN I. C. C. HEARING

Unfair Trade Charges Investigated Here.

Business dealings between the railroads and their shippers, and charges of unfair methods and "boycotting," went under the scrutiny of the interstate commerce commission yesterday at a hearing before the examiners at the Hotel Sherman. The hearing is expected to continue for several days. The railroads will present their evidence first and this will be followed by the testimony of the shippers.

E. A. Clifford, general purchasing agent of the Chicago and North Western railroad, as the first witness yesterday, testified that there was no illegal practice followed in the dealings between railroads and shippers, although he acknowledged that the railroads, whenever possible, patronized the manufacturers who used their lines.

Mr. Clifford denied it was a common practice for shippers to threaten railroads with a discontinuance of their shipping unless there was an understanding of business reciprocity between them. He said that, "all other things equal, the friends got the business."

Questions Rail Official.

M. C. List, attorney for the interstate commerce commission, questioned Mr. Clifford. The attorney is expected to introduce material drawn from the files of the purchasing and accounting departments of several railroads, by which it is intended to show that reciprocity has been practiced by the railroads and shippers.

The data to be considered in the hearing here were collected during an investigation ordered at a general session of the commerce commission in Washington on July 22, 1929. It was said that if the evidence discloses violations of the anti-rebate sections of federal statutes the cases will be referred to federal attorneys for prosecutions.

Attorney List questioned Mr. Clifford closely regarding the bids he received for materials.

Explains Railroad Deals.

The witness explained that notice that the railroads wished to buy certain commodities is sent to an "inquiry list" of dealers or manufacturers and that this group is expected to bid for the sale.

Attorney List questioned Mr. Clifford on the methods by which the list was divided and asked if it consisted solely of friends of the railroads or if all dealers and manufacturers were accorded an equal chance in the bidding.

"There is no distinction in the list between the large and small shippers," Mr. Clifford replied.

Chicago Goodwill Tourists Tell Peoria 1933 Fair Plans

BY PAUL POTTER.

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Manifest interest in Chicago's organized efforts to wrest gangdom from its grip before the 1933 Century of Progress Exposition was mingled with confidence in the gradual, but sure return of prosperity in Illinois, as the Association of Commerce good will party continued its tour of western Illinois today.

In Peoria, Galesburg, Monmouth, and intermediate points considerable attention was given the envoys as they stopped for short visits. In the absence of Col. Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Chicago association, who was said to be working with federal authorities and his 'secret six" this week, other Chicagoans described vividly the crime conditions in one breath and the World's Fair plans in another.

"Chicago's newspapers have been feerless in their exposure of underworld conditions," declared Charles N. Wheeler, utility official, at a dinner tonight at the Peoria Chamber of Commerce. "Under the able leadership of Col. Randolph, a substantial war chest has been created to prosecute the fight over a five year period."

Similar statements were made by William Rummler, Chicago attorney, at the Galesburg business men's luncheon. The legal intricacies and the judicial attitude too close to political and vote getting methods form two of the greatest obstacles in the fight, Mr. Rummler asserted.

"Illinois must be a good state to be able to draw two large farm implement firms out of California," declared George M. Bell, vice president of the Caterpiller Tractor company, tonight. He described the favorable shipping rates to all parts of the nation and to itnernational ports from Peoria.

Other speakers at the Peoria banquet include Representative William E. Hull, Mayor E. N. Woodruff, and William F. Johnston, president of the Association of Commerce. Chicago was represented by William W. Geary, sales director of Carson Pirie Scott & Co. Mr. Wheeler, Frank A. Barker, lumbermen's official, and Dr. Rudolph Clemen of the Century of Progress.

"Five large World's Fair buildings now are under construction or will be built in the next few months," said Dr. Clemen.

"The coöperation of Illinois cities with Chicago is essential to the proper development of the untouched resources in the state," declared John N. Vandervries of the United States Chamber of Commerce during the short stay at Monmouth.

GEN. GOURAUD ARRIVES IN U. S. TO SEE 'HIS BOYS'

New York Welcomes French War Hero.

BY TOM PETTEY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Gen. Henri Etienne Gouraud, a bearded soldier of France, arrived in New York today to attend the convention of the American Legion next week in Boston.

Standing erect, his stiff cap tilted at a rakish angle, the veteran raised his left hand in salute as the cannons of Governor's island boomed a thirteen gun tribute. His right sleeve hung empty and he walked with a limp as he made his way back to a deck chair on the liner Ile de France.

The "Lion of Champagne" was on his third visit to the United States to see again the American soldiers he led in the Argonne offensive. He was bringing to the Legion convention, he said, the "message of peace that our statesman, M. Briand, has expressed to the world."

Two Comrades with Him.

With him were Col. Yves Picot, French deputy, and Capt. Richard Brunschwig, president and vice president of the veterans' organization, the Gueules Casees, which freely translated means "cracked jaws." They were bringing the thanks of France to an American woman, Mrs. Henry Strong of Washington, for her assistance in caring for the "Cracked Jaws."

About the liner puffed the city's official welcoming boat, the Macom, and half a dozen other gaily decorated craft. Aboard were representatives of the Rainbow division and of New York's own 69th, who fought with Gouraud on the Marne.

Says France Wants Peace.

Speaking in French, the general expressed "the desire of the French people for peace," and said, "I regard the meeting in Boston to which I am now going as the precursor of peace for the entire world."

Among the many characteristics which endeared Gen. Gouraud to the American soldiers was his habit—unusual for one of his rank—of frequenting the front lines in combat areas.

Gen. Gouraud lost his arm in the Gallipoli campaign in 1915. A Turkish shell broke his legs and shattered his right arm. He was told it would take three months to patch up his arm, but that by amputating it they could get him ready for duty in almost half that time.

"Cut it off," ordered the general, and they did.

POLICE QUELL ROW AT W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

Rumpus Starts Over Secret Session.

Longmont, Colo., Sept. 30.—(AP)—By virtue of police aid peace reigned tonight at the annual convention of the Colorado Women's Christian Temperance union.

The lull followed efforts of insurgents to unseat Mrs. Adri Hungerford as president at a stormy session police were called to quiet. Those close to the situation, however, predicted a renewal of hostilities tomorrow.

Protestors Ejected.

The storm broke today when Mrs. Hungerford announced an executive session would be held. She demanded that the room be cleared of all but accredited delegates.

The insurgents, who proposed Mrs. F. I. Smith of Denver to succeed Mrs. Hungerford as president, refused to leave until a report of the official board was made public. The report was said to have dealt with charges that Cottage Home, a refuge the organization conducts for unwed mothers, was mismanaged.

When the insurgents refused to leave today some one called police and the officers finally ejected the protestors. What transpired at the closed meeting was not made public.

Illinois W. C. T. U. Meet Opens.

Edwardsville, Ill., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—The 56th annual convention of the Illinois Women's Christian Temperance union opened at Edwardsville tonight. Miss Helen L. Hood of Chicago, state president, will preside during the four day session. The chief officers and other state officers arrived in Edwardsville today.

Members of the state organizations said that unless an old precedent is broken no candidates will be endorsed. Various angles of prohibition will be discussed during the meeting. Members will be urged to vote "no" on the dry referendum Nov. 4.

RETURN SUICIDE VERDICT IN CASE CALLED MURDER

Influenced by a farewell letter stating she meant to end her life, a coroner's jury late yesterday returned a verdict of suicide in the death of Mrs. May Moore, 9722 Winston avenue, complicating a case which had been defined as murder and in which the husband, Watson Wendel Moore, an accountant, is held.

Mrs. Moore died a month ago of poisoning. Police arrested her husband several days later when they learned he had suggested to her that she commit suicide. He admitted he had made the suggestion, but denied he had murdered her. Soon afterward Capt. James L. Mooney of the Gresham station booked Moore for murder.

At the inquest yesterday, conducted by Deputy Henry M. Laffan, a farewell letter was introduced by Moore's father, Watson S. Moore, who journeyed here from Duluth, Minn. The note stated that Mrs. Moore wished to die so as not to be a burden to anybody. The elder Moore after producing the letter, testified his daughter-in-law had tried suicide twice before. The suicide verdict was then returned. Moore, who was present, was ordered back to jail despite the verdict.

Wife, 18, Charges Marriage Plot; Divorces Husband, 70

Mrs. Lottie Gut, 18 years old, 4944 South Wood street, yesterday won a divorce from Casimir Gut, 70 years old, 4633 South Bishop street, before Superior Judge John J. Sullivan. Through her attorney, Victor Frohlich, Mrs. Gut declared she had been forced into the marriage by her mother, who was paid $1,000 by Gut to arrange the match. The couple were married on Feb. 2, 1927, and lived together one day, according to the bill.

FALL SILKS

In a Great Special Selling—beginning Today

Just think—Field's silks at $2 a yard! Dressmakers will buy bolt after bolt—knowing that such a low price is rare in silks of such unquestionable quality and style. And we've bought literally hundreds of yards—all here waiting to be turned into smart dresses and blouses—lovely lingerie—trailing negligees—romantic evening gowns—for people who know how "to economize and look like a duchess", as Vogue puts it. Come in today while the color selection is most extensive.

CANTON CREPE • Smart fall dress material—and simply irresistible in the new dark shades. How smart the popular black and white ensemble is, made up in this "dull" finished material.

FLAT CREPE • Make yourself a tunic blouse of it in white—or turquoise—or red. Or buy it in pastels for exquisite new lingerie. You'll find it in smart new blues and luscious evening shades, too.

SATIN CREPE • The new cowl neckline—the long full skirts—peplums—and other details that our new imported evening gowns have—are perhaps most stunning in satin crepe. Pastels and the new dark shades. Also black and white.

FALL PRINTS • You'll love the new silk and wool travel prints. Very smart looking and so comfortable to wear. In different patterns and weaves—tweed designs and large and small figures.

BROCADED SILKS • Will be used for negligees—and others will be used for lining coats and suits. There are lots of good patterns. They will wear and wear.

LET'S BE FRIENDS, BRIAND PLEADS WITH GERMANY

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.]

GENEVA, Sept. 30.—With telegrams from Paris warning him that Raymond Poincare and the nationalist French press, believing the German elections have proved the failure of his policy of reconciliation with Germany, were working to overthrow him, Foreign Minister Briand arose in the assembly today in a supreme effort to keep his hand at the helm during the anxious months he said were coming.

He sought to strengthen his position at home both by reassuring the French he would be prudent and by appealing to Foreign Minister Julius Curtius, as the representative of German moderates, to be moderate and not let the Hitler hotheads further undermine Frenchmen who stood most for reconciliation with Germany.

Curtius Leans Toward Briand.

The Germans had received the same telegrams, and even representatives of the Hugenberg nationalists were plainly worried by the prospects of Briand being overthrown. Curtius mounted the platform to reply with the choice of fortifying his own weak position by an easy appeal to nationalism that might overthrow Briand or to help Briand by his moderation. He chose to lean backwards toward moderation and agreed with Briand that the only thing to do was to work together.

The French here seem to have agreed that Briand has succeeded in the delicate task of strengthening his own position without weakening that of Curtius.

The peg on which the speeches were hung was disarmament, but the background was the European situation resulting from the German elections. M. Briand's speech was to this effect:

France had not only preached peace but had reduced her army 41 per cent since the war. At the very time he himself was talking conciliation, words of distrust came from Germany. In such a menacing situation statesmen had to be prudent.

"Must Work Hand in Hand."

But this did not mean that nothing more was to be done in the way of disarmament, but—addressing himself directly to Herr Curtius—the time had come when statesmen must work hand in hand. He was confident the world would thus escape the threats confronting it and he was hopeful for a naval accord with Italy. He hinted France might later consider the demands in behalf of Germany, which Italy has raised, but caution is now the French watchword, and she must stand more than ever behind its formula of arbitration, security and disarmament.

In this connection he reminded the British, who are urging disarmament, that they themselves, by refusing to ratify the protocol in 1924 which they had accepted, and by declining to accept obligations to maintain peace, had thrown every country back on armaments for its own security.

To Those Who Do Not Know

This Newer, Safer, More Convenient Mode of Feminine Hygiene . . . .

THE modern American woman is envied by the other women of the world today because of her independence. Modern American women know how to take care of themselves . . . alert to employ every scientific advance to maintain their health and dignity . . . eager to preserve beyond the usual years the bloom and buoyancy of youth.

And the modern American woman is fast learning that the preservation of her youth's vitality, charm and attractiveness, depends largely upon one aspect of her toilette so often ignored . . . upon feminine hygiene.

Many physicians declare that rapid aging and the many diseases heretofore deemed characteristic and inevitable to women are often traceable to ignorance upon this fundamental point of feminine hygiene. In other words, personal uncleanliness.

Heretofore, feminine hygiene has been possible only at great discomfort and danger. Women were reluctant to handle dangerous poisons. Seldom convenient, under many conditions hygienic measures were impossible. No wonder its practice was not more common.

Now, however, thfough the use of a new antiseptic in tablet form, requiring no water or accessories, American women are fast learning the convenience of feminine hygiene.

There is no longer need to dabble with dangerous poisons. There is no longer need to incommode yourself or suffer inconveniences. Feminine hygiene is now possible with no more effort or inconvenience than washing ones hands.

For science's latest gift to women is a harmless antiseptic tablet, called Pariogen. Prescribed for many years by the medical profession, Pariogen is now offered to the public.

Pariogen tablets are non-poisonous and contain no carbolic acid, bichloride of mercury, cresol or other caustics, yet destroy most objectionable germs in a few seconds. Pariogen tablets also eliminate objectionable odors. Gone are the dangers attending the use of poison or caustics! Gone are the inconveniences of preparing solutions!

Pariogen tablets come twelve to the tube—a tube about the size of a fountain pen. (Pariogen tablets may thus be carried in a purse, making hygienic measures possible almost anywhere, no other accessories or water being required.) The price of Pariogen tablets is only one dollar the tube. Full directions for their use are enclosed with each tube. Pariogen tablets may be obtained at any drug counter and are sold under the absolute guarantee that if you are not satisfied, return them to us and full retail price will be refunded.

Thousands of women from coast to coast now protect themselves with Pariogen tablets. You, too, may assure yourself of absolute and protective cleanliness in matters of personal hygiene by merely asking your druggist for a tube of Pariogen tablets and using them according to directions. American Drug & Chemical Company, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

NEW AUSTRIAN CABINET FORMED; FASCISTS JOIN UP

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

VIENNA, Austria, Sept. 30.—The Heimwehr Fascist military organization, whose chronic clashes with the Socialist military organization were suppressed by former Chancellor Schober less than a year ago, is officially participating in the new cabinet of Dr. Karl Vaugoin, which was chosen tonight. Two heimwehr leaders accepted portfolios in the cabinet, in which Dr. Vaugoin assumes the posts of chancellor and minister of war.

The Heimwehr participation marks a wide swing in Austrian leadership to the extreme right, undoubtedly constituting a sympathetic reaction to the success of the national Socialists in the recent German elections. It will also produce confusion in the ranks of the pan-German and Agrarian parties, which refused to participate in the Vaugoin cabinet, expressing sympathy for Herr Schober.

The chief business of the new cabinet will be to call new parliamentary elections, which are tentatively set for Nov. 16, when the Fascist movement hopes for a landslide similar to that in the recent German elections.

One Heimwehr member of the new cabinet is Prince Ernst Ruediger Starhemberg, a direct descendant of the famous prince of the same name who saved Vienna from the Turks a couple of centuries ago. A few weeks ago, at the age of 31, he became chief of the Heimwehr. Prince Starhemberg becomes minister of the interior, and will control the police at the coming elections.

BALDWIN TRIES TO QUIT; WIFE SAYS "NO!" HE STAYS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Behind the announcement published this morning that Stanley Baldwin is not going to resign his leadership of the Conservative party is a story of a wife's devotion. Mr. Baldwin returned from a cure at Aix-les-Bains two days ago, it is said, with his resignation written out and signed in his pocket.

Mrs. Baldwin, who has been urging him to remain and fight, immediately got on the telephone and sent out S O S summons to friends, who "ganged" Mr. Baldwin and persuaded him to issue a fighting statement that he was not going to be forced out by the Beaverbrook and Rothermere insurgents.

The first indication of his fighting policy was the action of the Conservative central office in disowning Sir Herbert Nield, Conservative candidate for the South Paddington district of London, who had aligned himself with Lord Beaverbrook's empire free traders, promising to vote in favor of Lord Beaverbrook's policy no matter what the official Conservative policy was.

Today Sir Herbert was served with a notice by Neville Chamberlain, chairman of the party organization, that if he had been correctly reported the party could not support him in the forthcoming by-election.

Lord Beaverbrook retaliated today by calling on the empire free traders to withhold subscriptions from the Conservative campaign fund.

It is reported that Lords Beaverbrook and Rothermere, although they are not altogether agreed as to the method of getting rid of Mr. Baldwin, are both grooming Sir Robert Horne as Mr. Baldwin's successor. Sir Robert Horne, former chancellor of the exchequer, retired from politics a few years ago and went into business. It is said that he has amassed a comfortable fortune and is ready to reenter political life.

FOUND STABBED TO DEATH.

John Smith, 24 years old, was found stabbed to death yesterday in his father's barn at 139th street and Wolf road, Orland Park. He had been suffering from illness, the police said.

Indigestion and Gas Torture for Months. All Gone Now!

After All Else Failed Acidine Brings End To Pain

"I suffered for months with acid indigestion and gas on the stomach," says Mr. C. Bedford of Detroit, Michigan. "Couldn't eat a meal without being troubled with gas and pain, also dizzy feeling. I tried all kinds of medicines, but nothing really helped until I took Acidine, which relieved me from the start. Now I am entirely well—have no pains at all." Thousands of people are amazed at the quick relief Acidine brings after all other remedies have failed. But there's a reason—Acidine is a scientific combination of quick-acting and long-lasting starch and protein digestants and anti-acids, which quickly stop burning acid, gas, belching, bloating, and colds, nervousness and sleeplessness resulting from acidity. Japtase, one of these ingredients, is an effective starch digestant which promptly liquefies 800 times its own weight of starchy food in laboratory tests. No other remedy contains this scientific combination to end acid stomach trouble. Don't suffer acid stomach disorder which causes you endless misery. Eat and drink what you want. If gas causes you sleepless nights use Acidine at once. Buy it at any drug store. Test it, the druggist will refund your money if you are not pleased. You take no chance. The risk is ours, the benefit, yours. Don't wait longer for the joy Acidine will bring you—get it today, at your druggist or write Health Laboratories, Inc., Pittsburgh, Pa.

FIVE FASHIONS THAT MAY WELL BE THE FOUNDATION OF A SMART WARDROBE

We have chosen them as important fashions for your wardrobe, for they "date back" and reflect the charm and great diversity that the Paris couturiers took from the ages as far back as old Greece.

There are inconsistencies that give us more femininity than we have had in many a day. See how an Elizabethan collar formalizes and a Russian tunic dignifies and how the wide wrap of Vionnet gives natural lines suggestive of the Greek silhouette. Look at our collection and see how interesting it all is—see that it is the season for beauty and individuality in fashion.

A Coat with Elizabethan Collar

A regal air developed in black Persian lamb on black or dark green broadcloth. This formal collar continues down the front. Diagonal lines in the coat make it very well fitting. Sizes for women.

$115

A Coat with Vionnet's Wrap Line

That coat wraps way around and has very flattering lines for the figure. Too, there is the subtle contrast of fur and fabric—the high collar is blue fox wolf and the fabric is broadcloth in black, brown, green, red and navy. For women.

$125

Fourth Floor, North, State.

A Very Modern Suit Has Smart Short Jacket

To the experienced in new fashion the soft suede-like woolen in pirate blue, oak red, brown with short shawl collar of blond wolf is very smart. Misses' sizes.

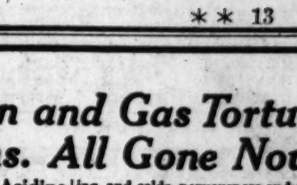
Tunic Frock with Variations

It is slashed at either side with rows of small buttons. The slender collar is set in and shirred with the new note of contrast to pirate blue, red and black canton crepe. Women's sizes.

$45

Fourth Floor, North, State.

BLACK SHOES WALK OFF WITH FASHION



Tailored oxford, black and brown suede with kidskin trimming, new low heel. $12.50.

One-strap pump in brown or black suede with cut-out detail and kidskin trim. $12.

Beautifully proportioned kidskin pump, with lizard trimmings. For afternoon. $12.50.

$12 and $12.50 Pair

Third Floor.

The New Idea Of Contrast in a Very Casual Dinner Frock

Diversity within the frock itself—a short sleeve blouse of new sheer lame in coin dots, and very short jacket of canton crepe. The skirt is very slender with low flare—the jacket ties in front. Black with white. For women.

$50

Fourth Floor, North, State.

THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT AND RUSSIAN WHEAT.

It would not be remarkable if the average man were perplexed by the Russian wheat operations on the Chicago Board of Trade in the light which the United States government has chosen to throw upon them. As the facts emerge upon inquiry the Board of Trade seems to clear itself to the satisfaction of any reasonable and unexcited mind. It was not the means by which the communists were about to overthrow the American economic order in a few weeks of brisk trading. The board appears not only to have had the advantage of the government in knowing the procedure but in having the specific facts. Its responsible committees and its officials held their composure, which may have been difficult considering the incitement to bad temper or hilarity, and have responded willingly to government requests both for information and for action.

The episode now seems to yield some fairly clear conclusions.

The United States government, Secretary Hyde speaking, made the most extravagant characterization of the Russian wheat sales. This was calculated to use a prejudice against the Board of Trade and a prevailing antipathy for the Russian Reds to put the government in a more favorable position with American agriculture as to wheat prices. A responsible government has the confidence of citizens on the assumption that its statements and its actions reflect a matured judgment upon carefully gathered and carefully considered facts.

Particularly when the United States government accuses another government of deliberate hostility in a specific case that accusation presupposes that the government is precisely informed. Upon such a presumption the citizens are prepared to support it. The fact that there is no diplomatic relation between the United States and Russia made it possible for Mr. Hyde to state his case without responsibility abroad. If he had accused any friendly nation of that act he would have been in a predicament. It was the acknowledgment of a state of hostility approximate to war.

Confidence in government attitude on any question would be stronger if an administration did not take advantage of the fact that there was no international responsibility attached in a particular incident. That should not excuse irresponsibility in what it tells the people of its own country. In this case the government indorsed an inflammatory rumor which it cannot substantiate. It did not have correct information, but proceeded as if it did have, a serious fault, an imposition upon the credulity of the people. It was the snap judgment of the man in the street.

It was an attempt to fix upon the Board of Trade the responsibility, as agent or instrument, of compliance with a malevolent and destructive foreign attempt to make the condition of the American farmer worse. One consideration which should have made the government cautious was that any eccentricity of international misbehavior or hostility on the part of the Reds is, in theory, credible. It is communist policy to attack in just that fashion. The windy pronouncements of Stalin and his associations contain such threats. If the serf labor of the soviets could be added to the intelligence of capitalism to break the markets of other countries by swamping them this would be done. It is a part of the Red program, but that should have been an additional reason for prudent and not irascible conduct on the part of the American government.

The alarmist statements of the administration not only held the Board of Trade responsible as an instrument in a destructive scheme but they must have given the Reds the impression that the United States is a push-over, a frantic giant looking under the bed and fearful of what might be in a closet. Apparently the thing in distress is the communistic hulk, but the American government presented it as a successful terror.

From time to time the government silences or chastises an expert in its service for giving his opinions to the public, which would be the better for knowing them. It could be suggested that the cabinet mature the ideas of any excitable members before they get out with the stamp of government authority on them. It is conceded that the only protection the sane world has from soviet hostility is soviet incapacity, but that is no excuse for irrational alarms, agitating the public mind because they have government sanction.

The New York Stock exchange did not find the government attaching any responsibility to it for the disturbing political consequences of the crash of last year, but it is habitual to seek for an offender in the midwest. Eastern finance and industry are vestrymen; midwestern are little devils. The Board of Trade has barred foreign government operations and has endeavored to explain, that the cabinet may understand, just what was taking place when the Russians were hedging.

Mr. Hyde evidently did not know what was going on in the Board of Trade or in Russia. If Mr. Stimson knew what was going on in Russia he did not give Mr Hyde the advantage of his information. The one department should have been informed, the other could have been corrected, a war scare would not have issued and the government would not have sold its reliability and credibility short.

ELECTRIFICATION IN THE WEST.

Arthur Sears Henning's history of the initiation and progress of electrification in the east presents more than one striking lesson. For this community and all the communities of the midwest it offers a demonstration of the power of public opinion to accomplish great public betterments.

In the east electrification has progressed more rapidly than in the west because several factors of resistance exist in our situation which were absent or less formidable in the east. In the west we suffer from something similar to absentee landlordism. The policy of our great railroads is controlled by eastern financial interests and by directors who do not suffer in person or immediately in pocket from the inadequacies or evils of backward management. An obsolete terminal in Chicago does not mean to the resident of New York what it means to us. Naturally, expenditure for improvement, like charity, begins at home, and a policy of laissez faire serves well enough for others.

At the same time, economic self-interest is better organized in the east than in the west, and there is more persistent and effective pressure for its advancement. If we are the victims of laissez faire in absentee control we are also victims of our own laissez faire. Our representatives are lacking in push and resourcefulness because we do not insist upon them.

But the story of electrification in the east, like the lesson already drawn from such electrification as has been accomplished on the Illinois Central, has lessons for management also, lessons which selfish, shortsighted absentee control ought to learn. It demonstrates the wisdom of progressive policy in transportation and the waste of a policy of laissez faire. Electrification not only benefits the public served but it benefits invested capital directly, and by improving conditions in the community served benefits the utility which adopts it.

And finally the story illustrates how a great public improvement should not be brought about. It should be brought about by the enterprise and public spirit of the managers of capital and the leaders of private enterprise. Selfish inertia and mediocre administration should be defeated within the enterprise. They should not be permitted to dominate policy until the public's patience is exhausted and it is compelled to resort to punitive measures, to betake itself to politics. We are constantly urged to save business from politics, to take politics out of business. The American public has been wisely reluctant to increase the powers of government, but if it has done so in recent years the fault is not theirs. The responsibility lies primarily with those influences in private enterprise which have ignored public interest. The midwest will have the benefits of electrification either by the exercise of the public's powers or by the enlightenment of private management and control. The latter is overdue.

ARMED GANGDOM.

Every day's reading of police news must impress the public with the fact that no adequate measures have yet been taken to sweep up deadly weapons and disarm gangsters. We read of the finding of flats containing supplies of machine guns, automatics and even bombs, and almost every arrested gangster is found armed. This is all against the law, and is the result of slack enforcement. The statute against carrying concealed weapons should be taken more seriously by the authorities, and convictions under the vagrancy law should carry additional penalties for gun toting. There should be a general confiscation of deadly weapons, but the carrying of a concealed weapon is a punishable offense and should be punished in the case of offenders who cannot establish a lawful excuse and a reputable character. The law provides a penalty of $300 or one year imprisonment or both, and in the case of an offender of bad record it should be the limit.

With maximum penalties for vagrancy and gun toting the armed tough can be made to understand that Chicago is not, after all, his happy hunting ground. All magistrates should understand that they are expected to protect the community from this flagrant evil by applying the maximum penalties. It has existed and increased only because the laws have not been vigorously and honestly applied.

A HAND ACROSS THE SEA.

Lord Howard, formerly, as Sir Esme Howard, British ambassador to the United States, told the English Speaking union that the United States is an empire "actually far more powerful than any that has ever before existed." The report does not inform us how many Americans in his audience fainted away. We hope Lord Howard's estimate will receive the attention of some of our representatives in foreign affairs, and perhaps it might help in not a few business directorates now suffering from cold feet.

Editorial of the Day

WHAT THE PEOPLE EAT, AND WHY.

[Bloomington (Ill.) Pantagraph.]

The housewife who goes to the grocery store today to order provisions for the family may not realize that her order is quite different from that of ten, fifteen, or twenty years ago. But it is. The government department of agriculture, in one of its minor bureaus, has studied this general question of the American people's diet, and some of the things that were discovered were these:

The types of food have changed, rather than the total amount of food values per capita.

Less cereals are consumed now than formerly. There is more pork, sugar, milk, and vegetable oils.

People drink more—that is, of water and milk. Much of this liquid diet is taken in the form of sweet drinks at the soda fountain. These take the place of some forms of food as formerly consumed.

More fruit is eaten; but it is citrus fruit, grapes and oranges; not so many apples or other orchard fruits.

Generally speaking, people eat more of the expensive kinds of foods, probably because they could afford to do so of recent years.

Less beef and more poultry is eaten than before the world war. Taking it by and large, each person takes into his system about the same number of calories, but in different forms.

How to Keep Well By Dr. W. A. Evans

To the limit of space questions pertaining to hygiene and prevention of disease will be answered in this column. Personal replies will be made to inquiries under proper limitations when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Dr. Evans will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual disease.

PATIENTS' READING MATTER

THE following suggestion is offered to whom it may concern. Let the practicing physician equip his office with a rack for health literature written in nontechnical terms. In this rack should be kept a supply of pamphlets and leaflets available for those who wish them. One section should be devoted to booklets containing the quarantine rules of the state and local health departments. These should be in booklets, one giving general rules that apply to all communicable diseases and one for each disease that occurs with frequency sufficient to warrant.

In addition to the general invitation to take what is needed from the rack, the physician would direct an inquiring patient to the rack when there is occasion. Another section should be for such diseases as malaria, not reportable in some states, and concerning which there may not be health department rules. Malaria is an illustration of a disease which becomes symptomless long before it becomes safe. The difficulty is in getting the infected persons to complete the cure. Malaria is only one member of a considerable group. The type of booklet for this group of disorders is a combination of the educational and the admonitory "motif."

A third section should be devoted to diseases which tend to drag out indefinitely and with a tendency to destroy life that is secondary in importance. Among such are Bright's disease, heart disease, Parkinson's disease, diabetes, and locomotor ataxia. In these disorders home cure and personal hygiene are of great importance. To a limited extent booklets inexpensive enough to be given away can be provided. The supply of such should be supplemented by lists of suitable books for patients' guidance, the cost of each, and where they can be bought.

And, finally, there should be a section devoted to how to keep the well in that existing state of health. For the time this supply should be limited to groups such as babies and older children in which there is something of an existing keep well people well service. Each of these suggestions relates to subjects which cause people to go to physicians' offices in search of help.

In the main, the responsibility for keeping the racks filled should rest with state and local health departments. With their present conception of their duties they are provided with booklets on some of these subjects which booklets they are seeking distribution for. Insurance companies might like the privilege of supplying some of these booklets. Other sources of supply come to mind.

CURING IVY POISONING.

J. S. writes: When I was a boy I used to get infected so badly with poison ivy that I would be confined to my bed for weeks at a time. The doctors could give me only temporary relief. Cure seemed impossible until one day a very old lady heard of my case and went out to a little creek bank nearby and gathered a weed which she smashed up and rubbed on the affected parts. This gave me instant relief. Since that time I have cured several of my friends of very severe cases of poison ivy almost immediately. I am writing to let you know that I will be pleased to help any one who may be suffering from this awful rash, without pay of any kind, as I want to relieve suffering. I do not know the name of this weed and know of only one place where it may be secured.

REPLY.

In McNair's book on poison ivy there is a list of several hundred poison ivy remedies, each vouched for by one or more persons. In this group there are listed sixty plants. Perhaps yours will be found in the following, taken from this list: Virginia snakeroot, boneset, bugbane, cotton bush, button bush, Indian snakeroot, clearweed, sweet fern, lady slipper, honeysuckle, purple coneflower, foxglove, yellow jessamine, goldenrod, gum plant, hellebore, spotted touch-me-not, nettle, elder, thorn apple, wormwood.

FOOD LATE AT NIGHT.

H. G. writes:

1. Is there any danger in eating chop suey late at night?

2. Is there anything in it that could not be digested properly?

REPLY.

1. No more than there is in eating any substantial food at that hour.

2. It is on a par with other substantial foods.

EYESORE TO REMAIN.

Chicago, Sept. 26. — [Friend of the People.]—There is a house in our block which has been vacant for one or two years. It is badly demolished, posted over with bills and boards, unsanitary, a fire trap and a disgrace to the community. Cannot this nuisance be removed? The entire neighborhood would appreciate it. N. C.

The structural condition of the building is not such as would justify condemnation proceedings. A previous notice to board up had been complied with, but vandals removed the boarding. The owner has been notified to board up and keep safe the said building.

CHRISTIAN P. PASCHEN,
Commissioner of Buildings.

STAIRWAY COLLAPSED.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—My mother, while going down the rear stairway of the building of which she is a tenant, met with an accident due to a collapsing of the stair. Her condition was serious and required constant care. Being without the means to hire a nurse I had to stay home from work. Can I compel the insurance company to compensate me for loss in addition to my mother's claim? S. R.

No. If there is to be any collection for nursing it should be made by your mother. The theory would be that she would pay you and then collect the cost.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

RAGWEEDS.

Chicago, Sept. 23. — [Friend of the People.]—The vacant lot at 95th and Longwood drive is full of ragweeds in blossom. Is there not a city ordinance requiring the owner of the lot to have these ragweeds cut down on account of their contributing to hay fever? L. W.

Report is made that inspection was made of vacant lot at 95th and Longwood drive and weeds were found cut.

JOSEPH J. BUTLER,
Superintendent of Streets.

LOOKING AROUND.

Bishop Cannon is back. That's good! Things are always popping when the Bish is on deck. He adds much to the gayety of our national life. Welcome home, Bish, and get going. The Russian Reds are shooting their specialists who failed to control the markets as they were told to do. With wheat down to 75, we'll bet Alex Legge is glad he doesn't live in Russia. Gov. Roosevelt is going after Tammany with such a sharp stick that it is thought he'll ask Mayor Jimmie Walker to take off his white spats and stay home once in a while. Anyhow, Mr. Roosevelt is getting into a position that the Republicans can't tie Tammany onto his tail like a tin can if he's nominated for the presidency in 1932. St. Louis horns into the world's series baseball games today. Baseball is a great help to that town. It keeps it right on the map. Senator Nye's campaign fund committee is going to sue anybody for libel who prints what Ruth Hanna McCormick says about the commission hiring spies. Betcha we don't say anything about spies; we've got to pay enough overhead on our automobile without having to pay a big bill for libel. But speaking of spies reminds us that "When sorrows come, they come not single SPIES, but in battalions." Wait, Senator Nye, wait a minute; Ruth didn't say that; we're not repeating her at all. That was written by Shakespeare and you didn't say we couldn't repeat what Shakespeare said about spies; you just said Ruth, so don't you sue us for libel. Sue Shakespeare. George Bernard Shaw has again refused to let King George present him with a title. George Bernard is afraid to go to sleep any more for fear the king will sneak up on him and make him a Lord, or a Duke, or something before h has a chance to climb out the window and make his getaway.

CACTUS.

The gray sand lies in a hopeless death
While a white sun glares its hate;
The wind rides by on a scorching breath;
The land is drear as Fate.

There was a house with a cool, wide hall
In a town by an inland sea;
The grass was green, and the trees grew tall—
And it all was nought to me!

There was a wind that was moist and fresh,
And soft as a baby's kiss;
Life was as silk as a spider-mesh—
And I changed it all for this!

The desert lies in a graveyard hush;
I but dreamed of an inland sea.
And the house and trees that were so lush
Are nothing . . . at all . . . to me!

ARIZONA SAL.

VACATIONS are a grand thing, but did you ever notice how hard it is to get back to work when you come home? Oh, you have. We're thinking of offering a plush lined pretzel to anybody who will tell us how to get over that after-vacation feeling. And don't tell us anything that's got likker in it; it would just make us unhappy. Let us wait, dear friends, until Illinois speaks on that subject at election time. Remember, the 18th amendment and the Volstead act are still laws. And, besides, our bootlegger is in jail.

THE PRISONERS down in the Joliet penitentiary boo and groar when the radios in their cells fill the air with soprano solos. They can't tune 'em out because that is all attended to at the central station, and they can't get up and leave because—well, you know how it is in penitentiaries. Ah, sopranos, have a heart. Remember the poor prisoners.

APOSIOPESIS.

Can one remark, in manner stark,
And accents comme Voltaire,
This best of a. p. worlds is often
Somewhat hard to bear?
May one not turn aside a nonce
To curse, as fall winds toll
The dirge of jocund summer
And he has to buy his coal!

THE SOLICITOR.

GANGSTERS get away with murder all right, but they get into trouble when they forget to pay their income tax. We are a patient people, but, by heck, there are some things we won't stand for.

OCTOBER FIRST! This is the month when the candidates point with pride and view with alarm and call upon the one hundred and five per cent Americans to rally as their grandfathers did at Bunker Hill for the protection of our sacred institutions and the blessings of liberty. The yellow leaves will rustle in the winds and the squirrels bark from the bare woods, but we'll all be busy saving the country, for election comes only a few days after October ends. And then after we save the country this time we won't have to save it again until 1932.

EROS, EROS!

Eros, Eros, make for me darts of colored fire. . . .
Make a bow and string it well,
Taut and tall and musical.

I beloved am again,
As becomes my righteous name. . . .
Eros, Eros, make for me
Bed of bay and bryony,
Strew before my errant foot
Sheins of scarlet-colored fruit. . . .

HE'S IN CONFERENCE

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

16 YEARS AGO TODAY

OCTOBER 1, 1914.

FROM THE BATTLE FRONT—This was the 19th day of continuous hard fighting along the 150-mile front from the Somme to the Moselle, and yet there is no definite indication that the battle is nearing a finish. There are, however, evidences that the Germans are receding before a forcible and sustained pressure from the allied armies, especially on their western and eastern wings, while the center, where the Germans are more strongly entrenched than at any other point, remains almost stationary.

LONDON.—It is confidently believed here that the allies are making speedy headway against the German lines on both ends. A Rotterdam report says: "Dispatches from the south indicate that preparations for the retreat of the German right already have begun. German troops have been observed coming from the north of France toward Tournai and Mons, prepared to cover the main army in case of retreat." A Ghent dispatch says that the Germans have built five heavy pontoon bridges across the Meuse between Givet and Namur, apparently to facilitate their retirement.

LONDON.—The Russian armies continue to sweep through Galicia, and according to a report from Rome that province of the Austrian empire is clear of Austrian troops. They have gone either into the fortresses of Przemysl and Cracow or retreated to the south and west.

LONDON.—There has been desperate fighting in Belgium for the last three days since the Germans assumed a vigorous offensive. The center of the activity seems to be at Antwerp, where the Germans are attempting to capture the forts which circle the city. An enormous German army has been thrown against the forts, but thus far it has been repulsed with heavy losses.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

OCTOBER 1, 1900.

LONDON.—The Russian troops under Gen. Linovitch have left Peking and the legation also has departed under strong military escort for Tientsin. The American troops have been ordered to leave and Minister Conger is expected to change his headquarters soon. It is reported from Tientsin that a combined land and naval demonstration is to start today for Shang Hai Kiven, a town on the Gulf of Liao Tung, in which all the allied troops will take part.

CHICAGO.—Gen. Jacob S. Coxey, who six years ago led "Coxey's Army," composed of several hundred unemployed workingmen, to the national capital at Washington and camped on the lawns surrounding the White House, is today advertising for men to work on the immense steel casting plant which he is erecting in Mount Vernon, O. He expects to spend $250,000 on the buildings. When he made his famous march it was under a Democratic administration and he found plenty of idle men. Now he cannot find sufficient unemployed men to do his work.

50 YEARS AGO TODAY

OCTOBER 1, 1880.

WASHINGTON. — Ex-Congressman Jere Wilson of Indiana, well informed on politics of his state, is here and says he has no doubt Indiana will go for Garfield and Arthur.

PINOS, Colo.—"The crisis in Ute affairs has passed. Seventy Uncompahgre and White River headmen and chiefs placed their bands under the direction of the agent. They have accepted Saponvonari as chief to succeed Chief Ouray."

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Journal and Review of Aiken, S. C., is much concerned for the success of the Democratic ticket and sees in the organization of Garfield and Arthur clubs a great menace to Democratic supremacy there. It calls on Democrats to reorganize the Red Shirt Mounted clubs and when these historic organizations are completed to attend every meeting of radicals, with what purpose the history of the election of 1876 and the shotgun tactics of the South Carolina Red Shirts will show.

CHICAGO.—A telegram from Rome announced that Chicago has been made an archdiocese of the Catholic church, with Alton and Peoria as suffragan sees, and that the Rt. Rev. P. A. Feehan, bishop of Nashville, has been appointed archbishop.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Writers should confine themselves to 200 or 300 words. Give full names and addresses. No manuscripts can be returned. Address Voice of the People, The Tribune.

THE PINCH AT HOME.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—The press announcement that the old Criminal Court building is to be used for the distribution of 5,000 meals daily to indigent men raises an issue which will confront Chicago more conspicuously as the winter draws on.

In this land of plenty nobody should be allowed to starve, but with every charity reporting decreased income it becomes a problem as to which piece of bread should receive the smaller pat of butter.

Unfortunately, the men who solicit alms on the streets are notoriously those who have escaped or avoided family responsibilities and who, because of the thoughtless charity of those they solicit, make comparatively large sums by their solicitation. I followed one of these men around the streets of the loop district the other day and saw him receive in thirty minutes 35 donations. None of these would be less than a nickel and many would be more. It is doubtful whether a cent of that went to feed a child or to support a home. Whether the work in the Criminal Court building is to feed this class needs careful inquiry.

Meantime the American home, so long the object of attack from many angles, social, moral and architectural, is in this time of stress suffering economic assaults of the severest kind. School teachers and others report an increasing number of cases of undernourishment amongst children. Gangsters are made that way. Surely something more than careless sentiment should actuate our thinking just now and all our efforts be directed to keeping the little homes together which are so seriously feeling the continued pinch of unemployment. The man who has nobody to think of but himself has always been able to shift for himself. He always will.

COPELAND SMITH,
President the Neighbor Guild.

PROHIBITION HISTORY.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—J. A. Alford said in the Voice of the People that two-thirds of our territory had voted dry before the world war after fifty years of education.

From 1846, when Maine started the movement, to 1914, a stretch of 68 years, nine states went dry. In 1846, Maine; 1880, Kansas; 1889, North Dakota; 1907, Georgia and Oklahoma; 1908, Mississippi and North Carolina; 1909, Tennessee, and 1912, West Virginia.

But as pointed out in "Losing Liberty Judicially," a book by Thomas James Norton, which ought to be read by all intelligent Americans, especially drys, half the states went dry in five years after the beginning of the war. That was owing to the preparedness of the Anti Saloon league and its experience in dictation, taken with the deterioration which had been going on for ten years in genuine representation by representatives in both congress and legislatures. The emotion of the time was started by the czar's suppressing vodka when mobilization began.

T. B.

BETTER BASEBALL FOR BOSTON.

Chicago, Sept. 23.—The departure of McCarthy should prove beneficial, not only to the National league but also to McCarthy himself, provided he is installed at the helm of the Boston Americans.

In five years' time he has built a hopeless second division club to a leading contender in the older league. He has proven his ability as a manager and is entitled to a merited promotion. Of course, when he has been with the Red Sox for a short time he will be astonished to discover that his team is the equal, if not the superior, of the team he formerly piloted, but he will also learn that they are of inferior caliber as an American league club. What will follow is easy to foresee. Competition being so much keener, Joe will be obliged to build and his material must come from the minor leagues. His first act, when he becomes oriented to the difference in the caliber of the two leagues, will be to ask for waivers on a considerable part of his players and, as the other American league clubs cannot use them, this will be readily granted. The National league clubs will then do as they have in the past and grab up these discards.

The benefit to the Cubs can readily be seen when it is realized that, if they are alert, they might be able to obtain a couple of pitchers of National league weight and perhaps an infielder and outfielder who, batting against National league pitching, would be able to increase their batting averages by fifty or seventy-five points above the best they had previously registered.

B. M. SANER.

APPRECIATION OF NATURE.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Today's sunset scene in colorado is the best yet! Why not print such subjects on heavier paper without the crease in center, so we can frame them? A price of 10 cents or so would make them accessible to a poor man's art gallery, and what a chance for you to promote appreciation of nature! A. B.

COUNTY TO LET ROAD CONTRACTS OF $1,663,000

State Grade Separations to Aid Winter Work.

BY HAL FOUST.

President Cermak of the county board announced yesterday that bids will be received on Oct. 23 for twenty-three road projects, to cost approximately $1,663,000. The total mileage in the contracts is 34.7. Twelve jobs within the city involve 19.4 miles of pavement. The other projects, totaling 15.3 miles, are outside Chicago.

The announcement was made at a meeting of the board, in which the improvement of traffic facilities was also advanced, by the adoption of two resolutions aimed at hastening the construction of grade separations at fourteen intersections of important highways in the county.

The locations of the pavement on which contracts will be let are as follows:

Crawford avenue—33d street to 63d place, 63d place to 71st street, 73d street to 87th street, 87th street to 95th street, and Bryn Mawr avenue to Devon avenue.

Cicero avenue—Elston avenue to Devon avenue.

McHenry road—Dundee road to Lake county line.

Outside of the paving, bids are asked for a new and wide bridge on Waukegan road over the Chicago and North Western railroad tracks near Techny where the present twenty foot bridge is a bottle neck on the forty foot pavement.

A contract will also be awarded for the construction of a traffic circle at the intersection of Cumberland road and the Indiana boundary line road.

Grading is to be done on 131st street from Archer avenue to Derby road and on Palatine road from Bartlett road to Ela road. Culverts are to be built on the Wolf road, Glenwood-Lansing, and Palatine roads.

Press Grade Separations.

The grade separation resolutions directed County Highway Superintendent Quinlan to take immediate steps to acquire rights of way, using the county's $1,200,000 from the defunct 1927 gasoline tax for this purpose. The intersections are on state highways where the state will finance the structures. Director Cleaveland of the state department of public works has indicated his approval as a measure for furnishing employment in the metropolitan area this winter as well as to improve traffic conditions.

The county board also passed a resolution introduced by Commissioner Boutell calling for the printing of handbills, instructing drivers in the proper use of the forty foot roads. The bulletins are to be distributed by the county motorcycle police to drivers found loafing in the center lanes or straddling the lane markers.

Another resolution instructed President Cermak to negotiate with the city and the board of education to begin the vacation period one week later and to end the vacation one week later than at present so as to relieve highway congestion on Labor days.

BUCK, BOY FLYER, IS AT WICHITA ON RECORD TRIP

Wichita, Kas., Sept. 30.—(AP)—Robert Buck, 16, Elizabeth, N. J., aviator, seeking to better the junior transcontinental record established recently by Eddie Schneider, landed here at 3:15 p. m. [central standard time] from St Louis.

He left St. Louis at 10:45 a. m. and covered the 400 miles here in four and one-half hours. His total elapsed flying time from Newark, N. J., to Wichita was 14 hours and 38 minutes, 22 minutes less than that required by Schneider.

DIES OF KNIFE WOUNDS.

William Davis, 32 years old, of 3204 Giles avenue, a Negro, died yesterday at the County hospital of knife wounds received on Monday night. Police are seeking Charles Glover, 4436 Indiana avenue, also colored.

BUILDING GAINS OVER 1929 TOTAL FOR SEPTEMBER

Construction in Chicago for September shows an increase in valuation over that of the same month in 1929 according to an announcement last night by E. M. Craig, executive secretary of the Building Construction Employers' association of Chicago.

Mr. Craig showed that the valuation of building permits issued in September of 1929 was $11,316,000. This year the volume of September construction reached a total of $13,996,000, although during last month the city building department issued 308 fewer permits than in the same month a year ago.

Mr. Craig said that for the last two weeks of September contemplated construction amounted to approximately $10,035,000, while building let to contract totaled $4,084,000. He said Chicago builders are hopeful that the proposed extensions of surface lines will open new fields for home building.

✣ Where Poisons form . . . ✣ Causing Dull Appetites, Listless Days . . . ✣ . . . until Yeast Ends Them ✣

AND APPETITE FAILS, too, when intestines become stagnant or weak. Good, wholesome food loses its appeal. Health faces gravest danger when internal neglect cuts off the body's sustenance.

YET HOW SIMPLE to maintain vigorous health! Nature provides yeast. It brings you blessed relief!

Finicky about food... Appetite Gone?

Look out . . . that may be Nature's first Warning of INTESTINAL FATIGUE

ANOTHER meal just picked at! Good nourishing food the body needs so much. Yet appetite says "No." How long can health exist under such adverse conditions?

Internal sluggishness is the thing that robs life of its kick. Millions suffer from it. Millions show the unmistakable signs . . . listlessness, irritability, dullness. Just think what they are missing. Just think how they are failing to get the best out of life.

These unfortunates are constantly looking for short-cuts out of their trouble. Cathartics, violent laxatives—pills, pills, pills—until finally the day of reckoning when all joy in living is gone. Will this be your own sad fate?

Yet . . . right at your elbows, right under your very eyes—lies blessed, permanent relief. It is Nature's gift, fresh yeast, the age-old treatment world-famous doctors endorse.

It's so easy to obtain . . . so convenient to buy and use. Fleischmann has brought this amazingly corrective food to every village—every hamlet. In little foil-wrapped squares with the yellow Fleischmann label, fresh yeast waits for you, to bring new health, new energy . . . vibrant enjoyment of life's many good things. Eaten three times daily, as a regular part of your diet, yeast quickly gets in its good work. Accumulated waste matter that clogs delicate intestines is softened. Elimination is made regular; digestion fostered.

Thus the body is helped in its efforts to throw off the poison-forming waste products which are the cause of your troubles. The skin clears. Appetite grows sharp again. Bodily resistance is strengthened, and you are no longer so susceptible to colds, headaches, etc. And all without drugs! All because of a fresh, natural food, a simple addition to your diet!

But a warning! Don't expect yeast to aid you overnight! Your family doctor will tell you to be patient. Give yeast a chance and know permanent relief from intestinal ills.

Begin eating yeast today. You can buy Fleischmann's Yeast at grocers', restaurants and soda fountains. Eat three cakes every day, regularly, following the simple directions printed on the label. Will you start now?

three times a day

Remember, it's important to ask your grocer for Fleischmann's fresh Yeast (with the yellow label) . . . the only yeast that contains the Sunshine Vitamin D! Every cake is "irradiated" to give it this added element so important for sun-starved indoor workers. It is rich in Vitamins B and G, too.

STATE INSPECTOR INDICTED IN GAS TAX FRAUD QUIZ

Hugh Norris, Politician, Named with Others.

Hugh Norris, former alderman and ward committeeman, who was appointed city oil inspector under the Thompson régime, was among twenty persons, one of them a woman, named in true bills voted by the grand jury yesterday in the investigation of evasion of gasoline tax payments. The jury had previously named eighteen others on conspiracy and perjury charges.

Norris, who is now head of the state division of oil inspection for the department of trade and commerce in the Chicago area, was named in a joint conspiracy true bill with William F. Gorman, his chief deputy, who has been employed in the oil inspection division for some twenty years. The men are charged jointly with conspiracy to omit to perform their specified duties. In effect, the indictment charged malfeasance in office.

Name Various Dealers.

The other persons named in a series of seven true bills are officials of various gasoline companies. They are charged with evading payment of taxes.

They are named in the following manner:

Fred Allen and Abe Allen, who as the Midway Refining company, 147th street, Thornton, are alleged to have made no return on 125 carloads of gasoline. They are charged with conspiracy to defraud.

Carl Christy, A. F. Feldosse and C. V. Evert, licensed as the North American Oil company, 4440 Addison street. They are charged with perjury and conspiracy in leaving out 136 carloads of gasoline in tax returns.

Charge Perjury and Conspiracy.

Sam Bernstein, Alice Rosen and Aaron Lattin, Ogden Gasoline company, charged with perjury and conspiracy in omitting 377 carloads of gas.

William Jervis, F. L. Hawekette and H. D. Eccleston, operating as the Sparton Petroleum company. They are charged with perjury and conspiracy in connection with failure to pay tax on 95 carloads of gasoline.

Arthur Anderson, William H. Rathburn, John Wagner and Roy Glover, operating as the Quaker City Gas and Oil company. They are also charged with perjury and conspiracy in omitting 32 carloads of gasoline from their tax returns.

"My original estimate of $1,000,000 for the amount the state lost in the Chicago area may be too low," said Assistant State's Attorney John Holman. "Each day we find more evidence of tax evasion."

Average Carload Tax Is $300.

The average tax on each carload of gasoline is $300, according to Assistant State's Attorney LeRoy Mather and T. E. McArdle, investigator for the state department of trade and commerce. Norris and his assistant are charged with being neglectful in failing to find and see that tax was paid on at least 500 carloads of gasoline.

"It is a big surprise to me," said Norris, when apprised of the grand jury action. "I know I haven't done anything wrong."

Norris has been in politics many years and was at one time alderman of the old second ward. He was made city oil inspector when Mayor Thompson took office and became a state employé following the passage of the gasoline tax law.

Norris makes the second political figure to be named in the gas tax true bills. Attorney Wilbur McGinness, a city hall follower, was named last week.

MORROW RESIGNS AS MEXICO AMBASSADOR; CLARK MAY GET POST

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—(AP)—Dwight W. Morrow resigned today as ambassador to Mexico.

The former ambassador's tenure of office lacked only a few days of three years. He was appointed by Calvin Coolidge and continued in office by President Hoover.

Secretary Stimson, upon whose shoulders now rests the responsibility of recommending a successor to the retiring ambassador, delivered the resignation to the chief executive. J. Reuben Clark of Salt Lake City, Utah, is looked upon as an outstanding candidate for the post.

Mr. Morrow declined to discuss the New Jersey political situation into which he will throw himself in a few days in the campaign for election to the senate.

WOMAN FOUND STRANGLED TO DEATH IN HOTEL

Evidently strangled to death, Mrs. Echo Saxton, 28 years old, was found in her room at the Victoria hotel, 222 South Halsted street, early last night. She had been dead since Sunday.

Police started a search for Albert Mareno, who had been living with Mrs. Saxton. They were registered at the hotel as Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith. Mrs. Saxton formerly lived in Iowa, where she was married.

The body was found when her brother, Lyle Langdon, 1427 West Madison street, and her friend, Nettie Fuller, 1441 Madison street, entered her room. The only motive for the killing, so far as Lieut. William Cusack could learn, was Mrs. Saxton's refusal to lend Mareno part of her $800 savings to purchase an automobile.

Find Body of Man in River; Murder Suspected

The body of an unidentified one-armed man, about 40 years old, was taken from the river at 18th street yesterday. His skull had been crushed and police believe that he was murdered. The body was taken to the Harry Stephens undertaking parlors at 244 West 22d street.

WHY HOSPITALS EVERYWHERE USE PLUTO WATER

Main building of the group comprising Cook County Hospital, at Chicago, Ill., one of the world's largest public institutions. Here 2,500 to 3,000 patients are treated daily—more than a million yearly.

Cornelius Vanderpoel, for 36 years Chief Pharmacist at Cook County Hospital.

"Doctors' orders are commands in the hospital. The welfare of patients and at times life itself depends upon the preparedness to supply promptly whatever is prescribed. A saline water laxative is one of the essentials. Pluto Water is acknowledged the ideal saline water laxative, and so we keep on hand a supply to meet the requirements of our huge staff of physicians."

Cornelius Vanderpoel

Chief Pharmacist,
Cook County Hospital.

Famous Cook County Hospital Keeps Pluto Water on Hand for Attending Physicians

HOSPITALS everywhere carry a supply of Pluto Water for the benefit of those patients for whom a saline water laxative is prescribed. Thousands of doctors regularly prescribe Pluto Water as the ideal saline water laxative.

Doctors can't afford to take chances with constipation. Decomposing waste retained in the bowels may lead to extremely serious complications. Pluto Water is as much a staple in hospitals as bandages and iodine! Doctors have prescribed Pluto Water for more than fifty years. It is a part of the pre-operative treatment in many hospitals. Hospital assistants no longer need to be told—Pluto Water is a part of the treatment in hospitals the country over, for scores of ailments.

Sick people can't stand the irritating, griping, dangerous pangs that come from harsh vegetable laxatives.

A doctor wouldn't think of operating on a patient with dull instruments—he'd know that delicate tissues would be torn and strained beyond repair. Why, then, should he administer a laxative that tears and twists the delicate walls of the intestines?

He doesn't—that's the answer!

He gives his patient Pluto Water—Nature's own water-wash for congested bowels!

Very often "Pluto Water" is the doctor's order; quite as often, the hospital attendant's own knowledge and experience dictate Pluto Water—always with the doctor's approval, for he knows Pluto Water will act gently, certainly, quickly!

Well, then—

If Pluto Water is safe for delicate sick people, isn't it the safest laxative you well people can take?

If it acts without harming the weakened tissues of a sick person's digestive tract, won't it be the best thing in the world for your own perfectly sound intestines?

The answer is obvious—Pluto Water is the best, the safest, the surest laxative for everybody—sick or well!

* * * *

Pluto Water, as you know, comes from French Lick, Indiana—home of America's greatest health resort. It contains all the essential mineral properties of the famous natural waters that rise from Nature's own laboratory down there in the Cumberland foothills.

It's effective—it's safe—it's certain!

Thousands of eminent American physicians prescribe Pluto Water regularly. Ask your own doctor—no doubt he also endorses it. Eminent British, French, and German physicians recognize in Pluto the ideal saline water laxative.

Hospitals keep Pluto Water constantly in stock. Ships carry Pluto Water on long voyages.

Railway passengers find Pluto Water in diner and club-car.

You can buy Pluto Water in practically every drug store in practically every civilized country. What more proof can you ask that Pluto is the one best laxative?

Even if it cost a thousand dollars an ounce it couldn't be any better. But it doesn't—it's only 20c (for the small size) and 45c (for more than twice as much) in bottles at drug stores and fountains.

Keep Pluto Water always on hand. It's a friend in need—and as a daily tonic, diluted in plain hot or cold water, for the digestive tract—it can't be beat!

40,000 TO SEE CUBS MEET SOX IN CITY SERIES

WILDCATS SHOW WEAK DEFENSE, GOOD OFFENSE

Frosh Gain Ground on Tulane Plays.

Two hours of scrimmage yesterday showed that from an offensive standpoint the Northwestern university eleven is ready for the opening game against Tulane Saturday. However, the ability of the freshmen to reel off sizeable gains indicated that the varsity needs considerable brushing up on its defense.

Bill Lamont, freshman half back, impersonating Heinie Zimmerman, Tulane's star ball carrier, made several long gains around end.

Capt. Hank Bruder, who will return to the Wildcats' lineup Saturday for the first time since he was injured in the Wisconsin game a year ago, is ready to do his stuff once again.

The Purple leader appears to be just as good if not better than ever. In every scrimmage to date he has torn his way through the frosh for repeated gains while his kicking and passing leaves little to be desired. Bruder will handle virtually all the kicking duties for the Wildcats this year.

Oliphant Still Out.

The battle for the full back berth continues unabated. Pug Rentner and Reb Russell, two sturdy sophomores, are putting up a determined effort to win the job with apparently little to chose between them. Rentner's ability as a passer and kicker in addition to his running gives him the edge. Both will get a trial in Saturday's engagement.

Inability of Larry Oliphant to get back into the lineup because of boils, will necessitate another sophomore breaking into the opening line. Dick Fencl, former St. Philips star, is likely to start at right end in his place.

Al Moore, regular right half, turned up yesterday with a cold and will be out of practice for several days. Trainer King Brady stated that he would probably be able to play Saturday.

TULANE TACKLE INJURED.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Bill Feathergill, Tulane tackle, suffered a sprained ankle in scrimmage this afternoon and it is doubtful if he will make the trip to Evanston for the Northwestern game on Saturday. Coach Bennie Bierman worked the squad for more than three hours, but kept Hugh Whatley, speedy half back, out of the rougher work. Felts, Massey and Glover appeared to be the best of the backfield candidates.

TRUDE REJOINS MAROONS.

One of A. A. Stagg's major problems at the University of Chicago was removed yesterday when the recorder's office announced that Walter E. [Bud] Trude, varsity tackle last year, had cleared up his eligibility deficiency. The line has been bothering Coach Stagg all fall as the back field has shaped up strong, with an all veteran foursome to rely on.

Trude, who weighs 192 pounds and played last year, will give the Maroons a third "C" man in the front line. Andrew Brislen, a guard last year, has been shifted to center, and Tom Cowley, an end, are the other major letter winners trying out for the line.

The freshman squad was called into action yesterday afternoon and carried the ball against the varsity with a disturbing amount of success. The yearlings cut off tackle for good yardage on several occasions, but the varsity succeeded in batting down most of the attempted passes.

OHIO SEEKS PUNTERS.

Columbus, O., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Every Ohio State football player in uniform was given a chance to show his ability at punting today when Coach Sam Willaman spent almost the entire afternoon practice in an effort to find a capable kicker. Wes Fesler's kicks proved to be the best, while those of Hinchman, Varner, and Holcomb showed that they could be used in time of necessity.

The freshmen held their first meeting today when 135 were issued uniforms.

A scrimmage against the scrubs was held this afternoon with the varsity on the defense against Indiana plays. Another scrimmage is scheduled for tomorrow.

BADGERS SMASH FROSH.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Offense was featured in Wisconsin's football practice today, with four teams scrimmaging against the best of the frosh for half an hour.

A "power back field," including Behr, Goldenberg, and Schneller, with Ellicker as the speedy member, looked good in driving plays at the tackles. Ernie Lusby did some spectacular running and plunging in another quartet with Rebholtz, McGuire, and Wimmer.

The frosh then showed improvement, and a third eleven had to resort to a forward passing attack, in which Capt. Gantenbein made three touchdowns.

DRILL LIGHT AT MICHIGAN.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Dummy scrimmage and drill on new plays was the extent of the Michigan workout on Ferry field this afternoon.

The regulars were lined up with Hewitt and Daniels at the wings, Samuels and Purdum at tackles, La Jeunesse and Cornwell at guards, Morgan at center, Tessmer at quarter, De Baker and Simrall at halves, and Hudson at full back.

IRISH'LL TRY TO BEAT S. M. U. AT PASSING GAME

Notre Dame, Ind., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Indications that Notre Dame may try to stop Southern Methodist at its own game Saturday were evident today when the shock troops used passing plays on every other down during a 20 minute scrimmage.

With Koken and Jaskwhich passing, the team scored four touchdowns against a frosh team, combining running plays and lines plunges by Savoldi with its aërial attack. Savoldi plunged over for three of the scores and Koken ran 20 yards for the other one. Host and Vik, ends, were on the receiving end of most of the passes.

On defense against a team of ineligibles using S. M. U.'s plays the shock troops were scored on once in 20 minutes.

ILLINI BACK INJURED.

Champaign, Ill., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Clifford Evans, Illini half back from Dayton, O., injured his knee in practice today and will be out of play for two weeks. Capt. Robinson, who was injured in the freshman game last Saturday, may be unable to play in the opening game against Iowa State here Saturday.

Coach Carl Voyle's freshman team held the varsity on even terms today. Zuppke's men were unable to score on the frosh until near the end of practice, when Yanuskus intercepted a pass. The freshmen used Iowa State plays in the scrimmage.

FROSH USE BAYLOR PLAYS.

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Purdue this afternoon got its first taste of the type of offense that Baylor is expected to present in the season's opener here Saturday when a group of freshmen drilled on Baylor plays was sent against the varsity.

Scout Eb Caraway reported that Wilson, Baylor's left half back, is a speedy ball carrier who must be stopped before he gets into the open.

Horace Buttner, who was shifted from a guard to a tackle post last week, is expected to remain at tackle against Baylor.

INDIANA LINE GETS TEST.

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Indiana linemen were given a test in stopping kickoff returns today. They were weak in this department last Saturday against Miami. Walter Koenig of Cleveland, a senior and the only Ohio player on the Hoosier varsity, is looking forward to his last appearance against Ohio State at Columbus Saturday.

In the WAKE of the NEWS

CUBS VS. SOX.

WHEN a second place team which narrowly missed the championship of one league meets a seventh place team of its rival major league, dope naturally favors the second place team. That's why the Cubs, opening the city series this afternoon against the White Sox at Comiskey park, are natural favorites to defend their city title acquired in 1928.

In previous meetings between the north and south side forces the south siders have emerged victorious ten of fifteen times. In those fifteen meetings we'd say offhand that the Cubs were advance favorites about ten of the fifteen times. In the old days the Sox had a "jinx" on the Cubs, and the latter simply couldn't win, even when figures showed they were the stronger aggregation.

The first important violation of "form," if there be such a thing, was in 1906, when the city series was a world series. Before the first game wild-eyed west siders—the Cubs were then located at Lincoln and Polk streets—offered odds of 5 to 2 and 3 to 1 on their choices with White Sox money scarce. But the White Sox, who later acquired the nickname of "Hitless Wonders," took the series.

In the decade from 1911 to 1921 the Cubs did not win one of the seven series played, although several times they looked stronger. Since 1921, however, the "jinx" has not stood up as formerly.

In the pending series the Cubs unquestionably have a stronger hitting team. The Sox, naturally, will rely on their pitching. The Cubs were demoralised in the closing weeks of the pennant race. We hardly think the Sox may count on that, however, for the Cubs will be out hustling for their new manager, Hornsby. The Sox, of course, regard the series as their great opportunity. With good weather, attendance may be surprising, for south side cohorts always turn out to cheer their favorites against the Cubs.

Johnny Schwake Stops Chuck Wiggins in Sixth

Jackie Fields Wins Easy Decision Over Jack Horner

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 30.—(AP)—Jackie Fields of Los Angeles, making his first start since he lost his welterweight title to young Jack Thompson last spring, easily won a ten round decision over Jackie Horner of St. Louis here tonight. Fields won every round and had Horner on the floor for counts of nine five times.

N. B. A. ATTACK ON NONMEMBERS IS LOSING PUNCH

Clinnin Believes Action Will Be Rescinded.

Fight Decisions

At Portland, Me.—Con Kelly of Boston whipped King Solomon of Panama [12]. At Leiperville, Pa.—Baby Joe Gans, California, whipped Vincent Hambright, Cincinnati [10].

The battle gage which the National Boxing association promised in its Omaha convention Sept. 16, would be tendered the four nonmember states next Jan. 1 in an effort to gain absolute control of boxing, probably will not be presented, it developed yesterday.

The finish fight was anticipated when the N. B. A., in the closing minutes of its convention, adopted a resolution offered by Stanley M. Isaacs, retiring president, which stipulated in effect that "after Jan. 1, 1931, any boxer who performs in one of the nonmember states will not be used in any of the N. B. A. member states."

"If we all stick together the plan will work," Mr. Isaacs was quoted as saying when the resolution was passed. Seventeen states, a quorum of the 29 member states, voted on the resolution. Rhode Island, through its chairman, Edward Foster, refused unequivocally to accede to the proposition. The Illinois representatives fought the resolution, but were voted down.

Clinnin Plans Mail Vote.

Gen. John V. Clinnin, chairman of the Illinois Athletic commission, who was elected president of the N. B. A. at Omaha, revealed yesterday a plan to submit the resolution again to the states for a mail vote.

"I have every reason to believe that the resolution will be rescinded," Clinnin said. "It was passed during a heated discussion and I think a more reflective consideration will convince a majority of the members that it is inadvisable to attempt to force the nonmember states to join our organization."

The four states at which the resolution was aimed are New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and California.

While Chairman Clinnin and Fred Gardner, the other commissioner present at yesterday's meeting, would not admit as much, it is believed Illinois would resign from the N. B. A. before engaging in the fight which the resolution would precipitate if enforced.

Would Affect Illinois, Michigan.

"Illinois is the hub of the N. B. A.," Mr. Gardner pointed out. He served as chairman of the committee on ways and means at the N. B. A. convention. "Illinois and Michigan are practically the only states which would be affected by the resolution. The other states in the past have not been able to present championship fights.

"The N. B. A. is seriously handicapped in finances. Last year it received $1,800 in dues, of which Illinois paid $400. New Jersey and Michigan each contributed $100 and the balance came from 24 states."

LIVINGSTONE ON STAND IN $700,000 HOCKEY CLUB SUIT

Edward J. Livingstone, Canadian hockey promoter, took the stand yesterday in court of Federal Judge Carpenter in his suit for $700,000 against Maj. Frederic McLaughlin, owner of the Chicago Blackhawks, and officials of the two major hockey leagues, and reiterated his charge that the defendants conspired to wreck his business at the time when he was owner of the Chicago Cardinals team.

Livingstone testified that he leased the Coliseum in 1926 for hockey matches and that Maj. McLaughlin, William J. Foster and John Keogh conspired to break his lease and deprive his team of its star players. He said that his lease was canceled and that four members of his team later joined the Blackhawks.

The case is expected to go to the jury today.

Well, Fans, Here's Prominent Manager's Final Statement

BY CONNIE WESTBROOK PEGLER STREET.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 30.—Well, here we are on the eve of the beginning of a new world series and I want to tell you right here and now it is a relief to have the strain of the season over and done with.

Thousands of my friends throughout the country have been deluging me with wires asking me how it feels to be up there again in the old fall classic of the national pastime. Well, I want to say right here and now, that it feels mighty good and I feel mighty proud of leading such a fine aggregation of athletes in the blue ribbon event of the national pastime.

Thanks Faithful Fans.

I want to take occasion right here and now to thank the millions of faithful fans throughout this great country of ours who have stuck with us faithfully throughout the season and given us loyal support through thick and thin. And I want to tell you that there are times in the course of a season when the support of the fans counts more than I can tell you and this goes for the rest of my boys, too, down to the last man.

It is easy enough when you are out there in front in the old flag race, but when the fans stick with you loyally and faithfully when other clubs are showing you their heels, then is when faithfulness and loyalty help a manager in the struggle for the old gonfalon. I feel mighty honored to have brought the pennant to this town because I know of no town more deserving of the honor because the fans stick to you faithfully and loyally, regardless of how badly things may be going at the moment.

Wishes He Knew Outcome.

Well, I suppose a lot of my friends will want to know how this old fall classic will turn out. I only wish I knew myself. This much you may be sure of, however. We may not win but our opponents will know that they have been in a fight and the team that wins the series will have to beat a mighty good aggregation of stellar stars.

I was just saying to an old loyal friend of mine who called me up as soon as he heard my boys won the pennant, that never in the history of the classical autumn showdown, has a team gone in there to play for the highest honors as confident and imbued with such a fighting spirit as the athletes who will represent their city in this series.

Now don't get me wrong. I do not mean that our opponents are not also a fine, stellar aggregation of baseball stars and worthy of being the champions of their league. Nor are we overconfident, because I have always maintained that anything can happen in a short series. For example, look at the world series of 1901. Why could not the same thing happen and history repeat itself all over again, just as it happened in 1904?

Bleacher Fans Game's Backbone.

The fans probably don't appreciate the finer points of baseball strategy, because they are sitting up there in the stands or in the bleachers where you find the real dyed-in-the-wool fans, who are practically the backbone of the game and support the game faithfully year in and year out, but that is the way it has always seemed to me. In other words, I always figure that the team that gets the breaks is the team that wins in an evenly matched contest between two well matched aggregations like this.

That is one of the things why baseball is such a fascinating spectacle to both watch and also to play as a fighter in the contest. The point that I am trying to bring out is that a good team makes their own breaks and that is what my boys have been doing all year when things looked like they were going dead against us. They were still going ahead, making the breaks and making them count for something every game, regardless of how things went against us throughout the long Derby route to victory and world series glory.

Even As You and I.

One point I am trying to bring out is that these ball players are just human fellows just the same as you and I. They have hearts and they have souls just the same as you or I or anybody else for that matter, and in this particular instance it is purely and simply a case of where the boys are in there fighting, not for the few dollars we will get out of the gate, but they feel a genuine loyalty to their manager, who I have the honor to happen to be this season, and to the host of devoted fans who have supported them from beginning to end of the season.

Sometimes folks are apt to think a ball player is in there just for the ready cash there may be in the game, but you would not think so if you knew them as well as I know them.

I suppose our friends are anxious to know who I am going to use to pitch the first game, but I can truthfully say that I will not know until the morning of the afternoon of the day of the first game of the classic.

The average outside fan thinks it is easy for a manager to go over his list of hurlers and pick out some one who they may think is the logical man to send out there on the firing line. But if you consider what happened in 1912, for instance, when a lefthanded pitcher was knocked out of the box in the opening game because the manager didn't stop to consider conditions, you would know what a responsibility it is for a big league manager to contend with in picking out his hurling selections.

Don't Be Too Sure, Fans.

Of course, I realize that the fans would like to know. So would I, but I can only say now that you had better not be too sure, as I am likely to cross everybody up by selecting a dark horse at the last moment. This crosses the opposition, because just when they figure that you are going to give them right hand slants to shoot at and you give them a portsider the result is confusing and there is a break for you right there. That is the point I was trying to bring out—where it is possible for a team to make their own breaks, although, as I say, you can't be too sure even then.

Well, fans, there is just one more thing that I want to get across with the boys who will be the fans of the future great players of tomorrow, and that is that success does not come so easy. It may look easy, but I wish the little, dirty mouthed kids playing ball with an old taped ball on the sand lots of our land could only realize how hard every member of my team have been struggling for years to make themselves perfect specimens of sportsmanship and a credit to our country's favorite pastime on the diamond.

It Takes Perseverance.

Yes, you see them there, fielding perfectly and it looks easy, but let me tell you it is not so easy, and perseverance is what counts in the long run in baseball just as it does in the great game of life. We are meeting a great baseball machine, and if beaten we will not be disgraced, as to always win is not the way life goes.

We are ready for the fray and may the best team win.

Tune In on W-G-N for Broadcast of World, City Series

W-G-N, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE radio station, will broadcast all games of the world series and the city series. The first game of the world series at Philadelphia will go on the air at noon, while the broadcast of the opener of the city series at Comiskey park will start at about 2 o'clock.

LYONS TO FACE MALONE IN FIRST BATTLE TODAY

Reynolds Returns to Hose Lineup.

What It's All About

Contestants—Chicago Cubs of the National league, defending city champions, and Chicago White Sox of the American league, challengers.

Place—Comiskey park, 35th and Shields avenue, Chicago.

Probable pitchers—Malone, Cubs; Lyons, Sox.

Probable attendance—40,000.

Weather—Fair and continued cool.

Umpires—Magerkurth and Quigley, National league; Ormsby and McGowan, American league.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

Harry Grabiner, secretary of the White Sox, a conservative soul if ever there was one, is out with the prediction that the city series, which opens this afternoon at Comiskey park, will break all attendance records if the blizzard stays away.

TED LYONS.

After a gurgling conference with the boys who take in the dough and put out the admission credentials, Mr. Grabiner announced last night that the advance sale, always a reliable barometer for total sales when the weather is favorable, indicates that more than 40,000 persons will be on hand when the first Cub-White Sox game starts at 2 o'clock today.

Virtually all the box seats were gone at the close of business yesterday but many thousands of general admission tickets will be available at the park this morning.

Malone and Lyons to Pitch.

The advance sale at Wrigley field for the Friday, Saturday and Sunday games on the north side also was brisk. Close games in today's opener and tomorrow would stimulate a sellout, according to the expectations of officials of the two clubs.

Both teams yesterday held practices which lasted till noon, and after the drills, Managers Hornsby and Bush stood by their lineups announced Monday, with Malone for the Cubs and Lyons for the Sox as the pitching selections.

The White Sox added a money splitting meeting to their workout yesterday and the division of the purse, whatever it may amount to, was decided through the apportionment of shares.

No Dispute This Year.

Two years ago the Sox apportionment was considered so unfair that Commissioner Landis was forced to set a precedent and split the fund himself, much to the embarrassment of the club and the less greedy members of the team.

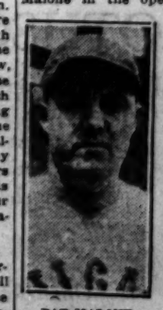
It is said that the leaders in the grasping movement have passed from the Sox and that the present players as well as Manager Bush were eager to settle upon an equitable distribution as a further evidence that things are different from what they used to be on the south side, even if the Sox did finish in the same old spot, seventh, in the American league.

According to reports, all the players left the financial meeting in a happy state of mind and more determined than ever to give the Cubs a stiff fight in the series.

Carl Reynolds to Play.

Another source of considerable elation in the Sox camp was the discovery that Carl Reynolds will start in right field. Grave doubts were expressed Monday that he would recover from an injury suffered in Detroit, but yesterday he reported at batting practice and was able to swing a bat with the same vigor and skill that enabled him to pile up an average of .360 in his season's endeavors again Lefty Grove, George Earnshaw, Wes Ferrell, et al.

Pitting Ted Lyons against Pat Malone in the opener today was a logical move, for the two gents possess 1930 records far better than any of their teammates, records which, in fact, stack up with the best pitching tabulations in the country, especially when the erratic support each received is taken into consideration.



PAT MALONE.

Lyons, as most of the fans know, performed the spectacular feat of winning 22 games for a seventh place ball club. More than a fourth of these victories were won with Ted acting almost alone as his offense as well as his defense.

Malone won his 20th game of the

MAID OF HONOR IS 38-1 VICTOR ON HAWTHORNE OVAL

Fiddler Beats Ladrone in Prospect Purse.

BY FRENCH LANE.

Maid of Honor, racing in the scarlet and white jacket of Otto W. Lehmann, president of the Arlington Park Jockey club, galloped to an easy and brilliant victory in the Attractive purse at Hawthorne yesterday.

And when Maid of Honor got home a length in front of the favorite Sister Mary, she scored the most unexpected triumph of the Hawthorne season and in the mutual betting paid $79.96 to win, $28.88 to place, and $11.96 to show. Alderman Coughlin's Very Well was running fast near the end but was a length back of Sister Mary in third place.

Trainer All Wrought Up.

Billy Pinch, who trained and saddled Maid of Honor for her victory, became so excited after he took a glance at the mutual board that he had trouble getting the blanket back on the Lehmann color bearer after she came back to salute the judges.

But despite Trainer Pinch's nervousness Maid of Honor never left the result in doubt after Jockey Landolt took her to the front as the barrier lifted. Running gamely and showing more speed than any of the others in the field of eight, Maid of Honor kept right at her task and wound up by winning with much in reserve.

Maid of Honor is a daughter of Supremus-Boja and was cut out for a good race horse, but in numerous starts lately had shown a tendency to quit in the late stages. Because she had been quitting so often the crowd had deserted her.

Maid of Honor was at the half in :47 1-5, she rounded out the five furlongs in a minute flat and finished out the five and a half furlongs in 1:06 3-5. She was running just as strongly at the end as she was in the early stages.

Fiddler Wins Prospect.

Fiddler, the favorite, won the Prospect purse at a mile and 70 yards, but Fiddler was not the best horse in the race. Ladrone, with any kind of a ride except the bungling one which Melvin Knight gave him, would have won by a wide margin.

Knight was responsible for Ladrone getting cut off on the run to the club house turn. Then on the backstretch he sent Ladrone up so fast it would have taken the run out of any horse. But heading into the stretch Ladrone was leading, Lady Seth was running second and Jockey Depeso was giving Fiddler a breathing spell and rating him back in third place.

Then Jockey Knight took Ladrone far out near the center of the track and lost a few lengths by this move. It also carried Lady Seth wide. The ever alert Depeso shot Fiddler through next to the rail, much to the delight of the favorite players, and a sixteenth from home had saved enough ground to head Ladrone.

St. Patrick Is 24 to 7 Victor Over St. Mel

St. Patrick became a contender for the Catholic league football title last night by defeating St. Mel before a crowd of 8,000 at Mills stadium, 24 to 7. It was the first appearance of the victors in league play this year, while St. Mel was playing its second league game within three days, having defeated Weber in its opener Saturday.

Dooley, Fahey, Adams, and McGinty starred for the winners, while Dasso, Shanahan, and Cullerton featured for St. Mel. Dooley scored two touchdowns, one on a 60 yard run in the first quarter and another on a 20 yard dash in the last. He crossed the line in the third quarter also and fumbled, but Hayes recovered for the touchdown. Jordan scored the fourth St. Patrick touchdown on a pass from Dooley.

With St. Patrick using a number of substitutes, St. Mel scored in the last quarter on an end run by Dasso. Moran drop kicked for the extra point. Lineup:

ST. PATRICK [24].		ST. MEL [6].
Fahey	L. E.	Ridney
Hayes	L. T.	Brennan
Devereux	L. G.	Hood
Adams	C.	McHugh
Wosik	R. G.	Shanahan

THREE CORNERED FIGHT LOOMS IN GOLD CUP RACE

A three cornered battle between Sun Beau, the eastern handicap champion; Lady Broadcast, the best of the stake horses in the west, and Gallant Fox, the sensational 3 year old title winner, is promised in the Hawthorne Gold Cup to be run on the afternoon of Oct. 11.

The entries for the race which carries $25,000 in added money and which will gross more than $30,000 were announced yesterday. Twenty-four were named for the rich stake which is a weight for age at a mile and a quarter. The complete entry list is as follows:

Mokatam	Sun Beau
Sir Ruley	My Dandy
Plucky Play	Ironsides
Gone Away	Saxon
Lady Broadcast	Spinach
Hornpipe	Alcibiades
Questionnaire	Chicago
Pigeon Hole	Gallant Fox
Karl Zitel	Sidney Grant
Fe	Who Win
Blackwood	Flaming
Jim Dandy	Jem

It is the plan to bring Gallant Fox to Chicago within the next few days. After his engagement in the Hawthorne Gold Cup he will move to Latonia and wind up his racing career in the Latonia championship stakes to be run on Oct. 18.

season last Saturday and thus became one of two National league pitchers who were able to win as many as 20 games. Pat, it will be recalled, was the only National league hurler to reach the 20 mark last season. In 1929 the Black Knight registered 22 wins.

The two pitchers are of different types, Malone relying largely upon his fire ball, while Lyons' chief asset is a fast breaking knuckler. When he has control, Ted possesses a variety of stuff that few pitchers in America can display. Malone has a fair curve, but when his fast one isn't hopping Pat becomes distressed no end, usually winding up with a burst of temper that does him no good.

JIM LONDOS GOES AFTER BOUT WITH GUS SONNENBERG

Ed White, manager of Jim Londos, whom the National Boxing association recognizes as the champion heavyweight wrestler of the world, visited members of the Illinois athletic commission yesterday in the first of another series of efforts to secure a match with Gus Sonnenberg. White called attention to his open letter defending Londos from an attack by the "wrestling trust" and his offer of $10,000 to any one who will secure a match for Londos with Sonnenberg.

Sydney Strotz, president of the Stadium corporation, also was present. During the conversation White said he would accept 25 per cent of the receipts if the Stadium could arrange the match and he further offered to post any forfeit the commission designated to bind the appearance. Strotz will offer terms immediately to Dr. James Brown, Sonnenberg's manager.

All heavyweight bouts now are barred by the commission by a resolution adopted last Jan. 21. Gen. John V. Clinnin, chairman, said that if a bout between Londos and Sonnenberg can be arranged it would be sanctioned.

SHAMROCKS SIGN ANDY MULLIGAN

Andy Mulligan, leading defense man in the American Hockey association last year, has been signed by the Chicago Shamrocks club, Tom Shaughnessy, president of the Shamrocks, announced yesterday.

Mulligan is a big, fast player of the rushing type. He is more than six feet tall and weighs 190 pounds. The Shamrocks obtained Mulligan by purchase from the St. Paul American association hockey club.

SPINNER PLAYS MAY BE NEW TO FOOTBALL FANS—

But They're Old Stuff to Coaches.

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Spinner plays may be considered a recent innovation in offensive football by the masses who attend the big games, but they aren't new to the veteran coaches. It is as difficult to find a new play as it is for an author to discover a new plot.

A. A. Stagg's flanker formation was hailed in the public prints last year as a recent invention. Stagg, however, says he devised these lateral passes many years ago. It is true also that no definite system of attack is constant. It is changeable in that plays may be added or others disearded.

Rockne Uses Half Spinner.

For instance, Coach Rockne used a half spinner last year where in the early years of the formation of his shift there was no such play. When the additions to the system have been revived or are entirely foreign to the accepted repertoire of the coach, they are believed frequently to be recent inventions.

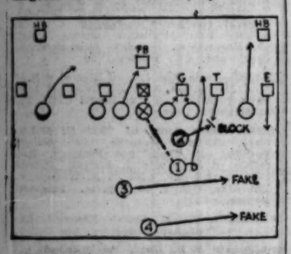
The spinner, double and triple pass plays are deceptive. They accomplish by delusion what otherwise must be gained by power. And all plays involving deception work better if the team has power for straight plays.

The spin play is the work of one man, whereas the double and triple pass plays provide for an exchange of the ball between the backs, reversing the direction of the play one or more times.

One of the earliest spin plays was included in the Harvard system. Arnold Horween, now head coach of Harvard, brought this play to professional football when he coached the Chicago Cardinals. Incidentally, Horween has evolved a system of lateral passes and deceptive plays which has shown the east what can be accomplished.

Here's Harvard Spinner.

Let us consider this spin play. The normal expectation of the defense when the punt or kick formation is called by the offense [with a back eight to ten yards back of the center] is a kick, run, or pass. The plunge into the line is least effective. The diagram of the Harvard play follows:



The ball is passed to the No. 1 back. The defensive tackle and end charge, expecting to break up a run, block the kick or hurry the passer. No. 2 back delays a second and then blocks the tackle out. It is the same block the tackle expects in the event of a kick and is easily executed, since No. 2 has an angle of attack which carries the tackle directly away from the desired opening.

Two Linemen Get Guard.

No. 1 turns to his right so that only the tackle and end see the ball. With his back to the scrimmage line he fakes a pass to No. 3 coming across. No. 4 also is faking a run to the right, which forces the defensive end to charge straight ahead.

The defensive guard is carried back and to the left, smothered by two linemen. No. 1 back now turns and plunges between tackle and guard. Offensive players are assigned to block the defensive full back and half back when the ball carrier breaks through the scrimmage line.

Macks and Cardinals Start Play for World Title Today

ding the unsuspecting Connie. Street says he is going to pitch Grimes because he can do to the Athletics the same as Faber, also a spitter, did during the late campaign. Mack acted on this information and in practice today and yesterday had his fellows hitting against Jack Quinn, another member of the spitball brigade. Now if Street should turn up with Bill Hallahan, a southpaw, tomorrow it should occasion no surprise.

The case of Frankie Frisch is considered somewhat of a mystery because of conflicting reports. Street, who must be accepted as one who is sensible enough not to take baseball too seriously from a strategical standpoint, repeated time and again today that Frisch might not play. But Frisch, with violent ultra-violet and other species of lamps playing upon the cuticle of his back, handed down the opinion that when the bell rang and President Herbert Hoover and 33,000 others gathered tomorrow, he would be among those active. Frisch is a money player. That should explain to the lay mind that he will be in uniform and not in bed.

Cards Need Frisch.

If by chance it should so happen that Frisch is as much an invalid as the bulletins indicate, there is no need dodging the fact that the Cardinals would cease to be the favorites most of the baseball men now hold them to be. Frisch is the St. Louis bellwether. He has exceptional mechanical skill afield or at bat and with it has the quality of a gogetter. Without him for the first or second games the Cards would be forced to depend on a makeshift infield of Adams at second and High at third. That might not prove so good.

In connection with Frisch it should be remembered that he and Gelbert comprise the best middle bag pair in either majors. They make Mack's Boley-Bishop combination seem inconsequential. It can even be said for Frisch that his presence contributes to a vast number of double plays and double plays tend to make pitchers look impressive.

Hold Last Workout.

Carrying out the idea that a world series is of such vast importance that plans or possibilities must not be revealed, Mack had his Athletics out for their final workout before luncheon today. After the American leaguers had vacated the premises the Cardinals took charge. It was their first experience on the field that just a year ago caused Hack Wilson unforgettable annoyance. Hack lost a ball in the sun and that brought on that famous ten run rally against Charley Root and the few who succeeded him. Street was wise enough today to hold his practice at the same time the game will be played tomorrow and the next day. Thus his charges were able to acquaint themselves with the shadows and the direct rays of the sun.

Cardinals and Portsmouth to Play Hospital Benefit

The Chicago Cardinals and the Portsmouth Spartans of the National Professional Football league will play at Comiskey park on Oct. 26 for the benefit of the Little Company of Mary hospital, 95th street and California avenue, Evergreen Park. Proceeds of the game, which will be a regular scheduled league contest, will be used toward paying off a $45,000 indebtedness on the hospital. Peter B. Carey charge of the ticket sale.

BETTING LIGHT ON WORLD SERIES; ODDS FAVOR A'S

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Betting on the world series was light tonight, with odds of 10 to 7 offered by the local adherents of Connie Mack's world champions and very little of their money was snapped up by Cardinal-conscious sportsmen.

A leading local sports actuary was reported as offering 7 to 5 that Philadelphia would win the first game. Bets of 15 to 1 that the Cardinals would not win the series in four straight games were rumored to have been made here with a prominent local gambler taking the short end.

CLINKS BOTTLES; FIGHTER LOSES; HE'S FINED $25

Springfield, Mo., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Clinking two bottles together during a prize fight in Convention hall last night proved costly today for Billy Newton, Joplin, Mo., boxing manager, when he was suspended for 30 days and fined $25 by Ben J. Harrison, secretary of the state boxing commission. Newton, sitting in Roy Stevens' corner, clinked the bottles and Red Foster, thinking it was a bell, quit fighting, allowing Stevens to get in some costly blows.

ROCHESTER BEATS LOUISVILLE, 8-6, BY SMART PLAY

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 30.—(AP)—A third strike, caught on the first bounce and apparently noticed by nobody except the batter, proved the turning point in today's little world series game. It gave the Rochester Internationals a 4 to 2 advantage over the Louisville American association representatives. Rochester won, 8 to 6, and now needs but one more victory to win the series.

In the eighth inning, Louisville leading, 5 to 4, Worthington tripled with one out. Penner, who had relieved Marcum for Louisville, struck out Collins and Wilson, but Catcher Barnes caught the last strike on the bounce. He failed to throw to first. The Louisville players moved in as though the inning were over, then saw the alert Wilson racing for first and clustered themselves around home and third. Wilson dashed to second. Florence came up and singled to right to put the Red Wings a run ahead.

DRAKE SEEKS 8TH NIGHT VICTORY IN OREGON CONTEST

Drake university football team will endeavor to maintain its record of victory in night games when it faces the Oregon Aggies Friday evening at Soldiers' field. The Iowans have not been beaten in seven starts after sundown.

Coach Doc Spears' coast eleven will outweigh Drake in the line, it was indicated yesterday. The former Minnesota coach has nine tackles on his squad, each of whom weighs more than 200 pounds, and the other linemen are proportionately heavy.

Perhaps the first Arab football player to perform in the middle west will be Ed Shaheen, Oregon end.

TEAMMATES OF PREP DAYS CLASH IN LOYOLA GAME

When Phil Mooney, regular quarter back of Georgetown university, starts around his right end next Friday night against Loyola at Loyola stadium he will be greeted by George Weimer, who was accustomed to running his interference when both of them played for Loyola academy a few years back. Both had distinguished careers at Loyola prep. Weimer won letters in both football and baseball under the tutelage of his father, Jake Weimer, an old Cub pitcher.

RAINFALL WILL MAKE A FEAST FOR WATERFOWL

BY BOB BECKER.

If the weather man will send rain by the bucketful during the next few weeks the waterfowl which annually pay a visit to the Illinois river bottom lands can enjoy a feast, the like of which they rarely get in that country because the marshes are literally choked with weeds and duck food.

For several weeks we have been hearing about the abundance of natural food in the river bottoms. Last week end we had a chance to check on conditions when we explored some of the flats near Saidora. The situation has not been exaggerated, judging by what we saw.

Where two years ago we paddled a duck boat over a flooded marsh and saw 5,000 to 10,000 pintails and mallards, today this water area his disappeared, leaving a few shallow pools and tons of weeds, which form a veritable jungle on the slippery mud flat. There is enough smartweed on this one patch of ground to feed thousands of waterfowl. If heavy rains should visit the valley and put 6 inches of water on such a place the ducks could sail into it and have the feast of their lives.

Right now there are, with the exception of wood ducks, comparatively few waterfowl in the Illinois river valley. Sportsmen will do well to postpone their trips down there until later in the month unless they want an outing, a few shots at pintails, teal and mallards, and a mess of jacksnipe.

The big migration rarely comes down from the north until around the last week in October, and November is usually the beginning of the real mallard hunting. On our recent trip into the Illinois bottom lands we saw both green and blue winged teal, but more mallards and pintails—all home grown birds.

Rails and jacksnipe are plentiful. Of the other birds to be seen in the marsh, cormorants, marsh hawks, blackbirds and herons do not seem to have suffered much from the 1930 drought.

Grimes' Mother Recovering from Paralytic Stroke

Owen, Wis., Sept. 30.—(AP)—Mrs. Nick Grimes, mother of Burleigh Grimes, the baseball player, is recovering from a paralytic stroke suffered over the week-end. Doctors said her condition had improved. Grimes is scheduled to pitch the opener in the world series tomorrow at Philadelphia for St. Louis.

LORD BIRKENHEAD LIES IN STATE IN ANCIENT CHAPEL

Remains to Be Cremated; Funeral Saturday.

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The body of Lord Birkenhead, famous British statesman and lawyer, who died today of pneumonia, was removed tonight from the family residence in Grosvenor Gardens to the ancient historical chapel in Grays Inn, of which the late earl was a bencher. There it will lie in state before a flower covered altar until Friday, when the body will be cremated and the ashes taken to Chariton, the earl's country seat, for a funeral on Saturday. A funeral service will be held in Westminster Abbey Monday.

The transfer of the coffin from Grosvenor Gardens to Grays Inn was carried out with the utmost simplicity. The late earl's closest friend, Col. Arthur T. McGrath, was the only person in attendance.

Wife at Bedside.

The death of the 58 year old earl occurred at 11:15 a. m. today at his residence. Lady Birkenhead and other members of the family were present when he died.

The earl was taken seriously ill early in August with bronchial pneumonia, but on Aug. 23 he was reported to be out of immediate danger. Yesterday, however, the doctors announced a recurrence of the congestion of one lung. The heart muscles, feeling the effect of this, dilated and failed.

From Poverty to Riches.

Lord Birkenhead's death ends one of the romances of modern times. As Frederick Edwin Smith he rose from comparative poverty to eminence at the bar, building up a large practice which was said to have brought him $150,000 per year. In both houses of parliament he made speeches that have become historic. He was a prominent figure throughout the years of the great war and played a distinguished part in the negotiations which culminated in the setting up of the Irish Free State.

Later Lord Birkenhead gave up his political life for a financial career, and at the time of his death held several directorships. He was a brilliant writer and a contributor of well known literature for many years.

The heir to the earldom is the Viscount Fulnear, aged 23.

Born at Birkenhead.

Lord Birkenhead was born at Birkenhead, near Liverpool, July 12, 1872. His grandfather had been a Yorkshire miner and a heavyweight champion boxer. His father, a barrister, died while Lord Birkenhead was a boy.

Lord Birkenhead made several visits to America. In September of last year he visited Chicago for three days with other leaders in British politics. During his stay here he played golf with Bobby Jones.

During his career he wrote numerous books, some on law, some on international politics, and one book on America after visits to the United States in 1917 and 1923.

Lord Birkenhead was a stanch opponent of prohibition and woman's suffrage. While in America in 1923 he was accused by the W. C. T. U. of Sioux City, Ia., of opening a bottle of his own whisky in the basement of a church there and offering it to prominent citizens.

He married Miss Margaret Eleanor Furneaux, daughter of an Oxford professor. Three children, two daughters and a son, were born.

TWO STORES ROBBED.

An armed man held up Joyce Boyce, manager of a store at 528 East 63d street, yesterday and escaped with $100.

WORK ON PLAN TO INCREASE POLICE FORCE BY 5,000

In an effort to work out a plan whereby 5,000 men may be added to the police force next year Acting Police Commissioner Alcock yesterday conferred with John A. Richert, chief of the city council finance committee's staff. After the conference Mr. Richert began work on a tentative outline that will show what additional appropriation would be needed in the police department budget to pay the salaries of the new men.

"It is a good business proposition for Chicago to give its police force 5,000 more men," said Commissioner Alcock. "The city certainly needs them. There are enough men in the higher ranks in the department, but what is needed most is patrolmen."

Under the Alcock plan a certain number of men would be put in uniform each month until at the end of next year 5,000 men would have been added to the force.

BISHOP CANNON IN SECLUSION; CALLERS DENIED

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Bishop James Cannon Jr., under charges brought against him by four elders of the Methodist church, South, was in seclusion today following a spirited press reception given him last night at the Union station on his return with Mrs. Cannon from Brazil.

At his office near the capitol it was said that he would not appear today and that his whereabouts were unknown. It was believed that the Cannons are at a local hotel. One of the bishop's sons, David Cannon, was at the bishop's office early this morning, where it was understood he collected the mail and took it to his father. At the home of another son, W. B. Cannon, and that of the bishop's secretary, Eugene L. Crawford, it was said that the bishop had not said where he was stopping.

W. N. MARTIN, ENGINEER, DIES FROM AUTO GAS

William Nowell Martin, paving engineer and contractor of Chicago and Detroit, was found dead last night of carbon monoxide poisoning in the garage in the rear of his home at 7841 Kingston avenue.

The body was found by his wife, Helen, when he failed to appear for dinner. Death is believed to have resulted when a garage door was blown shut by the wind while Martin was engrossed in making an adjustment to the motor of his car.

Mr. Martin was associated with the Reynolds Paving Equipment company at 6 North Michigan avenue.

The will of Hugh McBirney Johnston, broker and corporation director, who fell to his death from a Philadelphia hotel window on Sept. 22, was filed for probate yesterday with Mitchell C. Robin, clerk of the Probate court. Under the terms of the will the entire estate, valued at more than $1,000,000, is left in trust to his four children, Hulburt, 24 years old; Mary Elizabeth, 21; Hugh McB., 19; and Ethel De Forest, 15. Each will receive $125,000 at the age of 25 and the remainder of his share at the age of 30. Mr. Johnston was a widower.

CARL J. STEIN, CONTRACTOR IN PLUMBING, DIES

Carl John Stein, prominent plumbing and heating contractor, died suddenly yesterday at his home at 500 Barry avenue. He was 57 years old and was born in New Orleans. Mr. Stein was a member of the Illinois Athletic, Medinah, and Lake Shore Athletic clubs. He is survived by his widow and a son and a daughter. Funeral services will be held at Oriental Consistory hall, 919 North Dearborn street, with Apollo commandery officiating.

WILL CALL 100 JURY PROSPECTS IN MURDER TRIAL

A special venire of 100 prospective jurymen will report to Judge Joseph Sabath in the Criminal court this morning for service in the trial of Mrs. Florence Leeney, charged with the murder of her husband, Maurice, a south side teaming contractor. In two days of questioning not a single juror has been sworn in.

When court adjourned last night three veniremen had tentatively passed the questioning of attorneys for both sides, but they are still subject to challenge until actually sworn in. Assistant State's Attorneys Ross Lee Laird and George Lavin are seeking a jury which will not be opposed to recommending the death penalty for a woman if the evidence in the case warrants it.

Attorneys Samuel Hoffman and Charles Dougherty, for the defense, sought to delay the proceedings by challenging the entire panel of jurors on the ground that the veniremen had been recruited from other courtrooms. Judge Sabath denied the motion.

HENRY LINDAHL, STEEL COMPANY PRESIDENT, DEAD

Henry Lindahl, prominent for many years in the steel and iron industry, and president of the Lindahl Foundry and Machine company, 5900 Ogden avenue, died of heart disease at his home, 431 South Home avenue, Oak Park, last night. He was 71 years old, a native of Sweden, and lived in Chicago and Oak Park since 1880. He started in the steel business in 1895. Surviving are his widow, four sons, Roy W., Fred H., Carl I., and Harold A. Lindahl, and two daughters, Mrs. Elsie Roberts and Mrs. Nellie Schlieben. Funeral services will be held Saturday with burial at Mount Olivet cemetery.

George Green, Veteran of Electric Company, Is Dead

George Green, head of the shipping department of the Automatic Electric company, with which he was connected more than 25 years, died suddenly Monday. Services will be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at 214-216 South Western avenue. Interment Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at Graceland cemetery.

WOMAN OF 70 FATALLY HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Mrs. Sarah Blum, 70 years old, 1103 Independence boulevard, was fatally injured early last night when she walked between two cars parked on the boulevard into the path of a Checker cab driven by Harry Sharitz, 842 North Hamlin avenue. She died at Mount Sinai hospital of skull fractures and internal injuries. Sharitz was held by the Fillmore police.

This death and two others yesterday raised the Cook county motor toll for the year to 760. The victims:

Dennis Hickey, 70 years old, 4528 Jackson boulevard. Died at the St. Elizabeth's hospital of injuries incurred on Sept. 15 when struck by the automobile of Louis Schmidt, 2635 South Highland avenue, Berwyn, at Madison street and Crawford avenue. Schmidt was arrested last night and is being held for the inquest.

Frank Woodruff, 62 years old, 3526 Flournoy street, a laboror. Died at the Edgewater hospital of injuries received on Sept. 18 when struck by an auto at 5527 Broadway. Charles Stephani, 7415 North Parkhurst avenue, was the driver.

BOY SHOT AS HE GUNS FOR FOE DIES OF WOUND

Walter Bruchman, 17 years old, 3765 Osgood street, died yesterday in the American hospital of a bullet wound received on Monday night when he tried to shoot Patrolmen Ernest Ridell and Joseph Johnson of the Town Hall station as they sought to question him.

Before he died the police learned that Bruchman was on his way to kill Frank Riley, manager of the Sheridan theater at 4038 Sheridan road, whom he blamed for his discharge as an usher at the theater. Bruchman was first noticed by the policemen at Sheridan road and Irving Park boulevard.

"Take your hand out of your pocket," the police ordered.

Bruchman pulled a small revolver from his pocket and snapped the trigger twice. Policeman Ridell then slipped to the rear of the police car and fired two shots at Bruchman, one of them striking him in the side.

MAN INDICTED AS WIFE'S SLAYER IN INDIANA TRIANGLE

Martinsville, Ind., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—The male member of a triangle involving the death of Carrie Thelma Pryor, 21, was indicted today by the Morgan county grand jury for first degree murder. He is Ernest Pryor, 32, her husband, who like the two women in the case, was employed at a fashionable sanatarium here. William Brady, youthful county prosecuting attorney, plans immediate trial.

Pryor will be arraigned Wednesday. Just before his indictment he repudiated a statement made a few hours before in which he blamed his alleged lover, Miss Elsie Ham, of Brazil, Ind., for the murder. Pryor had said Miss Ham, who was Mrs. Pryor's first cousin, confessed two weeks after his wife's death that she had poisoned Mrs. Pryor "to get even with her." The state chemist, analyzing Mrs. Pryor's organs, found arsenic more than sufficient to cause death, he reported.

The grand jury heard forty-three witnesses tell how Miss Ham came to live with the Pryor's here, how Pryor obtained employment for her, and how she stayed on at their home in utmost intimacy despite numerous protests by Mrs. Pryor.

Faced with these charges and Pryor's alleged confession from her, Miss Ham today denied all charges when taken before the grand jury. Pryor continues to insist he is innocent of the murder.

How the Railroads Help Every Farmer

A Message from L. A. Downs, President, Illinois Central System.

Every farmer has a helpful ally in the railroads of the country. They work with him and for him in many ways.

They carry his products to markets.

They make large investments in terminal elevators and warehouses, stockpens, refrigerator cars and other special facilities to handle these products.

They add to his markets by employing and enabling other industries to employ millions of consumers.

They are in the forefront of agricultural development, working to diversify crops, fertilize soils, improve production and marketing.

They pay taxes which build highways, support rural schools and lighten the tax burden of the entire farm population.

The farmer may well regard the railroads as his railroads. They serve him constantly and effectively.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

Chicago, October 1, 1930.

SAYS REVIVAL OF TRADE NEEDS BANKERS' HELP

Time to Encourage, Lonsdale View.

BY O. A. MATHER.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 30.—Pleas to the bankers of the United States to lend their efforts to a revival of prosperity and to approve the principle of branch banking as a means of keeping abreast of modern developments were the high lights in the general sessions of the convention of the American Bankers association.

At the same time a demand for general reduction of taxes, which were classed as one of the chief handicaps to trade and industry, was voiced. And modification of existing federal legislation which hampers industrial combinations was urged.

That betterment in trade and industry has already appeared but needs encouragement was the keynote of the address of President John G. Lonsdale at the first general session in the Cleveland public auditorium. And he joined with R. S. Hecht, chairman of the economic policy committee, in suggesting that the association modify its traditional stand against branch banking.

Signs of Upturn.

"There are signs that business is turning upward," Mr. Lonsdale said. "September has brought considerable increase in credit operations, the public is opening its purse for purchases, additional employés have been placed in many factories, national savings continue to grow and the wheels of trade and industry are picking up speed.

"The rapidity of recovery to some extent is in the hands of the bankers who control the flow of credit. The farmer, the manufacturer, the renter, the property owner, and the merchant all need encouragement. And with that encouragement should start a train of constructive expenditures, which should help to correct the unemployment situation and restore the income of the nation. It should be the primary task of the bankers to lend every encouragement to activities of this nature and to work out practical programs of support."

Mr. Lonsdale asserted that the last year has imposed the greatest adjustment on business and finance that ever have occurred in a similar period. He attributed the seriousness of the recent depression to the fact that agriculture and industry have sought to maintain the abnormal output established as the result of the world war. He called attention to the large exports of agricultural machinery in the last six months, particularly to Russia.

Problem of Agriculture.

"What to do to cure the condition of agriculture has long perplexed our national thinkers," he said. "We have seen our federal government launch its plan calculated to lessen the evils of over production and wasteful methods in marketing and distribution through a federal farm loan board. This action has been attended by some division of opinion, but the board should have every opportunity to demonstrate the value of its policies.

"In the meantime bankers will continue to preach the doctrine of more diversity, more equitable taxation and sounder business management for the farmer, all of which will supplement the work of the farm board. One of the restraints to business progress is mounting taxation. All taxes are too high. Expenditures for public purposes seem everywhere to be increasing at a rate that is discouraging to enterprise and there is a growing belief that tax systems do not spread the cost equitably.

"Another restraint is the Sherman anti-trust law. We seek to organize cooperatives and yet find they meet legal obstacles because of uncertainty as to whether they would be held to be in restraint of trade. Such a system never was intended to be as it is today and changing times call for a careful revision."

Cites Bank Failures.

The chief argument for a liberalization of national banking laws to permit national banks to engage in a limited form of branch banking was made by Mr. Hecht, who is president of the Hibernia Bank and Trust company, New Orleans. He cited the many bank failures in the last few years, the difficulties of the small banks and the growth of group and chain banking as basis for more liberal laws.

"During the last ten years about 5,700 banks have suspended, mostly in the agricultural districts, tying up gross deposits of $1,930,000,000," he said. "Is not the small unit bank operating under present adverse conditions reaching a point where it is unable to stand alone and must be integrated with the banking strength of the nearby financial center?

"We cannot shut our eyes to the fact that alongside of our unit banking system has grown up an important new system of various multiple banking organizations. Group and chain banking on an astonishing scale we already have with us. Branch banking has been only moderately extended but further modification of the laws permitting its extension within somewhat broader lines than now exist inevitably lies ahead.

Says Roads Dictate Joint Rail-Water Freight Rates

BY SCRUTATOR.

For thirty years, more or less, the use of the great lakes, the finest inland waterways in the world, has been denied to shippers in its most valuable form because of a failure to coordinate the rail and water transportation facilities east of Chicago.

Shippers who have large quantities of low value freight to move between points on the lakes find it advantageous to use boats. Rates on such traffic are low compared to what rails charge. But the merchant or manufacturer on the eastern seaboard who might wish to ship by rail and lake to the middle west finds himself confronted with a rate structure that deprives him of the use of the low priced water transport.

There are, of course, provisions in the laws for the making of joint rail and lake rates. The latest regulation was one by the interstate commerce commission in the eastern class rates case, in which it found that rail-lake movements should be made at a total cost about 90 per cent of all rail.

File Petition.

The Chicago Association of Commerce, the Milwaukee Association of Commerce, and the Manitowoc-Two Rivers Traffic league, have just filed a petition requesting reargruments, in which they will show that a larger difference must be established to restore the vigor of water transport as it existed at the end of the nineteenth century.

Unless materially modified, the brief states, the present regulation will "result in the accomplishment of the end originally undertaken by the eastern rail carriers of completely destroying water transportation on the great lakes, insofar as the movement of package freight between Lake Michigan ports and eastern territory is concerned."

The history of the matter included shows that prior to 1901 lake steamship lines were operated in the interest of the public and that rail-lake rates averaged 74.3 per cent of all rail. The differential was enough to attract shippers of merchandise more valuable than the commodities which constitute nearly all lake shipping today—coal and grain.

Drops 40 Per Cent in Six Years.

But in 1901, the Association of Commerce points out, ownership of lake steamship lines by rail carriers brought a change and rail-lake rates became 83.2 per cent of all rail. In six years, as a result, the joint shipments fell 40 per cent while all rail traffic in the eastern territory rose 65 per cent. Just before the United States entered the war there was another change, although the rails had long since officially abandoned ownership of the lake steamship lines, and the rail-lake charges rose to about 90 per cent of all rail level.

Under that, and under the new arrangement already approved, water transport is not attractive and is dying. The petitioners believe it can be made attractive if the differential is increased. The summary of the situation is that regular steamship lines cannot make money because they must allow the railroads to dictate the rates on joint shipments.

Must Charge More.

Practically speaking, the water transport company must charge more than it wants in order to get the rail carriers to join with them at all in joint rates.

Some authorities maintain that railroads should be compelled to allow rates for shipments destined for further water transport that would be equal to their proportion of through rail rates. Special rates now apply on lake cargo coal and the shipper can make any deal he wishes with the boat owner.

An extension of this principle to other commodities and class rates might be more effective than changing percentages on rail-lake shipments.

AMERICAN CAN EXTRA IS BRIGHT SPOT IN FINANCE

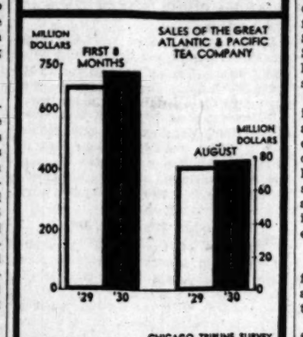
One bright spot in yesterday's gloomy news was the action of the directors of the American Can company in declaring an extra dividend of $1 in addition to the regular quarterly payment of $1.

The action came as something of a surprise as it was generally expected that directors would defer such action until the fourth quarter when such extras are usually authorized.

Daily Average Output of Crude Oil Shows Decline

New York, Sept. 30.—(AP)—The daily average gross crude oil production in the United States decreased 32,000 barrels for the week ended Sept. 27, totaling 2,389,750 barrels, says the weekly summary of the American Petroleum institute.

Atlantic & Pacific Tea Stores Report Continued Increase In Their Sales



IN FISCAL YEAR U. S. TRADE WITH SOVIET TOTALS $177,000,000

New York, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Soviet-American trade amounted during the fiscal year ending today to $177,000,000, 28 per cent greater than ever before, the Amtorg Trading corporation announced. Soviet trade officials said it would increase still more if credit terms were bettered.

There was a slump in soviet purchases here beginning in April but later they increased again and during the last two months orders have been placed aggregating nearly $50,000,000.

The trade for the year just ended was divided $145,000,000 in soviet purchases here and $32,000,000 in sales of soviet products here.

Orders placed by the Amtorg Trading corporation, mostly for machinery, totaled $126,500,000, an increase from $72,230,000 for the previous year.

In announcing these figures Peter A. Bogdanov, chairman of Amtorg, said the "outcry" against soviet exports was entirely unwarranted.

"In 1929-30 soviet-American trade, not including overhead expenses," he said, "resulted in a balance of $113,000,000 in favor of the United States, which is the only important country to sell more goods to the soviet union than it buys.

"As to the accusations of 'dumping,' many wild statements have been made. The soviet union is now in the midst of a large construction program requiring the importation of large quantities of foreign machinery and other products, which must be paid for by exports. In exporting its products abroad, is it not reasonable to assume that the soviet union is desirous of getting as high prices as possible for its grain, manganese, lumber, flax, etc.? As a matter of fact, we sell soviet goods in the United States at prices either equal to or higher than those commanded by domestic products."

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 30.—One of Wall street's young leaders of finance met disaster today when it was announced from the rostrum of the New York Stock exchange that the firm of J. A. Sisto & Co. had been suspended, following its voluntary admission of insolvency.

Joseph A. Sisto, son of an Italian immigrant, friend of Mussolini, and an international banker, head of his own brokerage house at 34 and now only 41, was not present to see the house he founded close its doors. He sailed for Europe several weeks ago and is believed to be in Milan attending an international banking conference.

Refuse Statement.

His partners and counsel for the firm refused to make any statement as to assets or liabilities, or to discuss the cause of the concern's insolvency.

Suspension of the firm an hour before the exchange closed caused a slight flurry in the general list and a decided drop in those issues in which the concern had been an active trader. Cosden Oil company, Parmelee Transportation company, Chicago Pneumatic Tool company; Cuneo Press, Inc.; Hygrade Food Products corporation, and United Electric Service Company of Italy, all of which the Sisto firm had been instrumental in financing and supporting, experienced drops in price. The firm has also been active in promoting Fascist securities in this country.

J. A. Sisto & Co. have been identified with the financing of many well known corporations and sponsored last year an investment trust, known as Sisto Financial corporation, with assets approximating $6,000,000. The bankers purchased 20,000 shares out of the total issue of 100,000 at the time of organization, and about 14,000 in the open market. Their compensation for managing the trust was to amount to 20 per cent of the total earnings above 8 per cent. The company has suffered losses. Stock of the trust broke sharply today to about $10, compared with the price of $53 at which it was issued.

FAILS TO OPEN.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 30.—(AP)—The brokerage house of J. J. Loftus & Co., member of the California Stock exchange and the Chicago Board of Trade, failed to open today. The action was followed with the announcement of its suspension from the exchange membership and suspension of its brokerage license by the state corporation commissioner.

DOMESTIC PRICE OF COPPER CUT TO 30 YEAR LOW

New York, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Custom smelters today reduced the price of copper for domestic delivery one-quarter of a cent to 10 cents a pound, the lowest quotation for the metal in more than 30 years.

Some producers also quoted the metal at 10 cents, compared with the level of 10½ cents at which they had been holding the metal.

New York Savings Banks Cut Interest to 4 Per Cent

New York, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Eleven savings banks of New York have reduced their interest rates on deposits from 4½ to 4 per cent for the October quarter. The announcement, which is being made formally tomorrow, says "the rate of interest which can be paid to depositors necessarily reflects the rate obtainable on investments." Predictions of such a change have been made freely recently because of the declining rates in the money market and informal gatherings have been held to discuss the matter.

How Stocks Stand

Just how drastic the current stock market decline has been is shown by a comparison of the lows touched by representative stocks yesterday with the "bottoms" of the big crash of last October-November. Out of twenty-six issues eighteen are still selling above the 1929 low. Eight are lower.

BY FRED HARVEY.

New York, Sept. 30.—Nearly every oil, railroad, mining, sugar, and leather share listed on the New York stock exchange pounded a new 1930 bottom as the bears unlimbered a fresh battery of their well oiled pile drivers today. Numerous specialties went down with them. All told, about 300 lows were established—the largest number by far since the decline set in about a month ago.

It was one of the most active trading sessions of the year, the turnover going to 4,496,780 shares, the largest since June 18. Also—and more important—it was the broadest market in months. In fact, the list of 892 stocks changing hands was one of the two or three widest since the big crash of last autumn.

Stout Resistance.

Again the old guard pivotals resisted the selling attacks stoutly for the most part but they just managed to escape the common fate of fresh minimums by the skin of their teeth so to speak.

The bears had the field all day and the slaughter in spots was terrific. Central Railroad of New Jersey made the headliner tailspin with a plunge of 24½ points. The ever showy Case Threshing tumbled 8½ points, Worthington Pump was pumped out for another 8 point loss, Allied Chemical and American Sugar Refining dropped 6 points each and a whole Coxey's army of others got snagged to declines of 3, 4, and 5 points.

There were various "bearish" developments of more or less importance to help the selling movement along, chief among them being the news of the suspension of the stock exchange

The Arithmetic of RURAL ELECTRIFICATION

RURAL electrification is a task comparable to that undertaken when the American people set out to provide their thinly settled country with railroads.

The financial magnitude of the task of rural electrification is in keeping with its possibilities of betterment.

The electrification of at least 1,000,000 American farms is now definitely in sight. It will doubtless be accomplished early in the present decade.

Such an extension of electric service requires the construction of at least 333,000 miles of rural electric service lines; a mileage almost double that of the high voltage electric transmission lines built in the last 20 years to connect generating stations and to give service to cities and towns.

The cost of these farm lines alone will exceed $500,000,000. In addition, a vast amount of equipment must be provided in the form of transformers, substations and additional generating capacity.

Power companies will build the lines and provide the equipment, in order that the farmer may be able to buy machinery and appliances for his farm—appointments without which the mere extension of electric service to his home is a futile gesture. To be of real benefit to the farmer, electric power must be used in quantities sufficient either to increase his income or add to his leisure and that of his family. That use necessitates a large amount of equipment.

The general success of farm electrification probably requires an average use of 100 units of electrical energy per month by the farm family. At any rate, the use of that much current would take the service out of the luxury class and so add to farm efficiency as to provide full economic justification for the costs incurred by the farmer.

A million farms would require purchase by farmers of $1,000,000,000 worth of equipment to justify the construction of 333,000 miles of rural electric lines.

The electrification of 1,000,000 farms, then, involves an initial investment of a billion and a half dollars by the electrical industry and the farmers.

The provision of that capital, and the job of intelligently translating it into rural electrification, calls for the closest cooperation of the farmer and the electric industry, and calls for massed financial and engineering ability which the electric light and power investment, or holding company, is alone able to supply.

* * * * *

Provision of power supply to small communities and to rural America on a scale equivalent to the service available in the great metropolitan centers is the achievement and responsibility of the Middle West Utilities System, a group of electric companies furnishing service to more than four thousand communities and to more than fifty thousand farms in thirty states.

The history of empowered agriculture in American industrial development is fully discussed in the booklet, "HARVESTS AND HIGHLINES," which the Middle West Utilities Company (20 North Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois) will send upon request.

G. M. REYNOLDS, BANKER 50 YRS., KEEPS ON THE JOB

George M. Reynolds, chairman of the board of the Continental Illinois Bank and Trust company, Chicago's billion dollar bank, yesterday completed his fiftieth year in the banking business.

This veteran banker, who has seen the city's population double and who has taken a leading part in its amazing growth since the turn of the century, still finds enjoyment in his work.

"There are no hard and fast rules of success," Mr. Reynolds said yesterday. "Each man's problem has its own peculiarities and must be analyzed separately. Every ambitious young man must learn to like his work and be patient, however."

Clerkship His First Job.

The head of the largest financial institution in America outside of New York, himself began as a bank clerk at the monthly wage of $12.50. His first job was with the Guthrie County National bank of Panora, Ia., the town of his birth.

His connection with the bank which he now heads began in 1893 as cashier. He served as president from 1906 until 1921, when he was named chairman of the board.

"I still enjoy my work, although I admit that I do not work as hard now as a few years past," he said. "I tell my friends that I can't afford to give up business altogether, because I like it too much."

And that statement led to another observation on why he does not find it necessary to work as hard as formerly.

"There are at least 20 men in our organization whom I have seen rise from $100 a month men to high salaried executives. That enables me to dodge a good deal of work," he said with a trace of a smile.

Improvement Under Way.

About business depressions Mr. Reynolds is realistic. "Of course, everything now is not as it should be," he said. "It would be foolish for any man to predict when the business lull will end, but we will all wake up some morning and discover that business is good.

"The fact is that while all the worrying is being done business improvement is already under way. I should not be surprised if by the middle of December we would find conditions considerably improved.

"In the meantime it is the person with courage to go ahead that will be in the lead when the country is waking up to the realization that business has gotten better."

"How does one feel when he has completed fifty years in business?" Mr. Reynolds was asked.

Having answered hundreds of similar questions on previous occasions the 65 year old banker replied:

"Well, I will not have completed my fifty years until the day is over, so I feel much like the small boy on Christmas eve when asked if he would enjoy the festivities the next day. If today is a sample of how I will feel tomorrow, however, I look forward to it."

CHICAGO STOCKS HARD PRESSED; CLOSE IS LOWER

Encouraging Behavior Is Shown in Spots.

Grigsby Improves.

Encouraging behavior, however, was shown here and there, despite the lack of resistance of the list generally. Grigsby-Grunow, always one of the active leaders on the Chicago board, improved fractionally from its low for the year and finished at 6⅝ on a turnover of 22,000 shares. In earlier trading it had slipped down to 6. Auburn, another star performer, was pressed down to as low as 90, but recovered to improve itself by a full point at 95.

From the standpoint of trading volume, Middle West Utilities was the center of attraction on 78,300 shares traded. It sank over two points below its previous low for the year and was located at 22 at the end of the day. The utilities suffered the general fate of other sections of the board, with Central and South West also sharing the embarrassment of a new low, slumping 2½ points for the day to rest at 17. Cities Service and Central Public Service A lost 1 and 1⅝ points, respectively, while Commonwealth Edison receded a small fraction. Seaboard Utilities struck a new low at 4⅞, off ⅝.

Trust Issues Decline.

The investment trusts were especially hard hit, with Cord, Corporation Securities, Continental Chicago common, Chicago Corporation, National Security Investment, Insull Utility Investment and Utility and Industrial all being thumped downward to new low marks.

Missouri Kansas Pipe braved the selling tide for a loss of a minor fraction while Majestic Household, on 24,550 shares, was lower by an even point at 18¾.

A statement issued yesterday by the Chicago exchange revealed that the first nine months of 1930 has exceeded any previous similar period in its history. The total was 56,931,300 shares traded so far this year, which represents a 5 per cent increase over the corresponding nine months of the 1929 boom year. The par value of bonds sold on the exchange was $23,859,000 for the nine months, a 520 per cent increase over the $3,837,000 total for the 1929 period. Figures for September were 5,163,200 shares traded, as against 8,884,000 shares for September last year.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 30.—(AP)—In disclosing the condensed statement of its condition as of Sept. 24, in response to the call of the controller of the currency of the United States, the National City bank announced today that it had transferred $20,000,000 from surplush to reserve for contingencies. The step is in line with the policy of the bank during the post-war period of depression, it was said, when $10,000,000 was transferred. Of the latter reserve, $6,609,572 remains, bringing the total reserve for contingencies to $26,609,572.

WITH BOTH FEET FIRMLY ON THE GROUND

Perhaps no more violent swing of the mental pendulum has ever occurred than that which transformed the blind optimism of 1929 into the equally uncalled for pessimism of the latter half of 1930.

A higher percentage of the people are living comfortably and happily in America today than in any other nation, past or present, since the dawn-man first came down to terra firma.

Thankful for that and sure of even better days to come, Commercial Credi is sharpening every tool in the bag and watching business weather signs alertly.

STOCK MARKET SINKS LOWER IN ACTIVE TRADING

firm og J. A. Sisto & Co. for failure to meet their obligations. A further cut in the producer price for export copper which automatically reduced the price for domestic delivery to 10 cents a pound hit the red metals group, and the fresh drop in cotton prices had its effect. Then conditions in the money market were distinctly firmer as a result of heavy withdrawal which forced the call back to 2 per cent from its 1½ per cent level, and there was a veritable cloud of rumors of impending dividend cuts and whatnot to give qualms to faint hearts.

Followers of the oil shares were reminded that competitive conditions in the industry are steadily growing worse in most parts of the country with the Oil Export association virtually closing up shop. Bear propaganda, much of it no doubt, but they do say that all's fair in war as in love and this is war as any victim of the offensive will readily admit.

The market developed some evidence of support in the late trading but such buying as appeared—it was concentrated mainly in the pivotals—was effective in little more tan damning the selling tide. Final prices in a big proportion of cases were around the worst of the day.

American Can was the feature of the near-rally. The fresh popularity of this old line favorite followed the declaration of its extra dividend. Buying for a time was quite vigorous and served to boost the price from a low to 116½ to 117 where it closed—off 3 on the day. Powerful resistance was also developed by United States Steel after it had crashed through its low level of June. Its closing sale was at 155, nearly a point below the low of the day. General Electric, Johns Manville, Consolidated Gas and the rest also improved a bit.

CHEAP SILVER MEANS REDUCED WORLD BUYING POWER

By JOHN HAYS HAMMOND,
Mining Engineer
Washington

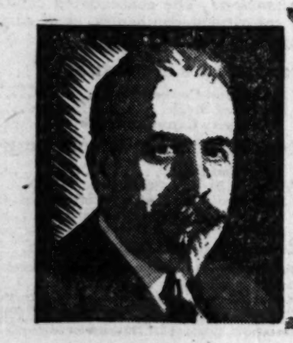
Did cheap silver have an unsung part in the 1930 business depression? Mr. Hammond says "yes." When silver falls to thirty-five cents an ounce the Orient's buying power drops fifty per cent. India and China import less American cotton. Then U. S. grocers, radio dealers, and automobile men make fewer sales.

BIG EVENTS MAKE LITTLE STIR

By C. E. KENNETH MEES,
Director of Research, Eastman Kodak Company,
Rochester

What will historians a hundred years from now pick out as the significant happenings of this generation? Prohibition? Farm relief? Probably it will be something no one is talking about, judging from what history tells Mr. Mees about great developments in the past.

LIGHT HAS BEEN TRAINED TO WORK



By HARRISON E. HOWE,
Editor, Industrial and Chemical Engineering,
Washington

A modest bulb of glass, looking about like a radio tube, enables a ray of light to serve as policeman, traffic checker, sorting clerk, night watchman, or machine attendant as occasion requires. Mr. Howe suggests what this may do to various operating costs of business.

MAKING MEN INTO MERCHANTS

By E. C. SAMS,
President, The J. C. Penney Company,
New York

Are present-day methods of distribution cramping the individual's initiative? Does the man in a giant retail organization have opportunity to think for himself? Mr. Sams declares that a chain organization builds employees into merchandising executives. He quotes from his own observation and experience to prove it.

Outside of your business . . . but part of your policies

You may not sell goods in China. Perhaps you don't use power that crosses state lines. Yet what happens to Oriental silver or to interstate power lines stirs ripples in the economic atmosphere that sooner or later affect problems that you face.

That is one of the outstanding reasons why more than 320,000 business men receive Nation's Business every month. It gives them the "feel" of business-at-large. Through Nation's Business they keep in touch with developments and trends of the X-forces of business — political action, style changes, invention, discovery, economic currents — all those external forces which so vitally affect each organization.

Get Nation's Business at your newsstand, 25 cents a copy. Or have it come regularly to your home or office. A three years' subscription is only $7.50.

WHEAT MARKET OVERSOLD AND PRICES PERK UP

Winnipeg Strength Helps Sustain Advance.

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

An oversold condition was disclosed in the wheat market yesterday, and while there was no leadership on either side, at no time were prices below the finish of the previous day. The close was at intermediate figures, with net gains of ⅛@1c, September being 75c, December 78⅛@78¼c, and May 84⅛@84⅝c.

Strength in Winnipeg, which gained 2¼@2⅝c for the day, helped to sustain the local market, which at one time advanced 2@2⅜c. Short covering was generally regarded as responsible for the advance in foreign markets, although Winnipeg was a seller here at times.

Aside from the fact that the market has had a severe decline of late and liquidation has been extremely heavy, there was nothing in the general run of the news to account for the upturn, although in some quarters there was a disposition to pay attention to reports of rain being needed in both Argentina and Australia. Buenos Aires was strong and closed ⅞@1¼c higher.

Await Export Demand.

Owing to the immense decline which has taken place in wheat prices of late, the December at the low point on Monday showing 35½c under the high of Aug. 6, and a drop of nearly 10c within a week, there was a belief in some quarters that the market had turned for the better, even though it might be hard to maintain rallies for a few days. Dry weather prevails over a good part of the winter wheat belt, and the prospect of a much larger reduction in the acreage than anticipated a while ago, due to the low price and unfavorable soil condition, is having a little effect, especially as feeding is reported as extremely heavy.

There was little improvement in the foreign demand for North American wheat, with sales of 500,000 bu Manitobas. Greece was said to have bought Manitobas because it could secure 90 to 120 days' credit, while Russia was demanding cash.

An increase of 10,356,000 bu in the world's available supply of wheat brought the total up to 423,699,000 bu, compared with 414,998,000 bu last year.

Corn in Strong Close.

The corn market was strong from the start, and with a lack of pressure and commission house buying and short covering, prices advanced readily and closed 1¾@3¾c higher, the latter on September, which went off the board at 85¾@86c. December was 79⅝@79¾c, and May 80⅝@80¾c. Price changes were rapid, as the aggregate trade was not large, and brokers said small orders frequently had considerable effect. September acted tight, with belated shorts covering toward the last.

From the high of Aug. 6 to the low of Monday, December had dropped 23¼c, and with private crop estimates to be given to the trade today, there was less disposition shown to press the selling side. Cash interests refused to follow the full advance in the September, and the basis was 1c lower, with shipping sales of 112,000 bu. Country offerings were larger, with 85,000 bu booked to arrive.

Commission and cash houses were on the buying side of oats, and the market readily absorbed selling by longs and by locals. The close was at net gains of ⅛@1c, with September leading.

BUTTER AND EGGS

Egg futures shot downward at the opening on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange yesterday. November dropping to the year's low of 23¾c again, but recovering on strong buying support to close with a fractional gain. A bearish weekly storage report from the 26 cities was responsible for the early selling drive. November closed at 24¼c, up ¾c. December closed at 24¼c, up ½c. November butter was off under pressure early, but gained at the close to end up ½c at 38c. December was unchanged at 38¼c.

NET FOR AUGUST OF PULLMAN CO. TOTALS $1,224,047

The Pullman company yesterday announced that net earnings, after taxes, for August were $1,224,047. Nea earnings for the same month in 1929 amounted to $1,516,651. The figures are for the Pullman company, which is the carrier subsidiary of Pullman, Inc. They do not include the manufacturing subsidiaries.

August gross was $7,127,744, as compared to $7,926,587 in 1929. Gross for the first eight months of 1930 amounted to $53,013,978, as against $55,872,111 in 1929. Net, after taxes, for the same periods were $4,357,161 in 1930, and $6,736,580 in 1929.

COTTON FINISHES HIGHER

A new low was made on cotton early yesterday with New York October down to 9.97c, the lowest since 1917. During the morning prices moved erratically but in the afternoon active buying by mill interests, who are said to have a good margin of profit to operate on, combined with covering by shorts, was responsible for a sharp advance and a close around the best prices of the day. At the close futures in Chicago were 22 to 26 points higher, in New Orleans, 22 to 27 points higher on the most active months. May, however, showed a gain of 43 points. New York gained 16 to 20 points.

SOVIET TRADE LEADER IN U. S. CONFERS WITH GRAIN PIT COMMITTEE

E. Y. Belitzky, general manager of the All-Russian Textile syndicate, the subsidiary of the soviet government which sold more than seven million bushels of wheat short on the Chicago market in September, was in conference with the business conduct committee of the Board of Trade yesterday.

This meeting marked the presentation of the final evidence that has been collected by the board's committee on business conduct. No announcement concerning the information gleaned from Belitzky was made, and it was understood that Chairman Joseph W. Badenoch of the committee would pass his statements on to the secretary of agriculture before making them public.

EACH CUSTOMER Does Business With Officers of His Choice

THIS bank was established 19 years ago on the principle that banking is an intimate, personal relationship.

It believed then and still believes that the friendly, confidential contact between the customer and the officers of his choice should remain intact, regardless of the growth of the bank and its increasing responsibilities.

Because this basic policy has never changed, the bank has grown and flourished. Its officers, imbued with the direct modern viewpoint, have more than kept pace with the needs of its customers.

We hope this sensible, personal type of banking service is the kind you have been looking for and we shall welcome the opportunity to talk with you about your financial problems.

FIELD'S STORE AT LAKE FOREST TO BE ENLARGED

New Lease Quadruples Its Floor Area.

BY AL CHASE.

Marshall Field & Co., pioneer among the loop department stores in the opening of suburban branches, has been so successful with its Lake Forest establishment that it is to be quadrupled in size through a lease negotiated yesterday. Field's have secured space now occupied by the First National Bank of Lake Forest and the North Shore Gas company, at Market square and Bank lane, for a ten year term.

The new quarters will be occupied probably about March or April of next year. Field's present quarters at Deerpath avenue and Bank lane were opened for business on Sept. 7, 1928. It was immediately successful and within two months it was necessary to acquire additional space. The new quarters will be approximately four times as large as the present Lake Forest store.

Growth Rapid and Consistent.

"The Lake Forest branch has helped fill a long felt want for a community store carrying the quality of merchandise that Lake Forest customers would expect to find in a Marshall Field & Co. store," said Ronald P. Boardman, manager of suburban stores for Field's.

"Opened as an infants' and children's apparel shop, the store has grown rapidly and consistently until the business demanded larger quarters, which we have now provided. With the expansion of floor space the merchandise lines also will be enlarged. Apparel for misses and young women, together with all dress accessories, will be carried, as well as infants', girls' and boys' apparel and accessories. A line of athletic goods for boys also will be carried."

In addition to its Lake Forest branch, Marshall Field & Co., have suburban stores at Evanston and Oak Park.

Chrysler Leases Building.

The Chrysler corporation has leased the seven story fireproof building at the northwest corner of Michigan avenue and 21st street for a term of years at a reported annual rental of $31,000, from D. M. Cummings. Sprague Moore was the only broker in the transaction. The Chrysler corporation will move today from the southwest corner of Michigan and 39th where it has been for the last six years.

The first floor of the building at Michigan and 21st will be for automobile display. Chrysler offices will be on the second floor. The third will be for the parts department. Cars will be stored on the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh. The building is 75x180 and contains approximately 100,000 square feet of floor space.

Richard M. Sayers of Sayers & Co., was a broker in the purchase negotiations for the site of the contemplated nurses' home and training school of St. Luke's hospital told about in this department last Sunday. He represented seven of the eight sellers.

H.C. SPEER & SONS COMPANY
Established 1855
First National Bank Building
Randolph 0820 CHICAGO

Can You Do Better?

In what other company can you buy stock which offers as much as this?

Earned more for its Common Stock in the first six months of this year than in any full year since organization in 1912, with the one exception of 1929.

Due to unusual market condition of past few days, orders placed at once can be executed at approximately 18% per Common share. Listed on New York Curb. Yields over 12%.

The high for 1929 was 83¾ and the high thus far in 1930 was 39¾.

Top yesterday, $8.20; average, $7.30.

Estimated receipts at Chicago today, 9,000 cattle ,19,000 hogs and 19,000 sheep.

Hog receipts exceeded trade requirements again yesterday and reductions of 10@15c were recorded, bringing the top below the $10.00 line and the general average under $9.00 for the first time since early in August. There was a good clearance at the reduction and the market finished firm in spite of an advance estimate of 19,000 for today.

During the last two days shippers bought 16,000 hogs at Chicago. The extreme top dropped to $9.90, while the general average moved down 10c at $8.90, comparing with a top of $11.90 and average of $10.40 at the high point of the season, in August.

While Chicago hog receipts for the month at 525,000 are fourth largest for September in 30 years, the 11 market total at 1,753,000 stands third smallest since 1920. The run at Chicago is about the same as a year ago, while the other ten markets show a decrease of about 230,000 head or more than 15 per cent.

Hog Futures Decline.

Trading in hog futures was more active, but prices dropped 25@35c, December and January contracts selling at the lowest level since Aug. 11. Mediums for December opened at $8.90 and closed at $8.70, while January mediums sold at $9.00. October mediums were being offered at $9.40, but $9.20 was the highest bid at the close. October heavy were bid $9.00.

Light weight steers and yearlings met good demand at strong prices yesterday, while medium and weighty stock moved slowly at weak prices, the big carry over from Monday's dull market swelling available supplies of 1,200@1,500 lb. averages. Few heavy steers sold above $11.00, although one shipment of 38 prime 1,168 lb. averages reached $12.25.

Fifty-eight mixed yearling steers and heifers averaging 856 lbs topped the list at $12.50. Cows and heifers were mostly steady. Calves held firm. Stockers and feeders sold readily at Monday's decline.

Lambs Recover Losses.

The lamb market scored a comeback in face of large receipts yesterday and 25@35c of the recent sharp loss was recovered. Top lambs were raised above the $8.00 line again, choice rangers going to shippers at $8.20 and to packers at $8.10.

City butchers bought sorted natives at $8.10, while larger houses took bulk of the supply at $7.75 with lighter "sorts." Aged sheep and yearlings were scarce and unchanged. Feeding lambs ruled weaker, top black face stock going at $7.00 and good white face feeders at $6.50.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 9,000 cattle, 19,000 hogs and 19,000 sheep, against 9,985 cattle, 18,506 hogs and 24,110 sheep, the previous Wednesday and 7,464 cattle, 19,524 hogs and 26,691 sheep, a year ago.

Are You Protected Against the Carelessness of Others?

You may be the most careful of drivers, but your carefulness cannot protect you against the carelessness of others.

You cannot ward off accidents occurring through the fault of others, but you can make certain that if an accident does occur, you will not suffer a financial loss. The prudent motorist knows that any motor vehicle that is worth protecting against the hazards of fire and theft is worth protecting against the hazards of collision.

Collision insurance protects you from loss arising from damage done to your car. Full collision insurance pays the entire cost of repairs made necessary because of collision with a moving or stationary object. Deductible insurance pays part of the cost. On a $50 deductible policy, for example, you would pay on each aceident, for all damage up to that amount, and the insurance company pays for damage in excess of $50. This means that on an $800 loss you would benefit to the extent of $750.

You get a quick and satisfactory settlement when you place your automobile insurance with the Inter-Insurance Exchange of the Chicago Motor Club. No red tape; no waiting for the decision of a distant "higher up."

Speedy claims service, together with many other features of the policy issued for the protection of members of the club, explain why insurance sales in 1929 amounted to $3,894,706.04.

As a subscriber you share in the cash savings plan. Last year the "exchange" returned $711,332.11 in cash to subscribers.

A few of the services available to members are:

Free mechanical first aid and towing service at any hour of the day or night.

Travel service, which provides you with maps, logs and the most complete and up to the minute advice on road conditions.

Bail bond service, which guarantees your appearance in traffic violation cases where a bond not in excess of $100 is demanded.

Accident prevention work, which seeks to cut accidents, especially among school children, by means of safety posters and by fostering schoolboy patrols.

Home district service, which attends to special conditions around your home, such as seeing to it that refuse is promptly removed.

The MURDER at the VICARAGE

BY AGATHA CHRISTIE

SYNOPSIS.

Mr. Clement is vicar of a country village in England. His wife, Griselda, is nearly twenty years his junior. The vicar's young nephew, Dennis, lives with them.

Col. Protheroe, a pompous parishioner, who makes life miserable for his daughter, Lettice, and his second wife, Anne, is expected at the vicarage at 6:15 one evening. At 5:30 the vicar is called to visit a dying parishioner and leaves word for the colonel that he will be late. On returning at 7 the vicar meets Lawrence Redding, an artist, who is living in a studio on the vicarage grounds, coming out of the house in an agitated state. The day before the artist and Mrs. Protheroe had confessed to him their love for each other. In his study the vicar finds the colonel dead, murdered apparently. No weapon is found. Dr. Haydock is called and he says Protheroe had been dead half an hour and summons the police. The note which the colonel started to write to the vicar is headed 6:20. A clock, overturned when the colonel fell forward, stopped at 6:22, but it was always kept fifteen minutes fast.

Lawrence Redding and Mrs. Protheroe both confess to the murder.

Miss Marple, a near neighbor, saw Anne Protheroe go to the vicarage about 6:15 and then to the studio. She had no place to conceal a weapon. Redding came along shortly after and joined her at the studio. They came out a little later and walked towards the village.

Lawrence and Anne admit they had confessed the crime thinking the other had committed it. Lawrence said he had come back to see the vicar, after leaving Anne, and had found his pistol and thought Anne must have taken it.

Murder by person or persons unknown is the verdict given at the inquest.

A man who represents himself to be Dr. Stone, an archeologist, is thought to be an impostor. His secretary, Gladys Cram, is helping Mrs. Protheroe while Dr. Stone is out of town.

The vicar found an earring of Anne Protheroe's under the desk in his study, and he questions Lettice about it.

INSTALLMENT XXXIX.

SEARCHING FOR A SUITCASE.

"It might be important," I said.

"I'll try and think." She sat there knitting her brows. I have never seen Lettice Protheroe look more charming than she did at that moment. "O, yes," she said suddenly. "She had them on on Thursday. I remember now."

"Thursday," I said slowly, "was the day of the murder. Mrs. Protheroe came to the studio in the garden that day, but if you remember in her evidence she only came as far as the study window, not inside the room."

"Where did you find this?"

"Rolled underneath the desk."

"Then it looks, doesn't it," said Lettice coolly, "as though she hadn't spoken the truth?"

"You mean that she came right in and stood by the desk?"

Here eyes met mine calmly.

"If you want to know," she said calmly, "I never have thought she was speaking the truth."

"And I know you are not, Lettice."

"What do you mean?"

She was startled.

"I mean," I said, "that the last time I saw this earring was on Friday morning when I came up here with Col. Melchett. It was lying with its fellow on your step-mother's dressing table. I actually handled them both."

"O——!" She wavered, then suddenly flung herself sidewise over the arm of her chair and burst into tears. Her short, fair hair hung down almost touching the floor. It was a strange attitude—beautiful and unrestrained.

I let her sob for some moments in silence and then I said very gently:

"Lettice, why did you do it?"

"What?"

"What do you mean?"

"What made you do it? Was it jealousy? Dislike of Anne?"

"I've always disliked Anne—ever since she came queening it here."

"O! O! yes." She pushed the hair back from her face and seemed suddenly to regain complete self-possession. "Yes, you can call it jealousy. I've always disliked Anne—ever since she came queening it here. I put the damned thing under the desk. I hoped it would get her into trouble. It would have done so if you hadn't been such a Nosey Parker, fingering things on dressing tables. Any way, it isn't a clergyman business to go about helping the police."

It was a spiteful childish outburst. I took no notice of it. Indeed, at that moment she seemed a very pathetic child indeed.

Her childish attempt at vengeance against Anne seemed hardly to be taken seriously. I told her so and added that I should return the earring to her and say nothing of the circumstances in which I had found it. She seemed rather touched by that.

"That's nice of you," she said.

She paused a minute and then said, keeping her face averted and evidently choosing her words with care:

"You know, Mr. Clement, I should—I should get Dennis away from here soon, if I were you. I—I think it would be better."

"Dennis?" I raised my eyebrows in slight surprise but with a trace of amusement, too.

"I think it would be better," she added, still in the same awkward manner. "I'm sorry about Dennis. I didn't think he—any way, I'm sorry."

On the way back I proposed to Griselda that we should make a detour and go round by the barrow. I was anxious to see if the police were at work, and if so, what they had found. Griselda, however, had things to do at home, so I was left to make the expedition on my own.

I found Constable Hurst in charge of operations.

"No sign so far, sir," he reported. "And yet it stands to reason that this is the only place for a cache."

His use of the word cache puzzled me for the moment, as he pronounced it catch, but his real meaning occurred to me almost at once.

"Whatimeantersay is, sir, where else could the young woman be going starting into the wood by that path? It leads to Old Hall, and it leads here, and that's about all."

"I suppose," I said, "that Inspector Slack would disdain such a simple course as asking the young lady straight out."

"Anxious not to put the wind up her," said Hurst. "Anything she writes to Stone or he writes to her may throw light on things—once she knows we're on to her, she'd shut up like that."

Like what exactly was left in doubt, but I personally doubted Miss Gladys Cram ever being shut up in the way described. It was impossible to imagine her as other than overflowing with conversation.

"When a man's an h'impostor, you want to know why he's an h'impostor," said Constable Hurst didactically.

"Naturally," I said.

"And the answer is to be found in this here barrow—or else why was he forever messing about with it?"

"A raison d'etre for prowling about," I suggested, but this bit of French was too much for the constable. He revenged himself for not understanding it by saying coldly:

"That's the h'amateur's point of view."

"Any way you haven't found the suitcase," I said.

"We shall, sir. Not a doubt of it."

"I'm not so sure," I said. "I've been thinking. Miss Marple said it was quite a short time before the girl reappeared empty handed. In that case, she wouldn't have had time to get up here and back."

"You can't take any notice of what old ladies say. When they've seen something curious, and are waiting all eager like, why time simply flies to them. And, any way, no lady knows anything about time."

I often wonder why the whole world is so prone to generalize. Generalizations are seldom or ever true and are usually utterly inaccurate. I have a poor sense of time myself (hence the keeping of my clock fast), and Miss Marple, I should say, has a very acute one. Her clocks keep time to the minute and she herself is rigidly punctual on every occasion.

However, I had no intention of arguing with Constable Hurst on the point. I wished him good afternoon and good luck and went on my way.

It was just as I was nearing home that the idea came to me. There was nothing to lead up to it. It just flashed into my brain as a possible solution.

You will remember that on my first search of the path, the day after the murder, I had found the bushes disturbed in a certain place. They proved, or so I thought at the time, to have been disturbed by Lawrence, bent on the same errand as myself.

But I remembered that afterwards he and I together had come upon another faintly marked trail which proved to be that of the inspector. On thinking it over, I distinctly remembered that the first trail [Lawrence's] had been much more noticeable than the second, as though more than one person had been passing that way. And I reflected that that was probably what had drawn Lawrence's attention to it in the first instance. Supposing that it had originally been made by either Dr. Stone or else Miss Cram?

I remembered, or else I imagined remembering, that there had been several withered leaves on broken twigs. If so, the trail could not have been made the afternoon of our search.

I was just approaching the spot in question. I recognized it easily enough and once more forced my way through the bushes.

This time I noticed fresh twigs broken. Some one had passed this way since Lawrence and myself.

I soon came to the place where I had encountered Lawrence. The faint trail, however, persisted further, and I continued to follow it. Suddenly it widened out into a little clearing which showed signs of recent upheaval.

GASOLINE ALLEY—TO BE RESUMED LATER

NO, AVERY, DON'T YOU REMEMBER? THAT'S WHERE WE WENT STRAIGHT AHEAD AND TURNED LEFT LATER.
BUT, AVERY, THERE WASN'T ANY LEFT TURN. WE HAD TO GO STRAIGHT AHEAD AND DOWN A HILL.
WHY THERE WAS A DETOUR SIGN ON THAT ROAD STRAIGHT AHEAD AND WE HAD TO TURN. THERE WERE SOME MILK CANS THERE AND WE MET A HORSE AND BUGGY.
THAT WAS ANOTHER TIME. DON'T YOU REMEMBER WE WENT STRAIGHT AHEAD AND PASSED TWO GIRLS THAT WANTED TO HITCH A RIDE.
AND FARMERS WERE SELLING CHERRY CIDER ALONG THE ROAD.
ANYWAY, WALT, IT DOESN'T MAKE ANY DIFFERENCE. WE GOT INTO PEGHORN JUNCTION SOMEHOW.

Czar of Beauty, $750,000,000 Trade, Sought

Cosmetic Business Called Good as Ever.

New York, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Close to 750 millions a year is expended by American women for the services of beauty shops and the purchase of materials for beautification, Prof. Paul H. Nystrom of Columbia university told the American Beauty congress here today.

B. F. Breslauer, president of the Beauty Industries Manufacturers' association, which is sponsoring the congress, said that the 30 per cent of the feminine population of the United States who patronizes beauty shops had not decreased its expenditures in the financial depression.

The average of $150 a year which these women spend in beauty shops and on cosmetics for home use has not been decreased, he said, "first, because it is not in itself a tremendous sum for them, and, secondly, because they cannot afford to look less attractive at the present time with the need of getting jobs and the competition in holding husbands or sweethearts."

Mr. Breslauer said that it is hoped to get a "very well known doctor" as "czar" for the beauty industry, because of the tieup between beauty and health as emphasized in New York City Health Commissioner Shirley W. Wynne's address to the congress on Monday.

IT'S THE MOVIES' LOSS THAT SHAKESPEARE DIED SO LONG AGO

William Shakespeare could have given cards and spades to the best movie scenario writers in the world today if only he hadn't happened to live a few centuries too soon. Fritz Leiber, head of the Civic Shakespeare society productions, yesterday delivered himself of that opinion in a talk before members of the City Club of Chicago at their noon luncheon.

"Why?" he asked, and answered his own question: "Because his appeal is even more to the eye than it is to the ear. His productions were so planned that if the player of each rôle confines himself merely to the basic, necessary gestures the audience will get the drift of the scene. Perhaps the best example of all is 'Macbeth.' Great poem as it is, if the story were played out on the stage, behind a soundproof glass curtain, without a word being heard by the audience, the story would be vivid in pantomime.

"It is not true that Shakespeare was a highbrow writer. His great appeal was to the public of his day. Because he happened to write in the English that has become classic people today are apt to speak of Shakespeare as educational. He is too broad, too universal, too sincere for that. His art lay in writing about things that are interesting today because he touched every phase of life and made it warm and intimate and artful.

"Then, too, Shakespeare has been made the victim of many people's ambition to be great readers. He has been interpreted in so many ways and so many phases, when all that is necessary to produce good Shakespeare is to be obedient to the writings the bard left behind him."

Rosenwald Fund Will Help Hospital for Mental Hygiene

Announcement was made yesterday by Edwin R. Embree, president of the Julius Rosenwald Fund, that the fund had pledged itself to meet half of any deficit, not more than $17,500, which the Mental Hygiene institute of the Pennsylvania hospital in Philadelphia may incur during its first year of operation.

The institute was founded to bring psychiatric service within the reach of people of modest means. Heretofore, Mr. Embree said, the service was available only to people of wealthier circumstances.

According to Mr. Embree, the institute, recently founded, may reasonably expect to face a deficit during its first year, or experimental stage. For that reason the Rosenwald Fund had made a grant promising to meet half of the deficit up to a certain amount.

Northwestern Medical School 72 Years Old, So It Celebrates

The seventy-second anniversary of the founding of Northwestern university medical school was observed yesterday at a Founders' day celebration on McKinlock campus attended by 500 students of the school and Passavant hospital. Dr. Isaac A. Abt, professor of pediatrics at Northwestern, and head of the pediatric department at Passavant hospital, was the principal speaker.

Dr. Abt reviewed medical history of recent years, particularly as it pertained to medical education in America. Previous to the founding of Northwestern medical school the condition of medical education here was chaotic, he said. This condition was noted by Dr. N. S. Davis 15 years before the founding of the school, and he fought for graded and better circiculums in preliminary education, according to Prof. Abt. Other influential medical men joined his campaign with the result they formed one of the first graded medical colleges in the country, he said.

Cardinal Mundelein's Nephew Is Married at White Plains, N. Y.

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Miss Evelyn Elizabeth Faw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian H. Faw, was married today to Mr. Theodore Eppig, son of Mrs. Margaret Eppig of Rockville Center, L. I., in the Church of St. John the Evangelist here. George Cardinal Mundelein of Chicago, uncle of the bridegroom, officiated. In the chancel were Bishop Hoban of Chicago, who assisted in the ceremony, and many other clergymen, most of whom came from Chicago with the cardinal. The Rev. Patrick J. Hayes of Holy Name cathedral, Chicago, was master of ceremonies.

Mrs. George T. Eppig of Chicago was the matron of honor. Her gown was of brown satin and she wore a hat of brown velvet of Breton shape.

After a trip to Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Eppig will live in Chicago. The bride was graduated last June from Marymount college, Tarrytown. Mr. Eppig is a graduate of St. Francis college of Milwaukee.

Berlin Art Sale Closes with Total About Million

BERLIN, Sept. 30.—(AP)—The sale of art works from the Vienna collection of Dr. Karl Figdor has realized approximately $1,000,000, about the same as the first part of the collection, auctioned in Vienna last spring. Only about half the collection has been sold. The next sale will be held in 1931.

3 Million Asked for St. Luke's Hospital Plan

Addition Home, School for 433 Nurses.

Charles H. Schweppe, president of the board of St. Luke's hospital, yesterday announced the opening of a campaign for $3,000,000 to erect a new unit that will make that institution the largest privately operated hospital in this country. Samuel Insull has accepted the chairmanship of the drive, in which the solicitation of funds will commence at once.

Land acquired for the new building, which will provide new living quarters for 443 nurses, thus releasing three floors in the present building for patients, lies south of the main hospital on Indiana avenue, adjoining Grace Episcopal church. It has a frontage of 270 feet and will include living quarters, with a gymnasium, swimming pool, and roof garden, and the nurses' training school. The structure will be of limestone and red brick and will conform to the architecture of other lake front buildings.

A fifty bed unit for crippled children will be opened in the present living quarters of the student nurses, together with an eighty-one bed unit for part charity patients, greatly increasing the facilities of the hospital.

Michael Reese hospital yesterday announced the opening of two oxygen rooms for the care of patients suffering from pneumonia, heart decompensation and other conditions requiring more than a normal supply of oxygen in the air they breathe. There are only about half a dozen similar chambers in this country, of which two were recently acquired by Passavant hospital. The Michael Reese unit was made possible by a gift of $10,000 from a friend of the hospital.

Whereas most such rooms are built of special materials, the Michael Reese oxygen rooms embody a departure in construction, only regular building materials being employed, thus materially reducing the cost of the chambers. They are airtight, and through the apparatus used can be filled with the necessary amount of air with the correct percentage of oxygen in from three to five minutes.

Although a normal person standing in the rooms would notice no difference in the atmosphere, a patient who is having difficulty in breathing will find relief within half an hour.

Countess of Cathcart Wed 3d Time; Crowd in Streets

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Attired in a black wedding dress of chiffon and lace, a velvet coat and a large black velvet hat, Vera, countess of Cathcart, was married today for the third time.

The new bridegroom was Sir Rowland Hodge, 71 year old millionaire ship owner. Large crowds gathered at the fashionable register offices in Prince's row and the police had to force a passage for the arriving guests. At the completion of the short ceremony the bride was presented with a basket of chrysanthemums and carnations tied with a blue ribbon. The young earl of Cathcart was one of the first to congratulate his mother and the bridegroom's two sons also kissed and congratulated their stepmother. A reception will be held in Grosvenor house and the honeymoon will be spent in Paris and Monte Carlo.

Elizabeth Morrow Starts School for 40 Youngsters

New York, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Forty very small pupils attended the school of Miss Elizabeth Morrow, daughter of Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow and sister of Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, this morning. The ambassador, who was reported to be coming from Washington to attend the opening of "the little school" in Englewood, was not present, nor were other members of the family. Miss Morrow welcomed her charges, who range from one and a half to five and a half years in age, introduced them to each other and to their teacher, let them romp a while and then dismissed the school until tomorrow.

The school is to be run on strictly modern educational principles. Six assistants will help Miss Morrow with her young charges.

Editors' Hall of Fame to Be Dedicated Nov. 21

Urbana, Ill., Sept. 30.—(AP)—John H. Finley, editor of the New York Times, will be one of the speakers at the dedication of the Illinois editors' hall of fame at the University of Illinois Nov. 21, it was announced today.

THE STAGE

WALKER WHITESIDE, last seen in Chicago three years ago in "The Arabian," will begin an engagement at the Studebaker theater Oct. 13 in a play called "The Chinese Bungalow," which had a career in London when staged by Matheson Lang. Marion Osmond and James Corbett are the authors.

Of recent years Mr. Whiteside, whose stardom began a quarter of a century ago when he was a boy Hamlet, has specialized in European orientals, educated at Oxford, who have declared a feud against the British empire. He will continue to hew to this line in "A Chinese Bungalow." The story is placed in the jungles of Malaya, where the slant eyed trickster, Yuan Sing, has an ornate den. Mr. Whiteside's company will include [Miss] Franc Hale, Helen Tucker, Florence Hedges, Gilbert Douglas, Cledge Roberts, and Donald Willson.

The Dramatic league of Chicago, which opens its season at the Princess theater next Monday with "Topaze," announces that whenever its subscribers find that their ticket reservations conflict with their subscriptions to the Theater guild, the seats may be changed for another night. It also extends this privilege to conflicts with subscription reservations for performances of the Civic opera, the Goodman theater repertory, and any of the several evening concerts by visiting symphony orchestras.

This is a helpful bit of coöperation, proving that the drama of the "organized audience" does not intend to burden itself with the cut throat rivalry of old school showmen. . . . The league also sent out word that Frank Morgan is being "starred" in "Topaze" because of his fit in New York as the French schoolmaster whose name gives this Parisian comedy its title.

George Jessel, rehearsing as featured comedian of a new Broadway revue called "Corned Beef and Roses," threw down his part and walked out of the theater yesterday, according to a New York dispatch. He declared that to appear in certain skits by Peter Arno would be inviting arrest for participation in an indecent performance.

Billy Ross, the producer [husband of Fanny Brice, another leader of the "Corned Beef and Roses cast] threatened legal action; but Mr. Jessel, expressing an acute distaste for a night in jail, laughingly darted out of the stage door. He had already conferred with Frank Gillmore, head of the Actors' Equity association, and had received a reassuring ruling on the legal aspects of the matter.

The Theater guild is responding nobly to the cry from some quarters for more American plays on its schedules. It has just acquired a comedy called "The Party," dealing with an alleged species of American business men who urge their wives to be nice to their customers. This, incidentally, is the theme of A. A. Milne's "Ariadne"—if that bit of British fluff may be said to have a theme. . . . Dawn Powell wrote "The Party." She also writes fiction.

"Hotel Universe," a play by Philip Barry which was staged by the Theater guild in New York last spring, has been selected for the second production in the new repertory of the Goodman theater. "The Tidings Brought to Mary," by Paul Claudel, former French ambassador to the United States, will be the third. "The Seagull," by Tchekhov, and "The Nightingale," by Julian Thompson, will follow.

The three other plays to complete the season will be chosen from the following six: "The Chalked Circle," by Klabund; "Tabloid," by Roy Chanslor and Harry Paynter; "Linda," by Adelaide Chatfield-Taylor; "Hassan," by Elroy Flecker; "Milestones," by Edward Knoblock and Arnold Bennett, and "Jane Clegg," by St. John Ervine.

$225,000,000 RADIO PALACE PREDICTED FOR NEW YORK CITY

Cleveland, O., Sept. 30.—(AP)—A great radio center costing a quarter of a billion dollars, contained in a 64 story building which will cover three blocks one way and one block another in the heart of New York City will be completed in a few years, Merlin H. Aylesworth, president of the National Broadcasting company, said today.

He addressed the convention of the American Bankers' association on the radio as a "great unifying force of the world."

In the radio center there will be 20 radio studios, several larger than theaters, all equipped with television, and all equipped for taking pictures in the studio for the film, Aylesworth said. "I see a theater with from 6,000 to 8,000 seats, greater than the National Music hall, holding the greatest entertainment in the world," Aylesworth said.

U. of C. Planning for $6,000,000 New Library

Project Told to Group of Oxford Experts.

Plans for a new $6,000,000 library [illegible] the Midway were revealed yesterday by Dr. M. L. Raney, director of libraries at the University of Chicago, on the occasion of the visit of members of the Bodleian library commission Oxford, England, who have been brought to the United States by the Rockefeller foundation to study American libraries.

While plans are still in the formative stage, Dr. Raney said that the project already has been approved by a committee of the board of trustees of the university as well as by the university board of libraries.

The project, which would unite under one roof the various libraries groups now scattered over the campus, is to center on a tower 180 feet in height and 100 by 150 feet at the base, with two wings, each 90 by 150 feet.

The name, which has been tentatively chosen, for the new institution is the Humanities library, and it is to have a capacity of more than 6,000,000 volumes.

Reading rooms on the third floor of each wing are to have a capacity for 1,700 persons, compared to the present 360. The project includes the razing of the old Haskell museum and the erection of the library building on the Haskell tract.

The members of the British commission, who were welcomed to the university by Vice President Frederic H. Woodward, are: Sir Henry Miers, chairman; Sir Frederick Kenyon, director of the British museum; Henry R. F. Harrod, William W. Bishop, Kenneth Sisam, Sir Edwin K. Chambers, and George M. Clark.

They were accompanied by Dr. William Munthe, librarian of the Royal University library at Oslo, Norway, and Holger Sinding-Larsen, architect.

The purpose of the visit of the distinguished European scholars is to obtain data preparatory to the formulation of plans for the rebuilding of the world famous Bodleian library.

The Bodleian library, containing thousands of priceless manuscripts and rare volumes which may be seen nowhere else in the world, was founded in 1602 by Sir Thomas Bodley with 2,000 volumes. It is entitled by law to receive a copy of every copyright book published in the United Kingdom.

However, the indexing systems devised centuries ago and still in use make the vast treasure house of information difficult of access to the public and it is for this reason that the commission is studying American methods preparatory to the rebuilding at Bodleian.

The delegation left Chicago last night for the University of Illinois, where they will continue their study today.

Berlin Will Be Host to World's Museum Officials

BERLIN, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Berlin will be host tomorrow to a gathering of directors of famous art galleries and art connoisseurs.

The one hundredth anniversary of the Prussian State museum furnishes the occasion for two days of festivities in the course of which three new museum buildings will be dedicated on what is known as "Museum island." A ceremony in the auditorium of the university, a gala opera performance, and a reception in the downtown castles, in the course of which three new tle formerly inhabited by William II, are other features of the program. Three Americans are among the honor guests. They are George G. Heye and Dr. Bruno Oetteking, secretary and curator respectively of the Museum of the American Indian, and Albert Rothbart, all of New York City.

Methodists' Rock River Parley Starts Tomorrow

A reception to members of the Rock River conference was held last night at the First Methodist church in Wilmette, marking the formal opening of the conference there tomorrow. The conference will last through Monday. More than 350 ministers from Chicago and northern Illinois are expected to attend. Among those who greeted the clergymen last night were Raymond Kimball, chairman of the reception committee; C. H. Jackson, village attorney of Wilmette; Dr. George Allison, pastor of the Wilmette Baptist church, and president of the Wilmette Ministers' association, and Luther W. Benson, representing the First Methodist church.

Parents Want Girl to Marry Money, But She Rebels

BY DORIS BLAKE.

"I am 20 and above the average girl, as to financial means. I am engaged to marry a young man to whom my family objects on the sole score that he is not wealthy. He makes a fairly good salary and has a fine character and personality. My parents admit that.

"I've known him for a year and a half and during that time was not allowed to bring him home until recently, but I used to see him without my parents' knowledge.

"If my parents would have any other reason beside money I would try to see their point of view, but they admire his qualities and frankly admit them, yet say point blank they want me to marry money.

"I am thinking seriously of taking my money and opening a dress shop. It will require that I give up most of the things I am accustomed to, but there will be some goal ahead of me.

"UNHAPPY."

Forget the dressmaking shop, Unhappy, and marry your man. If you can forego the luxuries you've been accustomed to for a shop career you can better forego them for a man who will make a better career for you than you can ever make for yourself.

There is no reason on earth why a daughter should subscribe to the law of obedience when the parental rulings are based on a money consideration. If a young man has character and personality and has love to offer you there isn't any greater wealth to set up marriage on.

It's all right for parents to attempt to restrain marriage with a moneyless youth, without prospects and of irresponsible character. It would be only human to save a child from the misfortune that accrues from such a blind love step. But this materialistic attitude of parents, growing commoner all the time, has no scheme in the affairs of love and family building, or good citizenship.

Besides how can parents know if the girl will marry money, or if in marrying it another stock market crash might not come along and wipe out the man's redeeming virtue?

Party to Aid Convent.

The annual card party for the benefit of the Convent of the Cenacle is to take place on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Edgewater Beach hotel. Members of the committee include Mrs. Britton I. Budd, Mrs. James A. Bremner.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

Temperamental Miss.

"Dear Miss Blake: I made four appointments with a girl but she didn't show up at any of them. What do you think of her? DOMINICK."

I don't think she had any intention of keeping them.

Tactless Girl Friend.

"Dear Miss Blake: My girl friend talks mostly of her other boy friends. Should I seek other companions?" CONCEITED BILL."

If I were you, I would, Bill.

Bobs Aren't What They Used to Be in Boyish Era

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

If you ask around in beauty parlors about the popular hair length you are told that women are still fairly chummy with the shears. During the hot spell a good deal of conviction could be put into the answer. Women did appear in heavier numbers, requesting again deliverance from the trials of long or growing hair. BUT—

You cannot be exactly convinced that we aren't on the way for a more evenly registered long-hair following. Not long, understand, in the manner of the pre-bob era, but long enough to give the illusion of a womanly dressed head.

The hat sizes are a little larger, I find on inquiry. They are, nevertheless, not comfortably expansive for the heavy head of hair. So that until hoops and bustles threaten us we can be fairly assured that the contour bob, which means a bob that doesn't look anything like its paw-or-maw bob of a few seasons back, is a safe bet. The nearer you can come to making your hair look as if it had graduated into a more decorous, ladylike top piece than a bob, the safer you are. A few extra inches may be required on the sides for the hair ends to meet at the back or on one side.

The hair should be softly molded to the head, with the nice shape of head showing, if you have one. If not the possessor of an attractive skull and bone silhouette, your hairdresser supplies for you the needed shape with his clever cutting of the underneath layers of hair. Those who have been complaining about the discomforts of the in-between stage can do clever things with the hair if it has gained more than an inch or two. There's no point longer in letting the locks trail to shoulder length.

In a recent conclave of style setters in coiffures, the windblown bob was voted out; also the pointed or rounded neck lines, the shoulder touching bob, bangs and ringlets. Now the thing to do is to practice or be practiced on for a line of hair arrangement that makes you look more like a nice, grownup girl ready for her first proposal, and very conscious of being grown up.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

M. L.: MILD EXERCISE IS INeffective for thick ankles and legs. It must be done vigorously and systematically. I have a leaflet which illustrates a half dozen exercises for the purpose. It may be had for a stamped, addressed envelope.

R. B.: EXERCISE WILL NOT correct bowed legs. An operation is necessary.

Gov. Kohler to Speak.

Gov. Walter J. Kohler of Wisconsin will address members of the Chicago Association of Commerce this noon at a luncheon in the Hotel La Salle. Col. Fred Pabst will be a guest of honor. "The Dairy Industry of Five Central States" is to be the subject of Gov. Kohler's address and of the subsequent discussion.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—New York society is to entertain Sir Philip Sassoon, who is expected to arrive in this country tomorrow on the Europa. He was retired as a major in the Royal East Kent Yeomanry. During the world war he served as secretary to Sir Douglas Haig, commander of the British armies in France.

An engagement of international interest announced today is that of Miss Barbara Schieffelin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jay Scheiffelin, to Mr. Charles Ian Carr Bosanquet of Rock Moor, Alnwick, Northumberland, England.

Miss Schieffelin is a member of the Vanderbilt family, her mother being the former Miss M. Louise Shepard, daughter of Mr. Elliott F. Shepard and Mrs. Shepard, the former Miss Margaret Louisa Vanderbilt, a direct descendant of Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt.

October Brings Families from Country Houses

BY THALIA

The first of October, moving day, and the summer residents of the north shore are coming into town to establish themselves for the winter season.

The Charles Wesley Dempsters of 269 Lake Shore drive, who have occupied the Laurence O Wilson house in Lake Forest this summer, already are in their apartment. Others are the Morris L Johnstons of 1520 State parkway and the John L. Seniors of 239 Lake Shore drive, who have been in the David Danglers' Lake Forest house during the summer months.

The Gustavus F. Swift apartment at 1551 Astor street has been opened, although the Swifts are planning to spend most of their week-ends at their Lake Bluff place until the snow flies.

The Samuel T. Chases are moving in any day now to be at the Whitehall for the winter. Their daughter, Libby, says she will stay out in Lake Forest as long as she possibly can to keep on with her riding classes. The Tiffany Blakes soon will be in their new apartment at 1301 Astor street, Mrs. Blake having been busy this last month or so, supervising the finishing touches, and the John Bordens will be occupying the pent house on the Ambassador East in a few days.

The Raymond C. Dudleys, who have had a house in Lake Forest this summer, will return to their apartment at 179 Lake Shore drive in about two weeks. Their daughter, Lillian, has already returned for her senior year at Smith college, but arrives in Chicago today to be here for Isabel Greenlee's wedding on Saturday to John Farran.

The John V. Farwells and the A. A. Carpenters are planning to remain at their respective Lake Forest places until the first week in November. Mr. and Mrs. Farwell are departing today for a fortnight's motor trip through the east, and will remain at "Ardleigh" in Lake Forest for another two weeks before coming in town.

Invitations are to be in today's mail for the St. Luke's fashion show, to take place on Oct. 21 at the Stevens hotel. There will be two showings, one at 3 o'clock with afternoon tea, and the evening dinner dance at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Dorothy Wegener, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bruce Wegener of 2440 Lake View avenue, has chosen Monday, Oct. 20, for her marriage to Bennet Botsford Harvey, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hatfield Harvey of 340 Barry avenue. The wedding is to be a small one and will take place at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the Fortnightly, with a reception following. Mrs. Daniel Peterkin Jr., the former Miss Bessie Shaw, is to be Miss Wegener's matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Mr. Harvey's sisters, Mrs. Charles G. Le Forgee and Miss Roberta Harvey.

William MacMillan Lewis of St. Louis is to serve Mr. Harvey as best man, and the ushers include Charles G. Le Forgee, John Duncan of New York City, John Clark, and Samuel Clark Jr. of Merion, Pa. All of Mr. Harvey's groomsmen except Mr. Le Forgee, his brother-in-law, were his classmates at Princeton.

The Chicago and Evanston Wells College clubs are to hold a luncheon at the Union League club next Monday for Mrs. Charles Kirkland Roys, dean of the college, and Miss Pauline Jones of Youngstown, O., president of the Wells College Alumnæ association. Mrs. C. A. Bunnell is president of the Evanston group and Miss Alice Barler of the Chicago club. Mrs. Sidney Y. Ball of Winnetka and Albert Koch are members of the board of trustees of the college.

The Arts club is having a tea this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock to formally open the clubrooms for the winter season.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Leslie Behr have as their guest Mr. Behr's sister, Mrs. Theodore Gale Barstow of St. Louis, Mo. She came to Chicago to see her niece, Miss Edith Behr, before the latter sailed last week for Miss Risser's in Rome. Mrs. Wallace D. Simmons of St. Louis is also a guest of the Behrs, and John J. O'Fallon has returned to St. Louis after attending a house party Miss Edith gave before her departure.

Mrs. George R. Nichols Jr. has closed her house at Watch Hill and is in New York for a few days before returning to Chicago.

Mrs. Robert B. Gregory of 1638 Prairie avenue returned last Saturday after eight months of travel abroad. She dined with Queen Marie of Rumania, conferred with Aziz Pasha in Turkey, dined with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, and was the guest of other interesting personages. Mrs. Gregory is chairman of the Chicago committee on arrangements for the National council meeting of the Girls' Friendly society, to be held at the Hotel La Salle the week of Oct. 14.

Landon C. Rose of the University club was in London, staying at the Savoy hotel the middle of September.

Priest Attacks Birth Control Before Women

Denver, Colo., Sept. 30.—(AP)—The Rev. William A. Bolger, vice president of the College of St. Thomas, St. Paul, Minn., tonight characterized birth control as "one of the greatest menaces of all time to the spiritual life of families and nations."

Speaking before the annual convention of the National Council of Catholic Women, Father Bolger said that when members of the medical profession, leading lawyers and judges, writers of textbooks on economics, political and sociology and "great bodies of Protestant ministers advocate birth control, it has put elementary human decency in grave danger of being overpowered by elementary sensuality."

The speaker referred to advocates of birth control as "perfect examples of zealous modern reformers who advocate programs in utter ignorance of the principles on which those programs are logically based."

Father Bolger cited what he termed three violently anti-social and necessary implications to the birth control principle.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Vice President Curtis, accompanied by his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Gann, with whom he makes his home, will be established tomorrow in the apartment at the Mayflower which they occupied last winter. They have been in the Gann home in Cleveland Park throughout the summer.

The Curtis apartment is the largest one ever leased to one family here until Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Doherty of New York leased a much larger one at the Mayflower for this season, in which they will present Mrs. Doherty's daughter, Miss Helen Lee Eames-Doherty, to society in December.

Mrs. Eleanor Patterson was the guest of honor of the Women's National Press club at the weekly luncheon today at the Willard hotel. The club had the largest number of reservations since last season, when Representative Ruth Hanna McCormick and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, wife of the speaker of the house, were the honor guests. Mrs. Patterson made a short and effective speech.

Mrs. George T. Marye, wife of a former American ambassador to Russia, has returned to their Washington home from Newport, where they spent the summer.

PATTERNS BY CLOTILDE

[Registered U. S. Patent Office.]

GIRL'S DRESS.

This smart school frock shows scalloped tabs centered with buttons on the circular flaring skirt. The belt passes beneath the tabs, and is tied in a bow at the back. Scalloped Peter Pan collar and flared cuffs finish this attractive dress. Soft woolens in tweed mixtures, crêpe, jersey, and challis prints can be used, and with a ribbon belt of a contrasting color the dress will be pretty and girlish.

The pattern, 2670, comes in sizes 8, 10, 12, and 14 years. Size 8 requires 2 yards of 39 inch material with ¼ yard of 35 inch contrasting and 1 yard of 1 inch wide ribbon.

Chicago Scenes Among Displays at Art Shows

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

The Chicago Galleries association, 220 North Michigan avenue, opens its doors today in honor of its first exhibition of this season. Landscapes in oil from Brown county and Texas are the work of L. O. Griffith. Tunis Ponsen is showing a group of paintings concerned with New England and Holland. Richard A. Chase offers fifty water color paintings of Chicago.

Another first occasion today is the opening at the Art Institute of the Needlework and Textile Guild meetings. The class in needlework will begin next Monday. Miss Josephine M. Christie of the Royal School of Needlework, London, will be the instructor. Miss Christie is a graduate of the school and will teach all kinds of English needlework and Italian as well.

Miss Viola Norman, a graduate of the Art institute art school and later an assistant instructor in modeling, is opening a studio school next Monday at 1011 Auditorium Tower. She calls it the "Chicago School of Sculpture." Miss Norman has been connected for several years with the National Academy of Art and her pupils have won various and numerous honors. She, herself is noted as a sculptor and a recent attractive example of her work was the modeling of Mrs. Calvin Coolidge's pet chow dog. Miss Norman has studied with Polasek and Mestrovic.

Malcolm Franklin, manager of the Carson, Pirie, Scott galleries, is just home from a summer abroad in the course of which he picked up an unusually excellent collection of old English prints and aquatints. These are of hunting and other subjects. An exhibit of them is promised for later in the year.

News just received from Washington by the Art institute indicates that Chicago has been made a port of entry for antique furniture.

CORNS
Callouses Go Too

The safest and real modern way to remove corns, root and all—out to stay is soak them every night for 3 or 4 nights in an invigorating, stimulating Radox Footbath.

Then put on modish shoes again, walk and dance with greatest comfort because there's nothing left to ache. No pain, no trouble.

Radox liberates oxygen which softens hard outer layer of corn, each night penetrating further and further thru the pores, carrying the salts to actual root of corn, so loosening it that it comes right out. Nothing like healthy, free from corn feet to assure happy days! Get a package of Radox at any drugstore.

Charity Fund of $750,000 Asked by 'Army'

Public recognition of the needs of the city's thousands of unfortunates is reflected in an unusually keen response to the annual home service charity appeal of the Salvation Army, according to reports made yesterday at a luncheon meeting of group chairmen. Checks ranging from $100 to $5,000 were turned in at the luncheon bringing the total amount collected since the drive started ten days ago to $55,725.

The goal sought this year is $750,000. About 50 per cent of that is expected to be raised among the many industrial plants in this region. The rest, estimated at $379,491, must be contributed by the general public. That the full amount will be raised was the prediction of George F. Nixon, general chairman of the campaign.

"With the Salvation Army's annual charity appeal but ten days under way, it would appear that the pride of Chicago citizens is more keen than ever," he said.

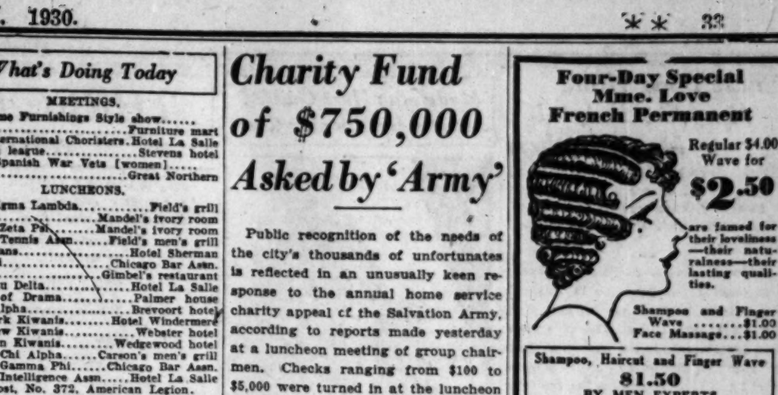
AND THE SOPHISTICATE CHOOSES PRIMROSE BEIGE



Your skin is darkest in the fall and if you would have that natural finish, never use a very light powder unless you want to imitate the leopard. Light shades make the skin spotty. Extra dark powder ages and hardens the face. The ideal powder blends with the skin itself, bringing out all the natural light and color. It is so dreamily light in texture that it actually becomes a part of the skin. It never cakes or clogs but it clings beautifully. A luxury? Perhaps. But you can easily prove its worth by trying a dollar's worth of this $3 powder.

At all better class drug and department stores, in boxes, $1 and $3. Primrose House, 595 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

These Food Hints May Be Helpful to Many Mothers

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

A booklet on sex education will be sent by Mrs. Bevans on receipt of a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Of course, cooking and physical care are outside our province in this column—both because we haven't time for everything, and also because there are departments in the paper for those very things. But every once in a while first hand experience provides me with such a helpful hint that it seems too bad not to pass it on.

For the children who have a sweet tooth—and this taste varies in children just as other tastes do—the suggestion is usually made that they have access to the natural sweets—dates, figs, honey, etc. Children can get into the habit of enjoying these instead of candy a great deal of the time.

But a great deal of advice is always available for the child who loves sweets. What I wanted to mention especially were hints for the child who has not a sweet tooth. There are children whose food is so balanced or whose individuality of assimilation is such that they do not often crave sweets. Or who, when they do, crave them with that tart taste.

One child I know quite well, who has a splendid taste for almost everything in the way of food, has never been able to enjoy prunes—in fact, could scarcely eat them. One day his mother had an inspiration. She bought some of those fine, tart, Oregon prunes. She put them over in lots of water and cooked them down slowly without sugar as she does other prunes, until the juice was nearly gone. She cooked them uncovered, too, which made them firm and wrinkled—not soft and slippy. In fact, they were so solid they could be eaten in the fingers like candy, and the juice taken separately. They made a great hit. Now, tart Oregon prunes are added to an already excellent eating list.

Cooked fruits were required in this child's diet, so apples had to be included. Apple sauce was another hard nut to crack, until almost no sugar was added to it, and it was strained so it had a smooth consistency. Only tart real greenings were used for the purpose—never pippins which are lumpy, or sweet apples. Now, there is a decided liking for apple sauce.

Many children dislike eggs. By not forcing but offering them occasionally in different forms, this child's taste for eggs is gradually developing. Many doctors permit hard cooked eggs. Properly cooked, even the hard white is not indigestible.

An excellent plan is to give a child a vacation from the vegetable he has grown tired of. Omit it for weeks, if necessary, until the taste for it comes back. I've seen this done with a child who likes every vegetable that comes to the table. Variety either in actual preparation or in the manner of serving helps, too—like putting carrots through the ricer, for instance, or serving the "liquor" from squash in bouillon cups and calling it clam broth [which, surprisingly enough, it tastes like].

A helpful hint from one who never has had a "little eating problem" is, "Don't expect your children to like absolutely everything. Give them a little reasonable latitude. You don't like every food served in every way every day in the week, yourself."

Madeleine Uses Quilted Satin for Evening Coat

BY BETTINA BEDWELL.

PARIS.—[Special Correspondence.]—The quilted brocades that make many of the sumptuous evening coats with which we will warm and decorate ourselves this winter are only one symptom of the Paris fever for raised, patterned surfaces. One color, patterned fabrics are everywhere.

The cloky jersies that some of you may remember have been revived and made in new, intriguing designs for daytime wear. Jacquard silks, brocaded velvets, and mousselines make many of the smartest afternoon ensembles. Many of the all-over embroidered fabrics so popular in the new mode have their designs set off by quilted backgrounds. Even the most diaphanous evening frocks—mousseline and chiffon—are sometimes covered with quilted patterns picked out with crystal beads.

Madeleine uses an original combination of quilting and embroidery to make the formal evening coat sketched above. Quilted orange satin has large roses of silver lace appliqued and embroidered on at the edges in an all-over design. This coat is fitted in the back by means of narrow gores that turn into box plaits from the knee line to the hem, which trails a little on the floor in the back.

Its huge leg o' mutton sleeves are set into wide armholes and taper down toward the wrists. The high crush collar of black dyed taupe, which is one of the fashionable furs of the moment, extends inside of the coat in the front to the cut away hem, adding extra warmth and completing one of the most luxurious garments I've seen this season.

FARM AND GARDEN

TO RESTORE LAWNS.

Drought throughout the middle west has left many lawnmakers wondering what can be done to bring back a lawn to the verdant green color and velvet appearance which was characteristic this spring. Reasons for the present burned condition and suggestions for care at present so that the lawn will regain strength enough to survive without winter killing are offered by plant physiologists.

They explain that roots of plants always seek the level of moisture in the soil. With the light rains and the system of artificial surface watering common on many lawns where some sprinkling was done this summer, the moisture failed to penetrate deeply, the grass roots came to the surface for water and at present are in shallow soil, thin and in a weakened condition. Heaving of the soil, a condition produced by the alternate freezing and thawing of the ground will tend to break these roots and kill the grass this winter.

To prevent this, it is advisable to obtain as vigorous a growth before winter prevents further development. Top dressings of many kinds are good. Fertilizers which stimulate quickly and are easily applied can be used at the rate of about four pounds for every 100 square feet, soaking well into the soil after applying.

Setting up the lawn mower so that in trimming the grass will not be cut closer than one and one-half to two inches is best in the fall. The plant food application need not be a laborious job, as it should not take more time than it usually does to water the lawn. Feeding of the grass not only will provide a reasonable growth to withstand winter, but there usually will be more plant food available in the spring when the grass again starts to grow.

Not even our thinnest friends would mind losing an ounce of weight. But not one of them can afford to lose even one-fiftieth of his amount of body iron. A normal individual has scarcely one-tenth of an ounce of iron in his body and must be careful to maintain it by supplying a sufficiency in the way of food.

Iron, even though it is present in such a small amount, has many important functions to care for. It stands in the closest possible relation to the fundamental processes of nutrition. The millions of red corpuscles in the blood owe their color to the iron bearing hemoglobin which is active in carrying oxygen from the lungs to the smallest and innermost cells of every organ and tissue, and carbon dioxide from these organs and tissues to the lungs where it is exhaled. In the active cells of the body we find that iron is an essential part of the cell structure and functions as a stimulation to the vital processes of the cell.

In spite of the fact that iron is so important in vital processes there is little reserve store in the body. Besides this the amount found in various foods is also relatively small. Therefore, we must be careful to consume daily an adequate supply of foods rich in iron.

Leafy green vegetables, fruits, egg yolk and liver are the best sources of iron in the diet. A person who eats an abundance of fruits and vegetables need not fear the bugaboo of inadequate iron—anemia, both pernicious and secondary. In today's menu spinach is making the biggest contribution of iron. An ordinary serving of spinach [½ cup] furnishes more than one-fifth the daily amount of iron required for the adult, which is 0.015 gran.

GUESSWORK ELIMINATED IN SELECTION OF CORRECT FACE POWDER

"Find Out Skin Type and Rest Is Easy," Say Beauty Experts

American women have been quick to realize the many advantages resulting from the selection of the proper face powder. Now that it is a well-known fact that all skin is either oily, dry or normal, women find it easy to choose a face powder that best agrees with their own skin.

That's why more and more women are constantly changing to one of Plough's Three Face Powders. When you choose yours you will be overjoyed at the sparkling, new beauty it brings your complexion. You'll thrill over its smooth, even texture ....its lingering fragrance....its long clinging freshness....and you only have to try it once to see the difference between one of these specially-prepared powders and ordinary face powders.

FOR OILY SKIN—Choose heavy texture, Plough's "Incense of Flowers" Face Powder in the oval box—75c.

Extravagance is out of date! Nowadays "it's smart to be thrifty." As more and more women are realising this, they are choosing one of Plough's 3 Face Powders. Not only because these modern powders are bringing greater beauty to their skins; but because of the economy afforded by finest quality at a sensible price.

A DOCTOR'S Advice for Stubborn BOWELS

"DRINK at least six glasses of water daily — preferably before meals. Eat bulkier foods, such as vegetables, fruits and coarse breads. Use a mild laxative as needed."

That is Dr. Caldwell's advice to people with stubborn bowels. He specialized on the bowels; treated thousands for constipation and its ills. The prescription he used over and over has become the world's most popular laxative! "Syrup Pepsin," as it is now called, was tested by over 47 years of practice.

Today you can get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drugstore in America. It is always the same; made exactly according to the original prescription, from laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other valuable ingredients. Nothing in it to harm even a baby. It does not gripe, sicken or cause any discomfort. But it moves the bowels; it gets rid of all the souring waste which clogs the system and makes you headachy, gassy, bloated, weak, bilious. A doctor should know just what is best for the bowels. Syrup Pepsin is a famous doctor's choice of a safe, pleasant, effective laxative for men, women, older folks, and children.

William M. Anderson and Company

Pioneers and Developers of Chicago's Poultry Area.

Rounding out four years of leadership and pioneering in poultry colonization, THE ANDERSON PLAN now offers the Sales Fraternity of Chicago an opportunity to get in on the ground floor of what will be the leading sales deal in Chicago for many months to come.

The Anderson Plan

has already blazed the trail of Poultry Income Homes and has positive knowledge of actual dollars paid to its purchasers.

Now,

our unique nonresident income plan gives our purchasers an opportunity to own a piece of dynamic Chicago acreage in the heart of Chicago's future Poultry Area—the chicken-a-day on $50,000 Headquarters Plant are laying the dividends that help pay for their land.

IT OFFERS the ambitious man of simple means a stepping stone to own an ANDERSON INCOME HOME and BUSINESS in the Hoan Bay Highland of beautiful POULTRAREA, Chicago's new, fast growing poultry town.

IT OFFERS the purchaser a business of his own, a heritage for his children, and, best of all, an income starting almost immediately.

It involves but a small outlay of cash with maximum profits. It provides him with a substantial business already established, requires no work or effort as far as he is concerned, and he can pursue his regular occupation and live where he chooses while his egg production on our Headquarters Plant helps pay for his land.

SALESMEN are invited to attend our sales meeting Wednesday, at 9 a. m. or call daily thereafter and get the particulars of this fascinating sales plan.

Key organization now being formed.

CADILLAC

Reconditioned Cadillacs-La Salles for Young Men

Many reconditioned Cadillacs-La Salles are purchased by Chicago's young business men. They know that these cars give pride of ownership, dependable performance, and unequaled value.

Reconditioned Cadillac-La Salle motor cars are modestly priced and offer many decided advantages when compared dollar for dollar with new cars selling for the same or even more money.

It takes so little to enjoy the outstanding benefits of Cadillac-La Salle ownership when you use the generous G. M. A. C. Payment Plan. Your present car may be enough or more than is required as the initial payment.

14 NEW Graham-Paige MODELS SACRIFICED WHILE THEY LAST

And 12 New-Car Demonstrators and Officials' Cars

Because of a change in certain models of our line, we are sacrificing these brand new cars at savings, representing 15% to 40%, with Demonstrator and Officials' Cars at still greater savings.

This special offering includes 26 Custom and Standard 6's and 8's, Coupes, Sedans, Phaetons, Town Cars, Limousines, roadsters, some with special colors and upholstery—wood, wire or disc wheel equipment—with or without side mountings. The new cars are offered from $975 up.

These cars consist of showroom samples, slightly used demonstrators and cars used by officials. They carry our regular new-car service and guarantee, and, while the quantity is limited, the opportunity is exceptional. See these bargains while they last.
